Want More Cars—Students of the University of Omaha who live within the limits of crosstown car line have complained to President Jenkins that they are unable to get to classes regularly on time because crosstown cars are so crowded as to make it almost impossible to board them. The complaints are made mostly by those who have 8 o'clock classes. Because of the crowded cars the time schedule is not kept and this often is a cause of their lateness. The students wish that more cars were placed on that line.

Reeves Beauty Show Up-to-Date Wins Its First Night Crowd

Beauty and brains, seasoned with much pepper and served with sparkling comedy of the vintage of 1917, is the recipe for the very pleasing vaudeville dish served at the Gayety Saturday night under the direction of Al Reeves. It is Al's famous beauty show, rejuvenated, and it scored with the first-night audience.

In addition to the perennial posing of models, the lure of the playlet is enhanced by the splendor of the costumes worn by the girls. In the first scene, a fashion parlor, the latest dictates of style, all of rich quality material, form a grand revue. It is good to look at. Charles Robels and Al Green are the chief mirth makers, and merit entitles each to his job.

Specialty numbers are frequent and fine. There is Francis Murphy, a comely young singer, whose flirting makes nervous the men in the lower box—until Francis thunders at them in a base voice and takes off his women's wig. Miss Eddy and Mr. Earle do some lightning stepping in their dervish-like dancing numbers. Then there's Harry Poynton and Frank Green, two of the best tumblers that have worked at the play house this season. They earn and get a volley of applause.

Jerry White sits at a piano and entertains with his deft fingers and pleasing voice. His most popular number is "The Old Minstrel Man's Song." Leona Miller, who braves the calcium lights without makeup, is a beauty, a singer and a dancer. She works her triune charm in getting across "New Orleans" and several other numbers.

A captivating duet is Bernice Taber and Edna Claire, whose dialect songs and dancing win complete favor. The gowns worn all during the show by these two winsome misses are things of beauty. A quartet, composed of Robels, Green, Sulback and Miss Miller, entertains with better-than-ordinary singing. Then Al Reeves, not to be denied a place on the program, gives a monologue, which the whole audience welcomed with much applause.

Young Women Are to Stage Rhode Show

Members of the Young Women's Hebrew Association are making elaborate preparations for the presentation of their "Rhode Show" the evening of December 17 in Metropolitan hall. The program for the evening comprises seven vaudeville acts, with Biblical tableaux, minstrel features and instrumental and vocal numbers. The proceeds will go to the furtherance of the aims of the organization.

Miss Mariam Davis is president of the association; Miss Hannah Greenblatt, vice president, and Miss Ethel Katz, secretary.

While not four months old the organization has a membership of 100 and has organized classes in gymnasium work, Bible study, spelling and the like.

Machine Unmanageable And Driver Is Injured

John Henry, driver for the Kennard Paint and Glass company, was seriously hurt last night when his machine became unmanageable and turned over at Fifty-sixth and Dodge, pinning him beneath the wreckage.

His left leg was broken and several ribs fractured.

E. Pearson and John L. Kennedy found him and pulled away the car which was holding him prisoner. Then they took him to the Clarkson hospital.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

Those who are afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation should read the following: "I have never found anything so good for stomach trouble and constipation as Chamberlain's Tablets. I have used them off and on now for the past two years. They not only regulate the action of the bowels but stimulate the liver and keep one's body in a healthy condition," writes Mrs. Benjamin Hooper, Auburn, N. Y.

STAGE IS SET FOR FARMERS' CONGRESS

Delegates From All Parts of State to Attend Meeting of Body Here.

PREPARE TO RAP EMBARGO

The proposed embargo on grain is due to get a slap in the face, the federal farm loan act is scheduled to be hailed with delight, and the good roads movement will likely get some added impetus and encouragement this week when the Nebraska Farmers' congress meets in Omaha.

The dates are December 12, 13 and 14. The Hotel Castle is to be headquarters.

The embargo looms large on the program, and the delegates are coming in by the hundreds from all parts of the state to take a slap at it. The Farmers' Co-operative Grain and Live Stock association only a few weeks ago framed strong resolutions against it and shot them straight to Woodrow Wilson and the congressmen. The Farmers' congress is due to frame resolutions equally strong and shoot them in the same general direction. For the farmer is not at all displeased with $1 corn and with $1.90 wheat.

Land Bank Question Up.

Within a few weeks doubtless the wheels will be set in motion to establish federal farm loan banks in twelve centers in the United States. The farmers who will attend this convention want to know all about that act, how loans may be had, how they are secured, what interest the bank's bonds are to bear, who will buy them, the rate of interest the farmer will have to pay, and a whole lot of these points. True, the statute, as it is found in statute books now, tells most of these things, but statutes are clumsy things, so clumsy that the supreme court often has to wrestle for months to determine what certain sentences mean. So the farmers want the statute interpreted. They want the exactly fifty pages of fine print which the statute now covers reduced down to short, crisp and plain English.

E. V. Parrish, manager of the Bureau of Publicity of Omaha, is to lead the discussion on the subject. Mr. Parrish had much to do with working up the facts that went into the preparation of the brief which Omaha filed with the Farm Loan board when Omaha made its case asking for one of these banks.

Prof. H. Clyde Filley of the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture is scheduled to follow with a discussion of the subject. Mr. Filley has also made a comprehensive study of the bill, besides making a wide survey of the conditions in Nebraska that are to be remedied by this system of banks.

To Discuss Failures.

"Why Some Farmers' Organizations Are Failures" is a subject to be discussed by T. F. Sturgess, editor of the Twentieth Century Farmer. Carl E. Slatt of Edgar, Neb., is to follow with a discussion of the subject.

Rural schools are to be taken up again and their betterment discussed. W. H. Campbell of Clarks, Neb., is to lead the discussion, and J. H. Lynder of Berwyn, Charles Davis of Colon, D. H. Anderson of Neligh, N. P. Lund of Blair, J. O. Shroyer of Humboldt, H. A. Collins of Papillion, S. C. Boyle of Alvo and A. V. Teed of Lincoln are to discuss the subject also. A. O. Thomas, present state superintendent, also will appear on this part of the program.

Samuel Avery, chancellor of the University of Nebraska, is to tell the story of a loaf of bread. Chancellor Avery is a specialist in chemistry and it is probable that he will analyze the loaf with reference to protein, starch, etc.

E. A. Burnett, dean of the Nebraska School of Agriculture, is to talk on the true basis of land values, and Professor H. F. Williams, in charge of farm management surveys in Nebraska, is to talk on federal and state farm management surveys.

Dr. G. E. Condra, secretary of the Nebraska Public Welfare and Conservation commission, is to give Nebraska in moving pictures.

Told to Close Town, Chicago Chief Quits

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Almost simultaneously with a new order from Chief of Police Charles C. Healey to enforce vigorously the Sunday closing law came the admission from Mayor Thompson today that the chief of police would resign. The new order instructed all policemen to arrest violators on sight and book them at the police stations. Heretofore saloonkeepers who did not obey the law were arrested later on warrants or punished by revocation of their licenses, which in many cases were subsequently restored.

Rev. A. E. Perry Talks to Young Men of Bellevue

At the second meeting Saturday evening of the newly-organized Men's club of the First Presbyterian church of Bellevue, Rev. A. E. Perry, pastor of the Nebraska City Presbyterian church, was the principal speaker. Rev. Perry spoke on "The Need of a Men's Club in Bellevue." He dwelt briefly on the necessity of enterprise, civic pride and loyalty in the success of a men's club in any small town.

Paul W. Cummings, publicity man of the club, had sent out a number of letters to men in Bellevue urging them to attend the meeting. As a consequence fifty men were on hand. The Bellevue quartet, consisting of Messrs. Stepp, Stewart, Walker and Jordan gave several numbers. Dr. David R. Kerr, president of Bellevue college, spoke briefly. Bylaws for the club were adopted at a short business session afterwards. Refreshments were served.

A men's Bible class was organized to meet Sunday mornings as part of the Sunday school. President Kerr was chosen teacher. Prof. Leslie N. Cullom, head of the English department of Bellevue college, was chosen as Dr. Kerr's assistant teacher.

Educational Notes

Hastings College.

Among the visitors at Hastings college the past week were Dr. Stewart of Mitchell, Neb.; Mr. Aegerter of Randolph, Neb., who is a new member of the board of trustees, and the Rev. Mr. Knauer, D. D.

Mr. Aegerter was much pleased to take a look through the college plant and to see the growth and development of the city of Hastings.

Prof. James Anderson of the Department of Philosophy and Education, occupied the pulpit at Holdrege on Sunday.

Several girls' basket ball teams have been organized in connection with the gym. work for our women. Mr. Beck, physical director, has charge of these classes. Four teams have already been chosen, representing the different classes, and they will have inter-class games during the winter months.

Most of the inter-collegiate games will be played by the girls' teams. The girls have likewise been permitted this year to enter the debating contests. A number have already signified their desire to compete for a place, and inter-class debates between them will soon be in progress. The young men will choose their team as usual from the young men's literary society.

The Y. W. C. A. gave very interesting plays last Monday in the college chapel, from which they netted a considerable sum to apply on their piano fund for their rooms; they also gave a bazar at the Presbyterian church last Friday afternoon for the like purpose of raising funds to be applied to the same end.

The new dormitory will be opened to the public next Monday afternoon. It is now in complete operation, the domestic science equipment having been furnished, and the girls are getting their own meals and taking care of the new home under the direction of the professor of domestic science. The equipment of this building is of the most complete character. One girl manages once each week; two do the cooking, and another girl looks after the housekeeping. This is in addition to the regular class work in domestic science and household arts. A definite amount of money is given to meet the expense, within which the plans must be made.

Gospel team bands are organized for their winter church work following their strenuous campaign in the interests of the dry amendment during the autumn. The first team to go out consists of five men, and is to occupy a pulpit of one of our country churches about fifteen miles south of Hastings.

The young ladies of Mount Vernon hall held a delightful party Saturday evening.

The business men of Peru and members of the faculty gave an oyster supper at the Knights of Pythias hall in honor of Peru's victorious foot ball team. The team has played more games, piled up a higher score and held its opponents to a lower score than any Peru team has ever done.

An appreciative audience enjoyed the reading of two scenes from "The Taming of the Shrew," by Miss Dunn of the expression department last Wednesday at the chapel hour.

Fremont College.

Miss Amy Brownlow, county superintendent of schools in Tripp county, South Dakota, was a visitor at the college last week.

A Christmas vesper service will be held in the chapel at 4 p. m. December 17. The program will consist chiefly of carols rendered by the choir. Rev. Mr. Batzle of the Baptist church will give the address.

The Men's club of Fremont was addressed last Tuesday evening by Prof. N. W. Gaines on the subject, "The Place of Humor in American Life." Many students availed themselves of the opportunity of hearing Prof. Gaines' paper.

President Clemmons left Friday morning to attend the dedication of the high school at Wisner and on Saturday addressed a teachers' meeting at Arapahoe.

Arnold Stecher, president of the Komensky club, reports that they have a meeting every Monday evening and are having some lively times.

The library committee, consisting of Profs. Sutherland, Roomer and Haiit will bring about several changes in the management of the library and will select and order a list of new books.

Paul Reichel, student volunteer secretary, spent Wednesday and Thursday among the students, conferring with committee and counselling generally with Christian workers.

Rev. H. C. Mable, D. D., of Boston, spent Thursday and Friday at the college. He gave two addresses each day on subjects of interest to every earnest Christian.

Nebraska Wesleyan.

The approaching class basket ball tournaments are bringing out an unusual number of men, both gymnasiums being occupied at all hours of the day. Some of the new men are showing up exceptionally well and will probably beat the old "W" men out of a place on the team.

Prof. Rayner is in considerable demand for addresses on the Philippines, he having spent several years there as a missionary.

Convocation Friday morning was in the interest of the Young Women's Christian association bazar, which will be held next week.

Prof. Jensen spoke before the Physics club Wednesday evening on reasearch work with high electric potentials.

One of the most important of the recent developments on the campus is the announcement that there will be a conference midyear institute for young ministers, beginning June 4, 1917, and continuing for eight days. A strong corps of instructors from the leading ministers of the state will be present.

Bellevue College.

Prof. Edwin L. Puls, head of the expression department, last week gave a reading at Schuyler of "The Man from Home." Friday evening he read the same play before the Omaha Central Park Social settlement.

With the beginning of December and the end of the foot ball season, indoor physical training work for men has begun. Gymnasium work for the college women has been going on for some time under the direction of Miss Viviane R. Miller, head of the physical training department for women.

A faithful band of students and alumni shivered on the sidelines Friday afternoon to witness the Olympic contests between the freshmen and sophomore classes. The freshmen won the contest hands down, although the sophomores made things interesting in many of the events.

The office force of the college has been greatly enlarged with the return from New York City of Charles E. Baskerville, financial executive of the college. Mr. Baskerville is engaged in raising an endowment fund of $500,000 for Bellevue. Over $50,000 has already been pledged.

York College.

Rev. A. F. Ritchey of the local Christian church gave an enthusiastic talk to the students Tuesday morning.

At a meeting of the "Y" foot ball men George Jahn was elected captain of the 1917 team. Mr. Jahn has no rival for the position of left tackle on the all-state Nebraska team.

The interclass debates will be held Friday, December 15. From these debates will be chosen representatives for the intercollegiate debates.

Miss Gladys Pearson of the music department gave a piano recital in the college chapel on Thursday evening. She was assisted in the orchestral parts by Miss Edna Rankin.

The annual foot ball banquet was held in the gymnasium Friday evening, December 8. The fact that York had had an ever-victorious team this season made the occasion most auspicious and enjoyable.

WOMEN ATHLETIC CLUB'S MEMBERS

Feminine Contingent Will Be Feature of Life of Organization Now.

TO BE WELCOMED OPENLY

Women henceforth will be welcomed openly by the officers of the Omaha Athletic club as members. There had been provisions for receiving them as prospective members, but the directors feared some men would hesitate to join if the woman side of the club were exploited.

Since the announcement of elaborate provisions for women in the club building by Architect Latenser, there is no longer any question about the woman feature of the club. The women's quarters will be apart from the men's.

Women's memberships cost half the price of men's memberships, $250 for a life membership for women and $50 for a resident membership for women, with $25 annual dues.

Miss Helene Bixby and Miss Agness Scott several weeks ago became members.

Secretary Wharton said he expected many women to join. Wives of members will have club privileges on their husbands' memberships.

Architect Latenser is now working on plans to provide for indoor golf and tennis. These plans will be inspected by the directors and advisers next Wednesday.

George Brandeis, chairman of the finance committee, said there will be enough membership fees in by January 1 to make the last payment upon the club's $218,000 lot on Douglas street.

Young Lawyer Has Article in Issue of Harvard Review

Anan Raymond, one of the younger members of the Omaha bar, is the author of one of the leading articles in the December issue of the Harvard Law Review, entitled, "Suretyship at 'Law Merchant.'"

In this article Mr. Raymond discusses recent reports of the Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, which drafted the uniform negotiable instruments act, and whose reports show a tendency to elimination of suretyship doctrines from the "law merchant." By tracing the history of the "law merchant" he shows that there is nothing in its relation to the other portions of the English and American legal system to deny suretyship a place in it and that doctrines of suretyship have been incorporated into it, by analogy, from equity.

The article then goes into the effect of the uniform law upon this phase of the "law merchant," with especial reference to accommodation paper and the status of accommodation parties under the old law and the new.

The Harvard Law Review, one of the leading law journals of the country, is published by the Harvard University Law school.

Hollanders Organize To Help Countrymen

A well attended meeting of former Hollanders was held Saturday in the Bouricius studio in the Arlington block when a temporary organization was formed. J. H. Boonstra was elected temporary president; W. J. de Winter, temporary secretary. The aim is to further the interests of Dutch people, who may be coming to the city and state or who may be passing through Omaha. It is the intention to make a formal request for the location of a Dutch consulate here. The next meeting will be held in the same place next Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Will pay for the chance to heal Catarrh

After an experience of 25 years, during which time 50 million Americans have used Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly, the manufacturers of this remedy feel so sure that it will relieve catarrh—that they offer to pay for a chance to prove its benefit to any catarrhal sufferer. They announce that any resident of this community can go to almost any drug store and get a complimentary trial can at the expense of the manufacturers. If the druggist has no gratuitous packages, the person may buy a 25 cent tube with the unqualified understanding that if that first tube does not do that person more than a dollar's worth of good, he or she can get their quarter back from either the druggist, or the Kondon Company at Minneapolis. Over 35,000 druggists know Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly is effective, harmless, clean and pleasant to apply—and they know the Kondon people will gladly live up to this offer—"quarter back if not worth a dollar." EVERY FOOT ACHE HITS BRAIN A SEVERE JOLT

The nerves of the human body are so closely interrelated that a shock to any part of the body is echoed in the brain. This is particularly true, as every foot ache, pang of pain or discomfort shocks the whole nervous system and jolts the brain like a blow. That is why foot sufferers are so often unable to do themselves justice and why so many employers will not accept an applicant for a place who is a foot sufferer. Foot troubles, however, are easily banished. A 25-cent package of Wa-Ne-Ta will relieve foot troubles and bring relief almost instantly. Two or three tablets dropped in a pan of hot water will furnish a foot bath that will wash away the pangs and aches of tired, sweaty, burning, sore and tender feet. Excellent when used for general bathing, leaving skin soft and sanitary. If your druggist hasn't Wa-Ne-Ta, send us 10 cents and we will gladly mail you a sample package. L. C.
