

CHARLES C. CROWLEY TWICE IDENTIFIED

Alleged Go-Between Employed by Consul General Bopp is Recognized by Witnesses.

WILSON PARDONS SMITH

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 11.—Charles C. Crowley, alleged go-between through whom German Consul General Franz Bopp and others here are charged with having conspired to blow up Canadian railroads and En-tente munition shipments, was twice identified today in connection with the Seattle dynamite barge explosion of May 30, 1915.

"Yes, sir, that's the man," said R. L. Harris, a stoker on the Seattle fire tug Snoqualmie on the night of the explosion. "That's the man who came on board about an hour and a quarter after the explosion. He said he was a government man and wanted to make inquiries."

Crowley, with Consul General Bopp, Vice Consul E. H. von Schack, Lieutenant G. W. von Brinken, Louis J. Smith, Mrs. Margaret Cornell and Johannes von Koolbergen, is tried in the district court for conspiracy to violate American neutrality and the interstate commerce law. The blowing up of a thirty-ton dynamite barge at Seattle, Canadian Pacific tunnels in British Columbia, the St. Claire tunnel at Port Huron, and other acts are specified.

Previous identification of Crowley as a self-styled "Government man," who pressed similar inquiries six weeks after the Seattle explosion, was made today by Louis Boyd, pilot of the fire tug, which rushed to the scene of the explosion.

Wilson Pardons Smith

The signing by President Wilson of a pardon for Louis J. Smith, for an offense committed while in the United States army in 1908, has released his testimony without a court ruling upon its eligibility. It had been contended by the defense that court martial conviction for a felony had disqualified his testimony. The prosecution's star witness is expected to take the stand later in the week.

Edwin Thompson, chief clerk of the Western hotel at Sacramento, Cal., last year, was the closing witness today. He testified that Smith deposited $900 in the hotel safe on the night of July 28, 1915, and drew it out July 30. Previous testimony has been to indicate that Smith had been performing common labor two months before.

Mrs. Smith, wife of the government's chief witness, will take the stand tomorrow, it was said at the United States district attorney's office late today.

FRENCH CABINET TO BE MADE OVER

All Members Put Their Resignations in Hands of Premier Briand.

SMALL COUNCIL OF WAR

Paris, Dec. 11.—Premier Briand was busy all day Sunday seeing not only politicians, but prominent business men and manufacturers in view of the new combination, to facilitate which all ministers and under secretaries will hand in their resignations. In the meantime, according to the Matin, the reorganization of the higher command in the army, being an essentially administrative question, will not be settled until after the new government makes its bow to the Chamber of Deputies on Tuesday and is endorsed by a vote of confidence.

"In addition to forming a war council of five ministers on the model of that in England," continues the Matin, "Premier Briand has decided in the interest of the economic organization of the country to throw the old administrative machine into the melting pot and oblige all ministerial departments, hitherto congealed in superannuated methods, to get in line with the rest of the country, which is freely spending its blood and gold."

"In the course of conversations he had with prominent men Premier Briand announced that he intended to give a free hand to the ministers, under secretaries and directors forming part of the new ministry. The most absolute powers will be granted to them and, if it is found the methods meet resistance, or that certain habits are resisted, these powers will be still further increased and drastic measures taken. The composition of the new combination will clearly show the new spirit. It will be the most complete possible reconstruction, as will be seen when their names are published."

CHICAGO CHIEF OF POLICE RESIGNS

Charles C. Healey Turns in His Commission at Request of Mayor Thompson.

DENIES ANY WRONG DOING

Chicago, Dec. 11.—Charles C. Healey, chief of police, awaiting trial on a charge of permitting the operation of vicious resorts, resigned tonight, the resignation to take effect January 1. The resignation followed statements by Mr. Healey that he would leave the service only at the urgent desire of Mayor Thompson and that he was not resigning voluntarily.

"I am surrendering the office with full consciousness of having performed its duties with scrupulous honesty and to the best of my ability," Mr. Healey's letter said.

Chief Healey expressed the hope that he would be restored to his former position as head of the traffic squad here. The indictments against him and the subsequent separation from the chief's office were developments of differences between Mayor Thompson and Maclay Hoyne, democratic states' attorney, it is believed. The disagreement reached a crisis after Chief Healey had suspended Police Captain O'Brien, charging him with failing to suppress vice in a district inhabited largely by negroes. Hoyne accused the chief of insincerity in this move, and while O'Brien was on the stand testifying on Hoyne's application for a warrant for Mr. Healey's arrest, the grand jury, sitting in another part of the city, returned indictments against him.

During his service of thirty years in the police department every major bone in his body has been broken while in the performance of his duties. The following is a list of his most serious injuries:

Broken—Both thighs, both legs, right arm, five ribs, collar bone, nose, four fingers of right hand.

Dislocated—Shoulder and left arm.

Shattered by Bullet—Right wrist.

In addition to these injuries he suffered numerous knife and razor cuts and clubbings about the head during his career as a policeman.

Stockmen Barely Escape From Hotel When Blaze Starts

Grand Island, Neb., Dec. 11.—(Special Telegram.)—Fire early today destroyed the Union Stock Yards hotel, two miles east of this city. So rapid was its headway that several of the stockmen asleep in their rooms escaped from their beds only scantily clad. One forgot a roll of $90, which he had placed under his pillow. A small blaze in the basement yesterday supposedly extinguished, is believed to have started afresh. Mr. Whitmore, the manager, is in Chicago, and the exact loss is not known but it is estimated to be about $8,000 with insurance covering the greater part of the loss.

The department responded from the city, but the yards' water system was partially frozen and the firemen could assist only in saving some of the furniture.

New Demurrage Rate Meets Railroad Plans

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Dec. 11.—(Special.)—The State Railway commission is in receipt of an amended application from the railroads of the state to change the demurrage rate from the amount asked for to a rate which will not conflict with the rate charged for interstate business.

The old free date for three days with a charge of $1 for each day, raising the charge $1 more per day with no charge for bad weather, has been changed to two days free with a charge of $1 the third day, $2 for the fourth and $3 the fifth with $5 each day succeeding that for all cars, with no bad weather provision is what the new change asked for will mean if put in effect.

This meets the provisions of interstate traffic and in the minds of the carriers will be in harmony with things and make less conflict in rates.

Nujol For Constipation

AS CLEAR AS CRYSTAL

Hold a bottle of Nujol up to the light. Its crystal transparency is without a flaw. Every trace of impurity, every vestige of color or "bloom" has been removed by varied and many times repeated processes of refining.

Nujol is water-white, tasteless and odorless. It neither looks, tastes, nor smells like "medicine." As a matter of fact it isn't medicine at all, in the ordinary sense. It is not a laxative or a purgative, is not absorbed by the system, hence doesn't form a habit. It acts in effect as an internal lubricant, softening the contents of the intestines and so promoting normal movements.

"Nujol is bottled at the refinery and is sold only in pint bottles bearing the name Nujol and the imprint of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey). Refuse substitutes—be sure you get the genuine. Write today for booklet 'The Rational Treatment for Constipation.'"
