Woman Becomes Insane and Tries to Kill Her Husband

Grand Island, Neb., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Mrs. J. G. Kountze was taken to Lincoln yesterday, accompanied by her husband, to be placed in a sanitarium and the fact is a chapter in a rather sad family condition. Acting under a peculiar hallucination, the result, she says, of reading "doctor books," Mrs. Kountze arose at 3 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Kountze, who has both hands bandaged, the result of an injury receiving white working in the Union Pacific shops, felt his wife's hand stealing over his face. Thinking it was a caress, he raised his hand to her forehead to deflect the blow from a hand-axe. As it was he received a deep gash below the eye. He was sufficiently strong to get out of bed, turn on a light, quiet Mrs. Kountze and call in some neighbors who in turn called a physician. Mrs. Kountze explained after being placed in custody that she was tired of life, believed she was ill and was convinced from what she had read that it was better to leave this world and take her husband with her. In the city jail she tried to commit suicide by attempting to cut the arteries of her wrists. The husband and wife have been happy and Mr. Kountze is doing everything possible for the unfortunate woman.

Mr. Reagan owing to sickness was unable to be present. Louis Lightner, president of the Business Men's club, which arranged the affair acting as toastmaster called for talks from W. H. Thompson of Grand Island, ex-senator W. V. Allen of Madison, Rev. Harry Huntington, Carl Kramer and G. W. Phillips, besides the honor guests, Rev. Mr. Griffiths delivered the invocation.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

Peel off Your Rough Skin

To remove roughness, chaps or any complexion difficulty, the best thing to do is to remove the skin itself. This is easily and harmlessly done by the application of ordinary mercurochrome. The wax peels off the defective outer skin, a little each day, gradually bringing the second layer of skin to view. The new skin is beautifully soft, clear, and young looking. Just procure an ounce of mercurochrome wax at any drug store and use like cold cream.—Advertisement.

REED WANTS MONEY FOR PROSECUTIONS

Attorney General Asks Law-makers to Give Cash to Enforce Prohibition.

ALSO FOR OTHER CASES

Lincoln, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Attorney General Willis E. Reed will ask the legislature to appropriate $100,000 to enforce the new prohibitory law and authority also to remove county attorneys who neglect to enforce the law, according to his report filed with the governor. While such a large sum may not be needed to enforce the law, according to Mr. Reed the fact that the state has a sufficient sum to fight violations will have a wholesome effect upon would-be violators and cause them to go slow. According to Mr. Reed, if the state was handicapped for funds to carry on the fight, it would mean that violators would take chances in hopes that the lack of funds would prevent prosecutions. It would not necessarily mean that such a sum would be used, but if it was there to use, there would be a lack of violations. Mr. Reed has asked that the appropriation for the purpose of carrying on the irrigation cases and protect the water users of the state, be made $50,000. There should be $10,000 appropriated for the anti-trust prosecutions and $10,000 for general prosecutions.

Lack of funds during the next year or so to carry on prosecutions would handicap the state severely and prove a menace to the successful termination of the cases, according to the opinion of the attorney general and he hopes that the members of the legislature will see that there is need for the amounts named. Persistence is the Cardinal Virtue in Advertising.

Neville on Deck Says Murchell to Be Food Deputy

Lincoln, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Governor-elect Keith Neville returned today from Washington, where he attended a conference of governors of the different states, but outside of confirming the already published statements that Otto Murchell would be food commissioner and J. F. Webster, editor of the St. Paul Pioneer-Graphic, would be printing commissioner, had nothing to say. "I have a large amount of correspondence at home, I suppose," said the new governor, "and I would like to look that over before I announce anything further in the way of appointments." The governor enjoyed his trip to Washington and believes he received much practical benefit from his association with the executives of other states.

Would Collect State School Land For Reserve Use

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Woodruff Ball of Valentine, secretary of the forestation commission, filed his report with the governor today. The report recommends the exchange of the scattered school lands of the western counties for lands in a compact area so that they may be utilized for reserves in a manner which will bring greater results. There are about 10,000 acres scattered about which if put in one area would be of more value to the state. Other states have a law permitting the consolidation of lands for forest reserve uses. This move will require legislative sanction. The commission has two bills which it will have introduced. One will enable cities to have municipal reserves to be used as playgrounds, parks and portable water preserves. The other provides for the continuation of the forestation commission for three years more, making one commissioner appointed each year with no pay. The last legislature appropriated $2,000 for the expenses of the commission, but it has spent only $300.
