New York Dec. 20.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Talk of peace in Europe, easily the foremost factor of the week, has had a four-feld effect. It has produced uncertainty regarding the time when peace may come to pass, developed conservation as to new far-off business, tended to shade hereic-fore highly-keyed views as to prices and hoying, and for a spell caused widespread liquidation in speculative market quotations. The net result has been of a sobering character, bringing in its wake loss marked speculative ambitions, more temperate views as to the permanency of present high prices. To Exploit West On a Greater Scale Than Before

General Passenger Agent Basinger of the Union Pacific is back from Chicago, where he attended a meeting of the traveling passenger agents of the railroad system. At this meeting plans for the conduct of the cam-paign for business next sun mer were taken up and discussed.

Mr. Basinger asserts that next summer the Union Pacific will be in the field early and will exploit the west and central west to a much greater extent than ever before. While it is too early to get a definite idea of next season's business, he says indications point to its being very heavy.
