Although he is now in the hands of juvenile court authorities and does not know what his fate will be, 11-year-old Henry Newlin, 403 North Fifteenth street, has reason to believe that police officers in general are not such a heartless lot, after all. On Christmas eve Henry and Fred Perkins, aged 14, Reid hotel, were arrested charged with the robbery of two oil stations on Cuming street. Christmas day was Henry's birthday anniversary and it broke his heart to think he must spend that double-holiday in jail. He gave expression to his grief.

And later in the day they served coffeer and several kinds of sandwiches and ice cream and cake and fruit cake and cookies and macaroons, and then washed up all those dishes. This was what happened in one home. Multiply that by thousands of homes and see what happened in Omaha.

Sing Carol of Thanksgiving to the Women Who Made Christmas Enjoyable.

By A. R. GROH. Men of Omaha, today let us sing a ong of thanksgiving, a pacan of praise, an anthem of admiration and a carol of sweet thanksgiving to the women of Omaha who prepared and served our Christmas dinners.

Did we men stop to think, as we delighted our appetites with dish after dish of delicious food, exquisitely cooked and charmingly served, what an enormous amount of planning and work was required to provide that meal?

The legality of the embargo continues to be a matter of dispute, but it is said the railroad officials, in declaring the embargo, are working on the theory that shippers would have less chance to collect damages if their shipments were refused than it their shipments were accepted and delayed in delivery.

At the hospitable home where I was a guest there were twenty-two people altogether. As nearly as find the can remember, each guest used twenty-six different dishes, cups, glasses, knives, torks and spoons. This would make 572 articles to wash, without counting the scores of dishes in which things were served and the pots and pans and kettles in which they were cooked!

Feast for Kings.

After we had been exquisitely served with the tempting fruit cocktail and the delicious oyster stew and celery, suffed olives, pickles, cucumbers and the glorious turkey with oyster stuffin and mashed taters and French peas and cranberry sauce and, Mr. Lambert is not ready to make public specifically just what amount of property he believes would revert to the city, nor what steps his department would recommend the city should take beyond making a formal demand upon the company to show under what franchise rights it would seek to operate certain lines after February 19, 1917.

There are legal phases of this situation which Mr. Lambert wishes to discuss with the council confidentially before taking action against the street railway company.

Each city commissioner has a copy of the report for perusal before the committee of the whole meeting next week.

Council Orders Report.

On January 24, 1916, the city council directed Mr. Lambert to submit a report on the franchise status and franchise rights of the present street railway company, so far as the same may in any way concern the use and counculous of the present of the providence of the whole meeting next week.
