Sheep—sheep and lamb receipts were on the renerous order, it being the any branch of the local trade that was decently supplied. Arrivals were estimated at fifty-pix loads, or 12,008 bead. Considering the fact that there was no market yesteriage the fact that receipts continue liberal, reflecting the fact that receipts continue liberal, reflecting belief in the shortage of refrigerator cars, and buyers were all out after stuff serily. The supply was yarded early and movement attried in good season at figures that were sleady to as much as a dime higher than 17 day. Choice lambs soid as high as 112.5, a new record, and a paper advance of 200 over igst week's close, while built of the good lambs soid downward from 1211s, some of the in-between and unfiniared offering geng at $12.400 [2.85].

A moulerate run of aged sheep soid fairly readily in about the same notches as last week. Must of the supply was of ewes and more of these were real toppy, best here stopping at $12.500, with fair kinds on down towards $3.00.

In the sharp setback, however, which then quitely ensued, some of the largest traders were conspicuous on the bear side. On the other hand, the fact that Germany in its answer did not comply with the American request to name peace terms appeared to whether a reseation of hostilities actually had been brought any mearer. This unrectainty was reflected by something of a raily which seemed to be gaining headway as the session came to an end. The fact raily which seemed to be gaining headway as the session came to an end. The fact lies was noticeable that at no time did the declines carry the market to any radical extent below Raturday's closing level. Previous to the Berlin developments the wheat market had displayed a decided tendency to advance and had risen to the highest point since the new was received at the German peace offer on December 12. Today's temporary showing of strength was based largely on hopes of improved foreign receipts. In this connection gossip was current that Europeans were buying future deliveries and that more vessels were now available for absorts.

Predictions of heavy receipts this week had a bearth influence on corn, especially after wheat late in the day underwent as a stimulus to buyers, but the offect failed to last; A good export demand for oats was noted. Otherwise, though, trade in oats was light.

Local Harvester Company Head Goes To Pacific Branch

H. E. Daniels, for the last three years manager of the local branch of the International Harvester company, president of the Omaha and Council Bluffs Implement and Vehicle club, and prominent figure among the midwest implement men' and local Masonic circles, left today for Los Angeles, Cal., where he will take up his duties as manager of the company at that point, filling the vacancy made by the sudden death of P. O. Busselle.

Mr. Daniels was succeeded at this point by his former assistant, F. W. Lewis. Ira T. Waite of the Kansas City branch, filling the vacancy left by the promotion of Mr. Lewis.

A farewell banquet, with covers laid for sixty guests, was given at the Hotel Loyal, with Mr. Lewis presiding and B. L. Rees, district manager, of the International Harvester company. L. L. Lease, manager of the Crawford branch, M. M. Lyons of Council Bluffs and Hadley Potee speakers of the evening.

Mr. Daniels was accompanied by his wife and daughter, Dorothy, who were prominent in Dundee social circles.

On the strength of evidence submitted by Rodger Grace, his 12-year-old son, Herbert Grace, bookkeeper, 2407 Jones street, was found guilty of having abused his wife and was sentenced to ninety days in jail.

Rodger won the admiration of court officials when he said that despite threats by his father he intended to stand by his mother. He told of having worked at odd jobs in order to earn some "Christmas mopney" and said that on Christmas morning he gave his father a dollar as a present.

With this money, the boy declared, the father got drunk and spoiled his and his mother's Christmas, when he returned home and drove them all out

Omaha Raises $1,200 for The Tuberculosis Fund In the neighborhood of $1,200 was netted to the Nebraska Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis from the sale of Red Cross seals in Omaha, according to estimates of Mrs. P. M. Ruleau, office secretary. While the city sales average about the same as every year it is believed that the proceeds of sales out in the state will be larger than usual.

One hundred dollars, the usual contribution of Omaha liquor men, was not forthcoming this year, Mrs. Ruleau says.

Want Geary Removed

Heirs of the late Eliza R. Hayward, widow of a former well-to-do lumberman, who died ten years ago, leaving her estate of $30,000 in the final analysis to great grandchildern who are not yet born, have filed suit with the elerk of the district court against Thomas Geary, a lawyer, demanding an accounting and seeking his removal as trustee.

Maude Hayward Watkins and daughters, Louise Eleanor Watkins, and Helen Maude Watkins, are the plaintiffs. They allege that Geary has loaned sums from the estate on personal securities instead of real estate securities. They also charge that he has failed to turn some of the income to them. That he is incompetent to manage the estate shall go to charity in case there are no great grandchildren.

More from City Planners

The Omaha Civic league, through Stanley M. Rosewater, secretary, has submitted to the city council an expression of disappointment with the program of the City Planning commission for the first year of this new board. The league states that it expected from the planners a more complete outline of a comprehensive plan for Omaha. It is suggested that if the planners are hampered on account of funds, then the appropriation should be increased for 1917.

Bonuses to Employes

The Travelers Live Insurance company of Hartford, Conn., gave its salaried employes in all parts of the United States who receive less than $100 a month a month's pay, according to an announcement made by Tom S. Kelley, general agent of the company at this point. All receiving $100 or more a month were given a check for $100. Mr. Kelley said that the houses were to aid in the battle against the H.
