Mrs. D. V. Sholes Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. D. V. Sholes, widow of the late D. V. Sholes, prominent Omaha real estate man who died about a year ago, died at a local hospital at noon. She was 60 years of age.

Mrs. Sholes had been in poor health for about two years. A week ago, however, she became suddenly worse and was removed from the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Calkins, to the hospital, where the end came quite suddenly. Mrs.

Sholes has been a resident of Omaha for thirty-eight years. She is survived by one son, L. C. Sholes, and one daughter, Mrs. C. W. Calkins.

Suit Styles for Spring Are to Be Smartest Ever Eastern manufacturers are bringing out the smartest suit styles yet for the spring season," says Julius Orkin, who just returned from a buying trip to New York. He also visited several eastern cities with his sister, Mrs. M. Wasserman. He has been securing advanced spring styles for the sales he is now conducting. Mr. Orkin says the Christmas buying in New York was enormous and that their New York store was so crowded Saturday the doors had to be closed to relieve the congestion.
