

Council Bluffs Social Notes

Mr and Mrs Herman O. Rohling, daughter, Elizabeth, and son, Herman, are at the Grand hotel for the week to visit friends and relatives in the city.

Miss Mantie Mangum spent the Christmas holidays with relatives at Logan.

Bruce Tucker went to Des Moines Saturday night to spend Christmas holidays with friends and relatives.

Mr and Mrs W. E. Zimmerman of Red Oak came Christmas day to spend a few days at the F. E. Converse home, 312 Lincoln avenue.

Miss Wanda Hadloso spent Christmas with relatives at Webster City.

Mrs O. W. Graham and daughter, Mrs. Millie Butler, have returned from an extended stay in Chicago.

Mr and Mrs Bert Elliott of Whiting are holiday guests at the home of Mrs. Elliott's mother, Mrs. Robert Green. Mrs. Green entertained at a family Christmas dinner.

Mr and Mrs Ernest Johnson of Moline, Ill., are Christmas guests at the home of Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Dohy.

Mrs. Donald Maera entertained at a family Christmas dinner, her son, Don, being home from college for the holidays. The guests were Mr and Mrs. Clifford Wolfe, Mrs. Weston and Miss Mary Key.

Mr and Mrs Jack Day entertained at a family dinner Christmas day, out-of-town guests being Mrs. J. G. Anderson and daughter, Mrs. J. Helena, Moth.

Miss Blott Pryor, who is teaching domestic science at the Sweet Road school in Virginia, is here to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pryor.

Mr and Mrs George H. Mayne entertained at a family dinner Christmas at their home on Turley avenue.

Mr and Mrs T. J. Kelley and son, Paul, left Monday for Arkansas to make their home near the Ozark mountains.

Mr and Mrs L. T. Kimball spent the holidays with relatives at Oakland.

Mrs Sam Austin and Miss Irene Bell are spending two weeks with relatives at Creston, Ia.

J. Scheen of Marshalltown is the holiday guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Robinson.

Howard George, formerly with the physical department of the Young Men's Christian association, was a visitor in the city Tuesday, stopping here en route to Chicago. Mr. George has been a student in the University of Oregon and is now on his way to Chicago, where he will enter the Young Men's Christian association training school to fit himself for association work.

Phil Walker left Tuesday for Sioux City after spending Christmas at the home of his parents, Mr and Mrs. A. B. Walker.

J. B. Walker of Topeka, Kan., spent Sunday in Council Bluffs, en route to Sioux City, where he joined Mrs. Walker and the children, to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr and Mrs. F. M. Pfeiffer.

M. J. Powers left Monday evening for Chicago.

Miss Emma Beck, who is attending the Chicago university, is here for the holidays.

Guy Shepard left Monday evening for Chicago after spending Christmas with relatives here.

Mrs. J. C. Aid returned Monday evening from Brownsville, Tex., where she went to visit her son, Gail Aid, who is with the troops there, and who has been seriously ill.

Miss Jennie Mae Smith arrived Sunday morning from Osceola, N. M., where she is a teacher in the public schools, to spend the holiday vacation with relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. J. McCune, formerly of this city, is spending a few weeks with her son, Ford McCune, on Graham avenue. Mrs. McCune's home is now in Creston.

H. J. Chambers, well-known attorney and former clerk of the district court, is able to be out after being confined to his home by ill-health for some time.

Miss Anna Sperling left Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will spend the winter.

Dr. Mac Hanchett left Tuesday evening for Chicago after spending Christmas with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Hanchett.

Mr and Mrs. S. E. Hodge left Wednesday for their home in Seattle, Wash, after an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Hodge's mother, Mrs. John Reno.

Born to Mr and Mrs. Homer C. Shaffer at Mercy hospital Christmas morning, a baby girl. Mrs. Shaffer was formerly Miss Bessie White.

Announcements have been received in Omaha and Council Bluffs from Mr and Mrs. Charles R. Mawson of Creston, Ia., announcing the birth of a baby girl. Mrs. Mawson was formerly Miss Bessie Seminger. Both mother and babe are doing nicely.

Dr. and Mrs. A. V. Hennessey have as their house guests Mr and Mrs. Ozro Hill of Freeport, Ill., and the Misses Cornelius of Marion, Ia.

Mrs. Max Busselle of West Plains, Mo., is home for a holiday visit with her parents, Mr and Mrs. E. C. Hendricks. Mrs. Busselle was recently called to California by news of the death of his father and expects to be here to spend New Year's on his way home.

Mr and Mrs. W. J. Ready gave a dinner at the Grand Wednesday evening in honor of the office staff of Mr. Ready, who is local representative of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. Covers were laid for eight, decorations being in Christmas colors.

Mr and Mrs. J. A. Killins of 275 Morningside avenue entertained Christmas day at a family dinner, guests being brothers and sisters of Mrs. Killins with their families. Their son, Wendell, who is attending the university at Iowa City, is home for the holidays and was a guest at the dinner. Other guests were Mr and Mrs. A. J. Boulton and two daughters of Red Oak, Mr and Mrs. G. C. Allenworth and daughter of Red Oak, Mr and Mrs. W. A. Allenworth and daughter of Carson.

Mr and Mrs. Forest Smith entertained at a delightful family dinner Christmas day at their home on Madison avenue. The guests were Mrs. Ingletha Ware and Judge and Mrs. Walter I. Smith and family.

Mr and Mrs. Robert Daniels will have as their house-guests this week

Miss Pixley and Her House Guests

Ellen Catlin

Betty Mitchell

Mrs. Frances Pratt of Chicago and Helen Webster of Lincoln, Neb., who will come Friday in time for the annual dinner of the Lathrop club and remain for the week-end.

Mrs. J. F. Spore entertained the members of the L. F. club at lunch on Wednesday afternoon. After luncheon the club members had their annual exchange of gifts, and spent the time with housework, and guests were present. The club will be entertained January 10 at the home of Mrs. Tucker in Omaha.

One of the most delightful affairs of the holiday season was the dance given Wednesday evening at the J. F. Wilcox home on East Pierce street, with Glenn Wilcox and Mr. Bernard Leno as host. The entire house was beautifully adorned with Christmas greens, and dancing was enjoyed in the ball room on the third floor. At 11 o'clock supper was served, tables being arranged in the dining room and large living room. Each table had as a centerpiece a lovely basket of boxwood and red carnations. At each place was a miniature Christmas tree bearing the place card, and making a most attractive favor. About forty guests were present.

A most pleasant holiday party for members and their families was given Wednesday evening at the Elks' club. Music was furnished for dancing and the club house was attractively decorated with Christmas greens.

The first of the holiday parties for the younger set was the annual dance of the Tyrol club Christmas night in the ball room of the Grand. Christmas greens were effectively used in decorating the ball room. The occasion was an enjoyable one and dancing continued until a late hour. The programs were in the club colors, green and gold, and were decorated with the club emblem. The music was excellent and punch was served throughout the evening. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Ross, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Benton, Mr. and Mrs. John Tunley and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Emkie.

Invitations are out for the annual cadet hop to be given Wednesday night, January 3, and which promises to be a most brilliant affair.

The home of Mr and Mrs. Robert Young, 1125 Seventh avenue, was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding, when on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock their daughter, Miss Hazel Young, became the bride of Mr. Edvard Evans of Red Oak. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Montgomery of Red Oak. The bride was attended by Miss Knepper of Omaha and Mr. Maloney of Red Oak was best man. The bride was most charming in a dainty gown of blue chiffon over white satin and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pearl gray crepe de chine. The house was attractively decorated with Christmas greens and holly. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Mr and Mrs. Evans left later in the afternoon for a wedding trip, declining to make known their destination. They will be at home after January 1 at Red Oak. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. William Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Maloney of Red Oak.

A most pretty wedding took place Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at Salem Evangelical church, when Rev. H. O. Lorenz united in marriage his daughter, Caroline, and Dr. C. S. Greenfield of Castana. All the members of the congregation were invited to the wedding and the church was filled. The wedding march was played by Miss Alma Winter of Duntaries, cousin of the bride. The church was most beautifully decorated with a profusion of Christmas greens. Miss Marie Lorenz, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mr. Milton Lorenz was best man. The bridesmaid wore a dainty gown of pink and carried pink roses. The bride was charming in a lovely gown of white voile with trimmings of lace and a long tulle veil. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the parsonage. Refreshments were served during the reception and later in the evening a wedding supper was served to the relatives. Dr and Mrs. Greenfield left Thursday for Castana, where Dr. Greenfield is engaged in the practice of dentistry. The bride, during the Christmas season are Miss Hurdell's mother, Mrs. Anthony Rogers, and her sister, Miss Libban Rogers, and Mrs. Harry Hosenworth and Mr. Hosenworth, all of Chicago; Mr and Mrs. M. J. Carney of New York City and Mr and Mrs. Will Harper and E. P. Nolan of Chicago.

Mr and Mrs. Austin Dodds and children have gone to Alton, Tex., for the remainder of the winter.

Mr and Mrs. W. A. Goodnow and daughter, Miss Evelyn Goodnow, of Minneapolis were the guests during the last week of Mr and Mrs. S. R. Ruhl.

Mrs. Helen Martin, Mr. Cecil Morton and daughter, Betty, of Grand Island, spent Christmas with Mr and Mrs. J. H. Arty.

Dr and Mrs. Walter Crooks spent Christmas with Mrs. Crooks' parents in Carroll, Ia.

A dinner and concert party at the Yale club concert was given last evening for Miss Dorothy Belt by her parents, Mr and Mrs. W. R. T. Belt.

Mrs. Ruth Hamilton's home from Dana Hall, Wellesey, for the holidays.

A New Year reception to the new members of the Dundee Presbyterian church was held at the church Tuesday afternoon for the Sunday school department and in the evening for the adults.

Arthur Klapp and Jack Yeiser are at home from the Nebraska university for the holidays.

Mrs. W. O. Perry entertained the Dundee circle of the Child Conserva tion league at her home in Fair Acres Friday.

Mr and Mrs. Irving Baxter are spending two weeks at Greengrove, White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.

The engagement of Miss Louise Brown of Lancaster, Wis., and Judge Charles Foster was announced Friday at a luncheon given by Mrs. Charles C. Belchen at her home, followed by a bridge party at the home of Miss Brown's sister, Mrs. Carroll R. Hildner.

Mrs. Jessie Daddler entertained at her home Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Helen Motion of Grand Island.

Alma and Huldah Wise are home from Ames, Ia., for the holidays.

Mr and Mrs. D. C. Dodds gave a family dinner Christmas at their home in Kalston.

Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Foster and children spent Christmas day with Mr and Mrs. A. B. Callison of Omaha.

The subscription dance for the high school set was given Monday night at Harrie hall.

Miss Mildred White entertained at her home Wednesday afternoon the following young women: Misses Dora Wise, Louise Wise, Lulu Miller, Mable Miller, Lila Hoke, Mildred Beaden, Olive Walton, Eloise Greene, Jeanne Dow, Pauline Johnson, Eleanor Line, Marion Jones, Mary Newton, Mary Elizabeth Hamilton, Evelyn Bancroft, Helen Nieman and Herberta Barker.

Mrs. Marie E. Van Gieson had her usual Christmas tree Monday for those of her children and grandchildren who are in the city.

Miss Mary Johnson entertained the following young women at dinner at her home Friday evening: Misses Edythe Stanton, Eibehweyne Hodge, Velta Dresson, Clarice Browne, Helen Curtis, Beatrice Walton, Suzanna Jobst of Lincoln, Huldah Wise, Margaret Warner of Dakota City.

Mr and Mrs. W. H. Taylor have moved from 5113 Webster to the Colonial apartments.

Mrs. Jennie Brown has returned from an extended trip.

Miss Florence Leavitt is spending the holidays in La Crosse, Wyo.

Miss Beryl Faulkner of 114 South Forty-eighth street has been spending the holidays with her brother, Mr. Paul T. Faulkner, and friends at Topeka, Kan. She is expected home the coming week.

Benson Social Circles

Mr and Mrs. C. P. McPherson will spend New Year's day with relatives in Plattsmouth.

Miss Greta Starrett of Des Moines, Ia., is a guest of her brother, J. O. Starrett.

Misses Catherine and Mary Farris of Carrollton, Mo., are spending the holidays at the C. H. Farris home.

Miss Lena Jorgenson of Jordan, S. D., and Mr and Mrs. H. A. Smith of Des Moines, Ia., are the guests at the P. Christiansen home.

Mr and Mrs. William Yarton left Monday for Leigh, Neb., where they will be for some time.

Frank Christiansen has returned home to Montrose, S. D., having been called here by the death of Mrs. Charles Post.

The women and Brotherhood of the Methodist church will spend a social evening next Sunday at the L. D. Dickerson home.

Miss Jessie Moulthrop left last Wednesday for her future home in Binghamton, N. Y., after a three years' stay in Benson.

Mrs. J. Phillips will be hostess for the Methodist Ladies' Aid society next Wednesday.

U. C. Stafford, who has been a resident of Benson several years, was married last Tuesday in Syracuse, N. Y., to Miss Vera Johnson. Mr Stafford is 60 years of age and has several grown children.

Mr and Mrs. A. W. Francis entertained at Christmas dinner for a number of Council Bluffs people. Covers were laid for Mrs. Mary Hoagland, Dr. S. C. Houghton, Millard Hoagland and Mr and Mrs. J. H. Deems.

Marshall Welch entertained Wednesday evening for a number of his schoolmates in honor of his house guests, Misses Wilma and Louise Baehr and Joe Norris.

Miss Madeline Horton and Mrs. Frank Pence spent a few days last week visiting at Raymond, Neb.

Mr and Mrs. J. S. Marshall will entertain at a large family dinner at their home New Year's day.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. E. J. McArdle, west of Benson, on Christmas day, when covers were laid for forty-five guests.

The funeral services of Charles W. Childs was held Wednesday afternoon at the home. Many of the old residents were present. Rev. Mr. Crews and Rev. Mr. Calvert had charge of the services.

Among those giving large Christmas dinners were Mesdames E. Stollenberg, E. J. McArdle, A. L. Anderson, A. S. Rath and J. W. Hitch.

Miss Gladys Hines of Kansas City and Miss Adah Wilson of Pawnee, Kan., spent Christmas day at the A. L. Holland home.

Mr and Mrs. Gordon Roth entertained for eighteen guests on Christmas day.

Mr and Mrs. G. M. Palmer entertained at dinner for H. R. Page of Chicago.

Mr and Mrs. Ray Robinson left Saturday to spend New Year's day in Crete, Neb.

Guy Gamble came up from Peru, Neb., to spend Christmas vacation at the D. S. Williams home.

Mr and Mrs. Joseph McGuire had a family reunion Christmas day, when dinner was served for twenty eight guests.

Mrs. J. J. Hollingsworth of Wichita, Kan., and Harley Nelson of Kansas, brother and sister of Rev. Mr. Nelson, were his guests on Christmas.

Give your Want Ad a chance to make good. Run it in The Ree.

Large advertisement for ORKIN BROS. featuring 'GREATEST OF ALL OMAHA'S APPAREL SALES'. It includes price lists for suits, coats, dresses, and skirts, and a prominent '1 1/2 PRICE' graphic. The ad lists various items with their original and clearance prices, such as '$25.00 Orkin Bros.' Suits, $12.50' and '$6.50 Orkin Bros.' Skirts, $3.25'.

Dundee Society Notes

Miss Margaret House is at home from Washington university, St. Louis, for the Christmas holidays.

Mr and Mrs. A. W. Bowman have moved from their old home on Georgia avenue to their new home at 113 South Fifty-first street.

Mr. Warren Hamilton arrives today from Chicago to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr and Mrs. E. O. Hamilton.

Mr and Mrs. T. J. Nolan have returned from a trip to New York.

The Missionary society of the Dundee Presbyterian church met Friday with Mrs. A. C. Crossman.

Word has been received by relatives in Dundee of the birth, December 21, of a daughter to Mr and Mrs. Harley Deems of Shenandoah, Ia.

The Winter Dancing club met Tuesday evening at the Dundee hall.

Misses Ellen Catlin of St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Elizabeth Mitchell of Fort Leavenworth, Kan., will be guests during part of the Christmas holidays of Miss Virginia Pixley.

Morton Rhoades is at home from Dartmouth college for the holidays.

Miss Ethel Barker is spending the holidays in Chicago.

Visiting Mr and Mrs. George Bran

Advertisement for a 'New Year's Dance' at the Henshaw Hotel, scheduled for Monday Afternoon, Jan. 1st, 1917, at 3:30 p.m. The ad promises to be one of the most delightful occasions of the year, mentioning Omaha's social favorites and reserved tables for tea parties.

HENRY COX, Musician Educator

Advertisement for Henry Cox, Musician Educator. Director of the Omaha Symphony Study Orchestra and Omaha School of Orchestral Instruments. Specialist on the violin, viola and cello. The ad lists several musical pieces and describes three great secrets of French pedagogy: Develop Beauty of Expression, Challenging Comparison, and a Gift Unsurpassed. It also mentions 'MUSIC CULTURE FOR HAPPINESS AND SOCIAL SERVICE'.