GIRL MURDERED IN MYSTERIOUS WAY

Beautiful Wealthy Young Woman's Body Found in Columbus Hotel Room

MAN IN CASE IS MISSING

Columbus, O., Jan. 13 .- A girl murder mystery, the circumstances surrounding which compare in many repects with the case of Mazie Collert, Philadelphia model, puzzled the local police tonight.

Mona Simon, 25, said to be a memher of a prominent family of Grafton. W. Vanalis the murder victim. Her body was found in a room of the leading hotel of Columbus today. The police are booking for a man-aid to have been employed until recently in a brokerage office in Kansas City as the alleged murderer. Thus far the police have been unable to learn the motive for the crime.

Cleans Bloody Hands.

A maid opened the door to the room early today but did not enter when she saw a hody on the floor, explaining later that she thought the person on the floor was sleeping there.

When the housekeeper at the hotel investigated this afternoon she found the girl's body, a gash in her neck and a bullet wound in the back of her head. Towels found in the bath adjoining the room were marked with blood, indicating that the nurderer had cleaned his hands before leaving. The rooms of the hotel are sound proof and not even the occupant of an adjoining suite heard the shot.

The man who occupied the room had registered as "G. V. Van Brunt of Chicago," but a local sporting writer told the police tonight he knew the man who occupied the room in which the girl was found and that he had told him he had assumed the name "Van Brunt" because of a "gifl scrape" he shad in Kansas City. The sport writer said "Van Brunt" talked to foe Tinker of Chicago, new owner of the Columbus base ball club, when the latter was here Wednesday, about getting a job.

"What Profiteth a Nation to Save Its Skin and Lose Soul?"

New York, Jan. 13 .- Unless the present problems confronting the United States, are settled soon and rightly, the nation "must mourn in sack cloth and ashes" for its folly and heedlessness, declared Lindley M. Garrison, former secretary of war, in an address tonight before the New York State Bar association.

Omaha delegates to the Salt Lake City convention of the National Wool Growers' association met with repeated welcomes along the route through Wyoming. At Cheyenne and Laramie crowds of stockmen friendly to the local market were met and grazing conditions of the country discussed aboard the Omaha cars. Charles Irwin, general live stock agent for the Union Pacific, bearded the train just out of Cheyenne. He will continue with the party through to Salt Lake City. Reports of heavy snowfalls and intense cold were confirmed by Irwin, who said that Wyoming ranchers, although passing through a prosperous season, were having a tough job of it combatting the elements. Feed is plentiful and it was predicted that there would be a good supply of sheep for the annual wool growers' run.
