

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-known local druggist says everybody is using old-time recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

WORN OUT MOTHER TELLS OF BABY'S PIMPLY ECZEMA

Became Hard Crust Like Scale. Very Irritating and Itched. Kept Awake. Cuticura Healed.

"When my baby girl first became ill I noticed a tiny pimple on one of her cheeks. I paid no attention till it became worse, and I was told it was eczema. The pimples became red and finally spread over her face and became a hard crust like a scale. It was very irritating and itched a good deal, and she was disfigured while she had it. She kept me awake nights and I got discouraged and worn out.

"When I read of Cuticura Soap and Ointment I sent for a bottle. I purchased more, and in six weeks she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Robert Copps, 160 W. Central Ave., St. Paul, Minn., August 28, 1916.

While Cuticura works wonders in most cases of skin troubles its properties are so mild and so delicately combined that it is also ideal for every-day use in the toilet, bath and nursery.

Stryker Lauds Exchange as Eliminator of Tricksters Who Infest Markets.

COMMISSION MEN IN BOOST Secretary and Traffic Manager A. F. Stryker of the local Live Stock exchange, was one of the opening speakers at the first meeting of the Wyoming Wool Growers' convention at Thermopolis yesterday. He spoke on the "Relationship of the Shipper to the Commission Man."

The development of the commission exchange from the first rudimentary agreement between packers and traders at the Chicago exchange in the hog market to the present highly defined form of exchange, was taken up. The methods by which the "tricksters" and "slappers," who infest the market in the hope of obtaining a big price for their stock, were explained and the present efficient ways of eliminating these same evils made clear.

The exchange expert devoted a large part of his time to praising the local market. Concerning business here he said: "We handled last year 3,170,908 sheep, 757,788 of which came from Wyoming. We have created a demand for a greater number year after year. Shippers to our market will have noticed that generally speaking, the size of the run had no effect on the price received. The more sheep we had the greater the demand."

"Now, in conclusion, I want to say—'Use us; our organization is yours.' It was first instituted for you and those basic principles of its organization still maintain. We as members of the several exchanges are your employes and shall do our utmost to merit your approval."

BENEFIT IS GIVEN WORKMEN'S HOME

Auditorium Is Scene of Gay Party for Benefit of the Toilers.

GOODLY SUM REALIZED Father Flannigan's Workingmen's home received a financial boost of upward of $1,500 from the benefit given at the Auditorium last evening by the Women's and Men's Catholic Order of Foresters of Greater Omaha.

The big building was filled. About 3,000 tickets had been sold. The central floor was cleared for dancing and a big band provided the music.

Mayor Jim was on hand and led the grand march with Miss Ruth Foran. The mayor did very well on the marching part, but when he attempted to dance he "fell down," figuratively speaking, which really was more fun than if he had danced like Vern Castle himself.

Card tables were set close all around the sides of the building and on the stage and they were filled all the time. There were twenty card prizes.

A large number of useful presents were disposed of, including 150 hams, 100 boxes of candy, and a number of turkeys, chickens, ducks and other useful things.

There was a refreshment stand where coffee, sandwiches, ice cream and cake were served by a number of young women.

Mrs. Robert Beveridge, state chief ranger of Nebraska for the Foresters, was in charge of the affair, assisted by other Foresters.

Finds Husband in Hospital, Mrs. King Forgives Him All

Take him for better or for worse, in sickness and in health—A wife's forgiveness of a husband against whom she had filed complaint in the county attorney's office as having abandoned her, when she discovered him in a hospital ill with pneumonia, was brought to light when Mrs. Minnie King visited the court house and asked to have the charges against her mate dismissed.

On January 11 Mrs. King filed a complaint against Frank King, charging abandonment. The police were unable to locate King, but the wife on Monday found out that he was seriously ill at St. Joseph's hospital. She immediately made preparations to care for him and then visited the county attorney's office to have the charges dismissed.

Why Rheumatism Comes With Cold Weather

(By Valentine Mott Pierce, M. D.) A close connection exists between these two—cold weather and rheumatism. Prof. Alex. Haig of London has the most followers in the medical profession in the belief that the presence in the system of uric acid, or its salts in excess, is the real cause of rheumatism. Everyone has recognized the difference in the appearance of their water as soon as it gets cold; there is often a copious sediment of "brickdust."

Several causes may lead up to an accumulation of uric acid in the system, which, in turn, cause rheumatism or gout, or creaky joints, swollen fingers or painful joints. For one reason the skin does not throw off the uric acid, by profuse sweating, as in the hot weather, and the kidneys are unable to take care of the double burden. Another reason is that people do not drink as much water in cold weather as in summer, which helps to flush the kidneys. Again, they eat more meat in cold weather, and some people are so susceptible that they soon develop rheumatism after eating meat.

At all such times persons should drink copiously of hot water, say, a pint morning and night, and take Anuric (double strength) three or four times a day. This Anuric comes in tablet form and can be had at almost any drug store. It dissolves the uric acid in the system and carries it outward. I would advise everyone to take Anuric occasionally, and continue for three or four weeks, and in that way avoid rheumatism, gout and many of the painful disorders due to uric acid in the system.
