Extreme cruelty is alleged. Mrs. Raue says her husband has an income of about $1,500 a year. Take Out Insurance in Favor of the Y. M. C. A. If you want to help the Young Men's Christian association in a substantial manner, take out an insurance policy in its favor. That's what a large number of persons are doing in response to a quiet campaign being waged by association members. The object of the plan, according to E. F. Denison, general secretary, is to build up an endowment fund for the association. "We intend to put the proceeds in a fund from which we will only use the interest," the secretary said. "Other cities have followed out the plan successfully and I think there are enough Omaha citizens who will respond to make our plan a success along." While most of the policies taken out in favor of the association are endowment policies, several of them are for accident as well. Court Rules Pedestrian Has Right of Way Over Autoist Milwaukee, Jan. 21.—A pedestrian has the right of way over an automobile in crossing a street, Circuit Judge Oscar M. I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a splendid medicine and have recommended it to many of my friends, who have used it and likewise praise it highly," writes Mrs. W. F. Frantz, Colden, N. Y.

"STICKUPS" GET FIVE MORE MEN Robbers, Using Automobile to Reach Victims and Then Get Away, Resume Operations. CAUSE A REIGN OF TERROR

After two nights of inactivity, during which time police confidently announced that all of the bold, bad highwaymen were in jail, highwaymen again resumed activities Saturday night and in less than an hour had accomplished a reign of terror in the north part of the city. The victims: E. W. Clark, Kansas City, stopping at the Hotel Dodge, was held up at Seventeenth and Nicholas by three men who took $4.50 from him. J. W. Betts, South Side, held up at Eighteenth and Capitol by three men. Lost his watch and $20, and was fired at when he tried to resist. Sam Schwartz, 1524 North Eighteenth, held up at Eighteenth and Clarke by two men. Lost $18. Robert Hazelwood, 715 North Twentieth, lost $8 at Twentieth and Webster. J. N. Carter, 2177 Spencer, held up at Twenty-second and Wirt and lost $4. The robbers used an automobile, supposed to be the one stolen from M. C. Peters at Fortieth and Dodge early in the evening. They bore down upon lone pedestrians, and, stopping the car, would leap out and rob their victims in jig time and then run to the car again and be off. When they stopped Betts, he punched one of the highwaymen in the face as he was being robbed of his watch and $20. The other two promptly fired at him, but none of the shots took effect. When the reports of the bandit operations commenced to come into police headquarters, Captain Dempsey immediately dispatched to the district four automobiles, loaded with plain clothes policemen who were armed with revolvers, sawed off shotguns. In addition, the usual dragnet system was put into effect and the entire territory between Douglas street and Ames avenue was closely combed, but without result. From the descriptions of the robbers, it is apparent that all victims were robbed by the same men, who used an auto in making their escape.

Bee Building Is To Be Remodelled By Lease Agreement

Negotiations are under way by which The Bee building is to be remodelled to conform to more modern architectural lines. This is to be brought about by the investment of approximately $100,000 in reconstructing the two lower stories as soon as unexpired lease permits, which will be within not more than two years, the improvement to be financed under a long-time lease to five of Omaha's most enterprising and successful real estate men, Ernest Sweet, Charles W. Martin, E. M. Slater, Harry Wolf and Byron G. Hastings, associated together as the Keystone Investment company. The lease will not disturb the continued occupancy of quarters as the home of The Bee or of the other tenants. The lease is a long-term one, improvements that will keep The Bee building abreast of the newer office buildings more recently erected. The Bee building, along with the New York Life building, both completed in 1889, was first among monumental fireproof office buildings in Omaha, putting the city "on the map," and by reason of its substantial construction, still holds a foremost place. The proposed lease arrangement carries with it an option to purchase in event it should later become desirable to put a more pretentious and expensive structure on the site.

Hastings & Heyden Buy Furay Farm On West Q

Mrs. Catherine M. Furay has sold to Hastings & Heyden her farm of 128 acres on the Q street road, west of South Omaha. The sale was made through J. H. Dumont & Co. Mrs. Furay has owned this farm for the last forty years, but the land has become too valuable for farming purposes and the purchasers will plat the ground into acre tracts under the name of South Side Acres, and offer the same for sale on easy payments this spring. The land lies on the paved road and street car lines two miles west of the Armour Packing company and is a high, slightly and beautiful piece of land commanding a fine view of Papillion creek valley, Seymour Lake golf grounds and the town of Ralston.

Nicholas Buys Corner Property From Switzer

Warren Switzer bought the southeast corner of Twelfth and Harney streets 66 by 132 feet, from the estate of A. H. Rawitzer and resold it to L. V. Nicholas Oil company, which company will improve it at once for an auto filling station. Both sales were made through J. H. Dumont & Co. The consideration was in the neighborhood of $25,000. This lot was formerly the home of Judge Lake and family and was a social center in the early days of Omaha. Mr. Nicholas says this is one of the best locations in the city for a filling station, as it is in the center of the wholesale district and only a short distance from the center of retail business. The new station will have up-to-date equipment and will be one of the finest in the city.

Booky Bill of Fare Whets All Literary Appetites

A literary bill of fare, consisting of a schedule of choice books posted on the bulletin board, is now being offered to patrons of the public library. A new selection is posted every day. A ruling of the library board now permits patrons to draw on their cards at the same time, one book for twenty-eight days, one seven-day novel and two seven-day magazines. An Easy, Pleasant Laxative. One or two of Dr. King's New Life Pills at night insure a free and easy movement of the bowels. 25c. All druggists.—Adv.

KOCH SPINS YARN OF THE MOONSHINER

Sweet-Faced Mountain Girls, Daughters of Fierce Feudist, Attend Lincoln University.

LEARN HOW TO RUN FARM

"Making Over a Mountaineer" is the title of an interesting yarn Felix J. Koch has spun in recent the regeneration of the feudist and moonshiner of the mountains. The story, printed recently in the New York Christian Herald, tells of the Lincoln Memorial university at Cumberland Gap, Tenn., an institution exclusively for the education of the Cumberland mountains where Kentucky, Virginia and Tennessee come together. "You, friend reader, let's suppose," writes Mr. Koch, "have been invited to come down and inspect the work being done for the younger mountaineers at the big, new Lincoln university, up among the peaks. You accept the invitation with peculiar zest. Ordinarily, visiting colleges is rather dry work. But in this case, you would go into the heart of the wildest, most primitive of America's mountains, and children of feudists and moonshiners, youths from homes whose folk have never seen a railway train, an electric car, would be the student body. A Surprise. "Then, arrived, you wonder, as you rambled through the grounds that none of the students seemed to measure up (or down) to what you expected. A bell sounded from the tower near, and presently charming, refined, sweet-faced mountain girls served you at table at a few great hotels known to you to serve. Mr. Koch continues to explain how this new university teaches the mountaineers of the country the best methods of farming and mechanical arts while providing normal and academic training, and, as needed, the higher branches. The students pay a fair proportion of the expense of the school with their services. It is an interesting story of a great institution of which too little is known.

Kiddies Fill Up the Movie Houses On Their Special Day

Smiles all around was the rule with Woman's club members. Their efforts to initiate special movie programs for children were crowned with success, that's the reason. Packed houses at both Strand and Muse theaters greeted Dickson's "Christmas Carol," "The Patchwork Girl of Oz" and other educational and comic films shown under direction of the clubwomen. Frequent bursts of applause demonstrated that the kiddies didn't mind being "ejacated." They either didn't know it or didn't mind it because the "pitchers" were so good. Clubwomen who act as chaperones at each movie theater reported that many women brought their children to the movies while they continued downtown to do their shopping, returning at the end of the performance to call for their children. Did the kiddies like this arrangement? You can just bet they did!

Firestone to Pay More Attention to Branches

With its production problem practically solved by immense factory expansion during the last year, the Firestone Tire and Rubber company is now ready to give more attention to its branch service. This was the statement of E. W. BeSaw, western district manager for the big rubber concern, upon his arrival at the local Firestone branch yesterday. He came to confer with F. C. Rudisill, branch manager, other members of the branch office and all the territory and city salesmen. "Our aim is '100 per cent' service," said Mr. BeSaw. "And we have worked out plans that we believe will bring this about."

Burgess-Nash Buyers Leave for the East

Last night the first group of buyers from the Burgess-Nash company left for the eastern market under the supervision of A. B. Curtis, merchandise manager. Those who went last night are Hiram Jones, buyer of silks and dress goods; H. J. Hearne, general manager of women's, misses' and children's ready-to-wear; Mrs. Kneeter, buyer for ready-to-wear for the downstairs; Miss Mary Durr for women's suits and coats, and Mr. Dickinson for women's hosiery and underwear. The second group will leave January 27.

Picture of Ex-Mayor Bemis Is Presented to Library

A large framed picture of the late George P. Bemis, ex-mayor of Omaha, which was presented by his widow to Mayor Dahlman, has been sent to the library with the request that it be hung among other Omahans of note. Articles of Incorporation For Mitchell & Northwestern Pierre, S. D., Jan. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Articles of incorporation were filed today for the Mitchell & Northwestern Railway company to construct a line of railway from Mitchell to Ree Heights, in this state.

BARBER FINDS SIMPLE WAY TO EASE HIS FEET

Barbers are great foot sufferers, as a rule. One barber who has been for years a victim of this trouble recently discovered a simple way to relieve his foot aches, pains and discomforts. He is telling all his friends and clients about it and there is general rejoicing among those who formerly suffered terribly from the trouble. This barber discovered a preparation called Wa-Ne-Ta in the corner drug store. He bought a 25-cent package and, taking it home, dropped two tablets in a basin of hot water and bathed his feet for a few minutes. To his delight, every ache and pain disappeared and his feet no longer troubled him. You can do the same. You can use Wa-Ne-Ta with delightful effect in your body bath. Leave skin soft and antiseptically clean. If your druggist hasn't Wa-Ne-Ta, send us 10 cents and we'll mail you a sample package prepaid to your address. L. C. Landon, South Bend, Ind.—Adv.

Educational Notes

Chadron Normal. The school board of Chadron visited the training school the fore part of the week. The faculty enjoyed a picnic supper in the canyon back of the normal Tuesday evening. Attractive scenery and pleasant weather make it possible to have frequent diversions from school work. Prof. Boarder was over in the North Platte valley last Thursday and Friday organizing study centers in several places. He is busy getting the program arranged for the meeting to be held some time in March. The seniors and sophomores had a pleasant party at the home of Miss Madeline Lepple last Friday evening. In the latter part of the evening they repaired to Malka's grill and were served refreshments. The decorations for the luncheon were in the class colors, black, purple and orange. The orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Clements, gave a very pleasing program of short numbers at chapel Friday morning. Paul Thomas, new director of the orchestra, played the slide trombone. At the close of the program the orchestra accompanied the school in singing the color song, which had been arranged for the instruments by Mr. Thomas. Saturday night the Chadron town team trimmed the normal boys at basket ball by a score of 18 to 14. In the preliminary game the first team girls had no trouble in defeating the second team 25 to 4. The boys' game was hard fought all the way through and rather rough at times. Melvin Hester secured the same in the normal rounds were very much in evidence and under the leadership of William Cooper did some of the best foot work ever heard at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. This week the normal boys' girls' teams expect to play at the Chadron Springs will be here for a game January 28.

Grand Island College.

President Jordan spent Sunday, January 14, with the college friends at Hastings. Last Tuesday Rev. Ray E. York of Lincoln, D. E. Magnuson of Chapman and Mr. J. H. Magnuson were in Grand Island in the interest of the forthcoming Baptist assembly. Dr. J. E. Moore has not only been quarantined with the flu but he is slowly recovering. At this writing he is slowly recovering. There was a contest last Monday evening to determine who should represent the college in the triangular athletic contest. Those who were: Paul Huebner, O. R. Applegate, John Stokes, Reuel Finley and Miss Anderson. Rev. J. D. Collins, state Sunday school missionary, visited the college last Sunday and spoke to the students on "Life's Ideal." Messrs. Lowry and Hahn and the Misses Shook and Hulse will finish January 22 the work required for graduation from the college. They will return at the commencement in June to take part with the rest of their class in the graduating exercises of commencement week.

Hastings College.

Mr. Anderson occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church of Hastings, last Sunday. Coach Beck attended the meeting of the State Athletic association held at Lincoln on Saturday. Prof. Anderson spent Saturday in Blue Hill, where he is giving an extension course in psychology. Dr. Farmer, the vice president, had charge of the services Sunday in the Presbyterian church at Center City. Miss VanEvery of the graduating class, has been supplying for the last two weeks for Superintendent Felker at Holstein. Glenn T. Kennedy represented the college at the meeting of the Central Association, held in Lincoln last Saturday. Dr. Knauer was on the campus the latter part of the week, arranging for his next semester classes in the Presbyterian church at Center City. President Crane spoke from the pulpit of the Methodist and Baptist churches last Sunday, in the interests of the endowment and building campaign. The first number of the artist's recital course will be given Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church. These recitals are given under the auspices of the college conservatory. Last Saturday afternoon, the students, alumni, faculty and former students of the college paraded the streets of the city and held a pep meeting on a downtown corner. The enthusiastic demonstration was due to the campaign for $200,000 to erect new buildings, and its successful start. The local basket ball season opens Saturday night, with Doane college. Kearney Normal will play the following Monday. The remainder of the schedule is: February 2, Kearney at Kearney; February 9, Hastings; February 16, Grand Island at Hastings; February 23 to March 3, six-game trip; March 10, Coe at Hastings. The Young Men's Inter-Society debate occurred on Friday night in the college chamber. Each society was represented by two teams of three men each. A second debate, on the same question, was held between two girls' teams. The six who won highest places, together with two alternates, will represent the college in a triangular debate with Kearney and Grand Island colleges. A dual debate with York college will follow.

Peon Normal.

Prof. Brown of the rural school department will address the farmers' institute at Brock Monday. The first semester ends next Friday and the week will be devoted to examinations and a general clearing up of first semester activities. Leonard P. Dove of South Dakota gave an illustrated lecture on "Black Hills" last Friday, which was well attended and much appreciated. Tryouts for the debate team were held last week. There were thirty-two contestants taking part in the preliminary debates, which were held every evening of the week. An exhibit of practical art work is being held in the faculty room this week. The work is from the Boston Museum school, the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and Columbia university. Miss Irene Wachel has been elected to a position in the Fairbury schools and will begin work Monday. Miss Agnes Korbal, another first semester graduate, has accepted a position in the McCook schools. Louis Wirt of Fairbury city had a painful accident with the hand saw in the manual training department last Monday. The fingers of the left hand were cut in such a manner that he will lose the first three of them. The first two hours of Wednesday afternoon were devoted to entertaining the State Association of Firemen. The entire collection, which was in session at Auburn, was brought to Peru in a procession of seventy-seven automobiles. The guests were entertained with music and short addresses at the chapel, after which they were escorted over the arena with a general inspection of the new training building.

Nebraska Wesleyan.

Vice Chancellor Schrockenast is in the central part of the state in the interests of the new building for the Teacher's college. The chapel hour Friday was given over to boosting the oratorical contest to be held in March under the auspices of the Intercollegiate Prohibition association. Semester examinations begin Monday morning of next week. The latter part of the week will be taken up with registration for the second semester. Coach Kline, Wesleyan's representative at the meeting of the Intercollegiate Athletic association at Lincoln, was elected president of that body and Prof. Martin of Kearney, secretary-treasurer. Moving pictures of Yellowstone Park and of the works of the General Electric company at Schenectady, N. Y., were shown in the auditorium Wednesday afternoon under the auspices of the Physics club. A series of protracted meetings will begin at the First Methodist Episcopal church on January 31. Bishop Stuntz will have charge for the first five days, giving his attention chiefly to high school and college students. The remainder of the meetings will be conducted by Rev. Mr. McCaskill.

The second preliminary debate was held on Tuesday morning at chapel. The following were chosen to represent York in intercollegiate debates: Miss Mary Cave, Mert Harnes and Lee Pletcher. Debates are being arranged for with the other colleges.

Bloomfield Firemen's Ball

Bloomfield, Neb., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—The annual ball of the Bloomfield volunteer fire department was given at the opera house Thursday night and was the biggest affair of the kind ever staged in northeast Nebraska. Nearly 500 tickets were sold and the hall itself was attended by a crowd that eclipsed all previous affairs in this or neighboring towns. Bloomfield has one of the best equipped and most efficient fire companies in this section and that the people appreciate it is evidenced by their liberal patronage of the annual dance.

A WONDERFUL YEAR!

To the Policy-holding Owners of The Prudential Insurance Company of America: During 1916 your Company issued OVER FIVE HUNDRED AND NINETY-ONE AND ONE-HALF MILLION DOLLARS of paid-for life insurance at the lowest expense-rate in your Company's history. This is the largest year's business ever paid for by The Prudential. The gain in insurance in force was $283,000,000. Although your Company is but forty-one years old, you are now the holders of 15,000,000 policies, representing a total insurance in force of OVER THREE BILLION DOLLARS. Since your Company was organized it has paid to its policyholders the great sum of $428,000,000, including more than $28,750,000 not called for in any way by the policy contracts. The 1916 payments to policyholders were over $47,278,000. This wonderful growth and these remarkable figures reflect anew the confidence the insuring public has in The Prudential, and are a reinforcement of its aims, its achievements and its service.

Omaha University News

The Bellinger Family of Holland will play for the students in the chapel hall today. The students feel lost in the new $75,000 building. Like all new buildings, it lacks the coziness which is found in an old place. Owing to the fact that the electrical contractor has not connected the bell system as yet, a cow bell was used to signal the classes. Chapel was held in Joslyn hall for the first time Wednesday. Dean Halsey conducted it and preached a little sermon on the occasion. A rally was held at chapel last Friday for the Coit-Omaha basket ball game. Owing to the fact that the electrical contractor has not connected the bell system as yet, a cow bell was used to signal the classes. As the new school building was not ready for use, classes were held in the gymnasium on Monday and Tuesday. The classes were located in different parts of the floor and only imaginary divisions lines were used. The students rather enjoyed the novel system and the regular work went on very well.

Fremont Fire Chief Chosen To Head Firemen's Association

Fremont, Neb., Jan. 21.—(Special.)—Fremont delegates to the State Firemen's convention at Auburn, returned home Saturday morning, highly enthusiastic over the reception they were given at the Nemaha county capital. Mr. Hauser is probably the youngest fireman ever elected to the office of president of the Nebraska association.

Sage Tea Keeps Your Hair Dark

Its Grandmother's recipe to bring back color, youthfulness and lustre. —Everybody is using it again. Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound increases its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

TOO WEAK TO FIGHT

The "Come-back" man was really never down-and-out. His weakened condition because of overwork, lack of exercise, improper eating and living demands stimulation to satisfy the cry for a health-giving appetite and the refreshing sleep essential to strength. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, the National Remedy of Holland, will do the work. They are wonderful! Three of these capsules each day will put a man on his feet before he knows it, whet his appetite, stimulate his system, and give him the energy to do his work. They are wonderful!
