January 25th by Melliciea

May Put on Skaters' Tourney.

Fired with enthusiasm by accounts of the exhilarating sports in connection with the winter carnival of the twin cities, St. Paul and Minneapolis, Omaha women who love to skate are talking about a skating tournament for Omaha, if the weather is favorable.

Turner park, where Omaha's socially prominent maids and matrons come to skate, is suggested as a good place to hold the tournament.

Mrs. Frank W. Judson, who skates whenever and wherever the skating is good, Hanscom, Miller or Turner parks, thinks the event would be ever so much fun. Both Mr. and Mrs. Judson are clever skaters.

Miss Deilah Sharp, whose friends call her "Charlotte," after the fancy skater who is dazzling New York with her dexterity on skates, is also much enthused about such a tournament.

Mrs. Victor Caldwell and Mrs. Clement Chase are among the latest to take up the sport. One can find them almost any morning at Hanscom park learning the newest strokes (I nearly said steps).

Miss Sharp appeared in a clever new skating costume at a skaters' luncheon at the Blackstone yesterday preceding an afternoon on the ice. It consisted of a black and white skirt with a sweater coat of an American beauty shade, with which was worn a smart-looking black toque. Among the others in the party were Mrs. D. C. Patterson, Mrs. J. A. C. Kennedy, Mrs. Ronald Paterson, Mrs. T. F. Kennedy, Mrs. J. McMullen, Mrs. Jack Sharp, Miss Ethel Morse and Miss Ida Sharp.

Business Women's Dinner.

Miss Myrtle Kelley entertained at a dinner party last evening at the Loyal, when covers were laid for sixteen guests. The table was decorated in yellow tulips and place cards of yellow tulips harmonized with the flowers. After dinner several talks were given. As the party was composed mostly of young business women, Miss Sue Redfield sounded the note for them when she spoke on "More Business Efficiency and Ambition Among Women." Mrs. H. C. Sumney spoke on the work and progress of women in the last fifty years, and Mrs. James Richardson talked on the federal amendment.

In Bermuda Social Whirl.

The Royal Gazette of Hamilton, Bermuda, gives the following account of a dinner given last week by Mrs. James Cunningham of Omaha and her daughter:

"Mrs. and Miss Cunningham of White Hall, Hamilton, gave a dinner of fourteen covers at the Hamilton hotel on Tuesday evening. The centerpiece was of pink Killarney roses. Favors for the ladies were corsage bouquets of sweet peas and cigarettes for the gentlemen. The dinner was given in honor of Mrs. and Miss Bradley and Mrs. George Vincent Shaw of Rochester, N. Y.; the other guests included were Captain and Mrs. Crickmay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barton, Mr. Bradley, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Smyth, Lieutenant Drysdale and Captain Philip. The dinner was followed by an informal dance."

Mrs. Crofoot to Accompany.

Mrs. Frances Nash expects Miss Katherine Kemp Stillings of Boston to arrive tomorrow to be her guest over the week-end. Miss Nash is resting from concert work until about the first of February, and is thus having an opportunity to enjoy a visit from Miss Stillings, who was her guest last year. Miss Stillings is the violinist who will be presented in concert by Miss Evelyn McCaffrey at the Metropolitan club Sunday afternoon. Added interest will attach to the concert because of the fact that Mrs. L. F. Crofoot, Miss Nash's sister, will play Miss Stillings' accompaniments.

Box Parties at Grand Opera.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Chase will entertain Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Crofoot and Mr. and Mrs. Osgood T. Eastman at dinner at the Blackstone this evening, followed by a box party at the San Carlo grand opera. Mr. and Mrs. Chase will have Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Childs, Mrs. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilhelm at dinner and in their box at the opera Friday night; and Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, Miss Marion Hamilton and Mr. Charles Hamilton will be their guests.

Tomorrow evening Mr. J. A. Cavers will have as guests in his box at the opera Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy, Miss Ida Sharp, Mrs. E. A. Wickham and Mr. George Mayne of Council Bluffs.

Golden Wedding Celebration.

A golden wedding anniversary which was celebrated in royal fashion this afternoon was that of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Radzuweit, which took place at the German Lutheran church at 2 o'clock. A reception, attended by 200 friends of the young-old couple, was held afterwards at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Albert Zimatt.

The bride of fifty years, who was dressed in her wedding gown of gray crepe meteor, made in basque fashion and trimmed in gold lace, carried a bouquet of fifty golden roses.

At the reception the couple was presented with a purse of gold amounting to $300.

The home was festively decorated with yellow, greens and bells. Four generations were present. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rice of Demos, Neb.; Mr.

BRIDGE-PARTY HONORING FORMER OMAHA GIRL.

MRS. MILTON DU RELL of Minneapolis.

Miss Marie Riley entertained at a bridge luncheon at the Blackstone today for her sister, Mrs. Milton Du Rell, of Minneapolis, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Benadon. Mrs. Du Rell was formerly Miss Lillian Riley, a popular member of the young set, and her return visits are always the inspiration for much entertaining.

and Mrs. Ludwig Goldat and daughter, Miss Margaret Goldat, of Dunlap, Ia.; Miss Charlotte Radzuweit of Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Zoss and the great-grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Radzuweit, Raymond, Loretta and Edna, of Grand Island.

Give Theater Parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Judson will entertain at a dinner tonight, followed by a box party at the Boyd, for Mrs. Meredith Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reed.

Mrs. M. O. Maul will entertain in her box at the Boyd this evening Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Myers, Miss Bess Kepple and Miss Schmidt.

Dinner for Mr. Delamarre.

Mrs. Frank T. Hamilton entertained at dinner last evening at the Fontenelle in honor of Mr. Louis Delamarre of New York City, general secretary of L'Alliance Francaise, who came to give the first address to the Omaha society last evening.

The table was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue silk ribbons, with a large rosette as a centerpiece, and the streamers ending at the place of the guest of honor. Elaborate books of French classics served as place cards.

Honor Nebraska Poet.

Mrs. Charles T. Kountze, chairman of the committees for the Society of Fine Arts, is arranging a luncheon at the Fontenelle tomorrow for John G. Neihardt of Bancroft, Neb., who will read some of his poems for the society Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the hotel. Mr. Neihardt will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Keene Abbott while in the city. His mother, Mrs. Alice Neihardt, accompanies him.

Schedule of Future Dates.

Mrs. Clement Chase will give a free art lecture, especially for children, at the Monroe theater Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This program is under the auspices of the Fine Arts society.

The Harmony club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Scribner a week from Saturday.

Reservations for the Saturday evening dinner-dance at the Blackstone have been made by Charles Ogden Black, fourteen guests; by J. W. Bedford, for a party of eight; Louis Hiller, fifteen, and by Don T. Lee for ten.

Miss Mary Tidball will entertain eight guests at luncheon at the Blackstone Saturday.

Mrs. A. M. Longwell will have a luncheon party at the Blackstone tomorrow.

The Thimble club has reservations for dinner for fifty next Thursday evening. At that time the members will entertain their husbands.

Timely Fashion Hint By La Raconteuse

Undoubtedly white tussah is the favored material for the coming season. A stunning white suit is featured here, the coat being a smart Norfolk model with kid belt and pearl button trimming. Button boots and a felt sailor are details of interest.

You Should Learn to Be Polite

By CLARA REESE.

You are lucky, son, if you only have to take off your hat when you meet your employer. Some lads are obliged to take off their jackets, as well as head coverings, when their boss comes along.

And some of your size have mothers at home who make them take off shoes and put on carpet slippers for fear of scratching the hardwood floors; and, worse, some have mothers who make them go to bed while the household seamstress sews on patches where patches seem to be needed most of the time.

So that is a nice thing to do, to stick out your lip and complain about your employer because he happens to be a gentleman and expects you to lift your hat. Just wait until you get another place and you will see how soon your coat will come off when the boss comes along.

You are like the rest of the boys—you never stop to think; just one bite, one nibble, and away the rest is thrown. There was a time once in your tender years when the "core" was thought to be as good eating as any part; you got too big for your boots, to suspicious and too particular.

Social Gossip.

Miss Clare Helene Woodard will accompany Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bradford to California next week.

Mrs. Meredith Nicholson leaves for home tonight after a return visit with the Kountze family. Mr. Nicholson remains over.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Copeland and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Glover left last evening for California on their way to Honolulu. They expect to be gone several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Swift have gone to Excelsior Springs, Mo., for a two weeks' vacation.

Prof. and Mrs. George Francis Sadler of Pella, Ia., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Evans. They will remain until after the opera.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reiley of Deadwood, S. D., are visiting Mrs. Reiley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Minnick.

Mr. D. T. Cullom is at the Multnomah hotel, in Portland, Ore.

Miss Josephine Huse, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. H. Abbott and Mrs. Gunner Naaburg, has returned to her home in Fullerton, Neb.

Rev. Robert Flockhart and his bride returned Saturday morning from their short wedding trip in the east. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyer of Los Angeles arrived the same morning and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Balle of Denison, Ia., and the entire party has visited Mrs. Henry Meyer until Tuesday. Mrs. Charles Meyer, who was formerly Miss Nora Forthman, and her husband are enroute to New York. They expect to stop in Omaha on their return, about the first of February.

Matrimonial Fables

By DOROTHY DIX.

—Once upon a time a Glad Eyed Youth went to a Hump Shouldered Old Man who looked as if he had been flattened out by a Steam Roller, and thus addressed him:

"Congratulations," cried the Young Man, "for I am going to be Married to the Dearest Girl in the World, and she is Perfectly Devoted to me."

"Alas, my son," cried the old Man with Tears in his Eyes, "I can only Pity you. Many Misfortunes may Happen to a Man, but the Worst thing that can Befall him is to Marry a Woman who is Too Much in love with him. Listen to the sad story of my life, and let it be a Warning to you, so that you may Save yourself

Winter Fashions

Tulle gathered and bound with velvet forms the interesting sleeve caps and adds a lovely softness to the gowns.

Many new blouses are double-breasted in effect, this effect being attained by a double row of tiny buttons in pleasing colors; similar buttons trim the wrist-length sleeve, and the low, as well as the high, collars on these blouses.

Graceful and lovely is a draped gown with its exquisite scarf-like arrangement of silver lace and marvelous garniture of rhinestones, and it typifies the very pronounced tendency toward the vogue of clinging, form-revealing gowns for evening wear.

'Tis said that the "swagger stick" is gaining in favor with fashionable women, and that we may expect to see more and more of these used as the season advances. The swagger sticks are about half the length of a man's cane, and some of them have vanity bags and puff cases attached.

It is some time now since fans have been used extensively and high time that they should come into their own once more, for the possibilities of the fan as an artistic and pleasing accessory of dress, to say nothing of its amusing coquetry, may not be quickly estimated and should not be overlooked.

One of the most interesting features of evening attire is the combination outfit, consisting of wrap and evening gown of matching material. This outfit is of lovely rose velvet, elaborately embroidered in silver, the wrap further enhanced by a collar of chinchilla, while bands of the fur outline the arm slits that serve in place of sleeves. The hem line is fashionably irregular, the train a narrow straight width of the velvet, cut separately and hung from the waist, being unattached to the skirt except at this point.

Daintily bouffant and altogether festive and gay is a dancing dress of king-blue tulle over matching satin with spangled embroidery flounces. This gown is airy and girlish, with a pleasing simplicity, despite the elaborateness of the flouncing, and a direct opposite in design to the dignified velvet gown just described, and yet decidedly modish and smart for the same evening occasions at which the velvet gown would be seen.

Feminine Chatter and Longs for Man's Talk. Why, I know right now more about what they are going to Wear in Paris this Winter than I do about the Big League Prospects.

"I used to wonder, before I was Married, why Men took so little Trouble to Preserve their Wives' Affections. I now Perceive that it was the Instinct for Self Preservation, for there is no Jail in which you can be held a Closer Prisoner than in a Woman's Heart, nor is there any other such Grinding Tyrant as the Wife who loves too much."

"It is a Misfortune that a Man gets over being a Lover at the Altar while a Woman can go on being a Bride for Forty Years. Therefore unless you wish to be Bogged up in Soft Talk that it nauseates you to have to hand out, do not Marry a Woman who is All Heart, and who gets a Hurt look every time you Slow Down to Second Speed in your Love Making."

"Take it from me that a Woman can Kill you with Love, and it is a Sticky, Messy, Unpleasant Way to Die."

This fable teaches that the Women who are All Heart are Mostly Bored
