of the mat game and sometimes called "the master wrestler," has taken Charlie Peters, the Papillion carpenter, in tow and will train him for his approaching clash with Joe Stecher at the Omaha Auditorium, February 9. Burns will start to put Peters through a rigid and exhaustive course of training at Gus Tylee's gymnasium today. Last week four boils broke out on Peters, but Charlie has re-covered from them and will be able to go through all his training tricks from now until the day of the bout. Peters' stock is expected to go up considerably with the old Farmer act-ing as his tutor. Burns is the man who made a champion out of Frank Gotch. (Gotch, was nothing but a green farmer boy, strong and familiar with a few of the elementary tricks of wrestling. Burns taught Gotch all his own tricks with the result that in a few short weeks Gotch became the greatest in the world. Peters, like Gotch, is strong and fast, but he knows a lot more about wrestling than Gotch did when the Farmer took hold of him. And it is expected that when the day of his hout with Stecher arrives Peters will be a much more skillful grappler than his so of the Farmer. The Papillion man intends to train right up to the day of the bout. Stecher, it is believed, will do all his training at his home in Dodge. Joe Miller Wins From

TWO OMAHA BOYS SHINE Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.) Telegram.)—With two formers Oma-ha High school lads in the stellar roles, Nebraska won its first game from Wesleyan in three years here tonight, 27 to 14. Jimmie Gardiner, playing his last game as a Husker, and Paul Flothow were the scintillating stars of the Husker five. Gardiner's guarding was a potent factor in the Husker victory, while Flothow's long shots netted four field goals. Gardiner gces to Cornell uext week. Nebraska kept Coach Kline's pro-teges from within throwing distance of the Nebraska goal during most of the game. The Husker shopped into the lead at the start, with the half ending 12 to 3. The Husker defense was superb and Wesleyan could not solve it during the entire game. Wes-leyan had a big bunch of rooters out for the game, and, although they did their part nobly, the Huskers were not to be denied. The game was rough.
