Omaha Future Market.

Peace rumors started heavy, selling of wheat at the opening today and, as a result of which, the May and July options suffered a sharp break.

There was very little attempt en the part of the longs to force the market up again and the bear situation was helped somewhat by the longs getting out of the market.

Corn followed wheat on the decline, but was prevented from any heavy decline on account of the etrong cash situation and the buillish Argentine reports.

Cuts held precity atsadily, but there was very little business done in this market, and the May closed %c lower and the July unchanged. OMAHA GENERAL MARKET.
