

Nebraska ALBERT HAS BILL TO MAKE ROADS PAY

Platte Senator Introduces a Measure Said to Be Drawn by Victor Wilson.

TO PROVIDE INVESTIGATION

Lincoln, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—A bill on file in the Nebraska legislature, bearing the name of Senator L. L. Albert of Platte county, but which is understood to be "authored" by Railway Commissioner Victor Wilson, public service corporations or any dealer or person subject to the jurisdiction of the commission in a position to dig up at any and all times whatever that body takes it into its head to order them to "come across."

May Send Probers.

Whenever the commission sees fit it may send out one or more investigators to make inspection of books, property or effects of every nature and any number of special agents necessary or which may seem necessary to the commission and the railroad or other parties investigated may pay the bills.

Another feature is that the companies investigated must pay the expenses in advance in any amount the commission may consider is needed to pay for doing the work, and the state auditor is authorized to pay the warrants when presented out of the general fund before the work is done.

No Lack of Money.

By this system the railway commission need never again suffer for want of funds. The scheme beats an appropriation by the legislature many times, for whenever money is needed by the commission, all it is necessary to do is to call its army of investigators, order an investigation of some railroad or other public service corporation, send in a bill in advance, receive the money use as much of it as they think necessary for the "investigation," and put the rest in the "incidental fund."

Thrift of Little Things Foundation Of Good Character

Thrift is the foundation of good conduct, and every man and woman who has what we term good character, has it and keeps it by virtue of a habit of thrift in some form. It need not be the thrift of money, but the thrift of time, opportunity, health, the broad thrift—the wise use of what one has—lies at the root of every life that can be called a success.

The employe who learns to manage his personal affairs so that he saves money, will use his employer's time and material wisely. The man who is careful about little things will be careful about the larger ones. If he keeps careful record of what he spends, he will be careful in investing his money. Big traits of character manifest themselves in little acts.

As the man of thrift saves his money, and sees his bank account grow, he becomes interested in the proposition of owning a home; for every normal man aspires to own his own fireside. Homes, being contentment and contentment better workmen, whose minds are on their tasks. And when he owns his home, he becomes interested in his town, the tax rate, improvements, the paving, lighting and sewer problems of the community. As a rent payer, he has no interest in these things. Once he becomes interested in these things he becomes a better citizen—a real asset to his town. The man who has a bank account is able to stay with a concern over a dull period and live on reduced wages, if need be, while the one without must seek employment and often take what he can get.

According to statistics, 98 per cent of the wage earners spend every cent of their earnings, and appreciating how wasteful and costly this tendency is, some employers are now forming savings clubs of various sorts to make it easy as well as profitable for their men to save money.

Pearson Wishes to Be Candidate for Congress

Elwood, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—That former Lieutenant-Governor Pearson, whose home is in Gosper county, would like to be the democratic candidate for congress in the Fifth district in 1918 is revealed in a long letter printed in the Bulletin. Mr. Pearson refers to his work as farmer and grain buyer and says he understands the problems of the common people and that he can represent their interests in congress as intelligently as a lawyer or banker. He thinks he is the logical man, geographically, for the place and appeals to his friends and neighbors to get behind his boom, if the situation develops properly.

A Bad Back Made Good

Backache of any kind is often caused by kidney disorder, which means that the kidneys are not working properly. Poisonous matter and uric acid accumulate within the body in great abundance, overworking the sick kidneys, hence the congestion of blood causes backache in the same manner as a similar congestion in the head causes headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish, irritable, have spots appearing before the eyes, bags under the lids and lack of ambition to do things.

The latest and most effective means of overcoming this trouble is to eat sparingly of meat, drink plenty of water between meals and take a single Anuric tablet before each meal for a while.

Simply ask your favorite druggist for Anuric (double strength) if you aren't feeling up to the standard. If you have lumbago, rheumatism, dropsy, begin immediately this treatment with Anuric. Most scientists and medical men believe that because of an over-abundance of uric acid in the system, uric salts are deposited in the tissues and cause rheumatism and gout.

The physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's Institution in Buffalo, N. Y., have thoroughly tested Anuric and have been with one accord successful in eradicating and throwing off from the system the uric acid which accumulates and poisons. Patients having once used Anuric at this institution have repeatedly sent back for more.

Such a demand has been created that Doctor Pierce decided to put Anuric in the drug stores of this country in a ready-to-use form. It will be their own fault if those suffering from uric acid troubles do not take advantage of this wonderful remedy.—Advertisement.
