

HOUSE OVERRIDES IMMIGRATION VETO

Bill Rejected by Wilson Because of Literacy Test Is Carried.

ADVOCATES CLAIM SENATE

NEBRASKA'S VOTE. To Uphold Veto—Lobeck. To Override Veto—Shallenberger, Stephens, Reavis, Sloan, Kinkaid.

Washington, Feb. 2.—President Wilson's veto of the immigration bill because of its literacy test feature was overridden in the house last night by a vote of 286 to 106. Party lines were ignored in the fight, republicans and democrats being almost equally divided on either side.

Tomorrow the action of the house will be reported to the senate, where the bill passed originally by 64 to 7. An effort to override the veto will be made there without delay and advocates of the measure say it is certain to be successful.

For twenty years there has been a fight to establish a literacy test as a restriction upon immigration.

Four times such a provision has run the gauntlet of congress and has been vetoed by President Cleveland, by President Taft and by President Wilson in 1915 and this year.

Margin of Twenty-five.

Tonight the house had twenty-five more than the necessary two-thirds majority. Republican Leader Mann and Democratic Leader Kitchin voted together against the president. The vote follows.

Hughes Urges All to Support President

New York, Feb. 1.—Charles Evans Hughes, who was guest of honor at the annual dinner of the New York alumni of Brown university here tonight, declared every loyal American would stand behind the administration "in this solemn hour" without a partisan thought. His declaration brought the diners to their feet singing "The Star-Spangled Banner."

HAPPENINGS IN THE MAGIC CITY

Cold Weather Puts Several School Heating Plants Out of Order.

ATTENDANCE IS CUT DOWN

The cold gripped the South Side severely in many places in the last twenty-four hours. Night school at the high school was dismissed last evening and there was no school session at the South Field school on West L street, on account of furnace trouble. The stopper on one of the leading mains from the high school furnace burst just before the afternoon session was completed and the heating plant was put out of order.

Engineer Hummel took charge of the situation and ordered fire under one of the boilers put out. Plumbers worked late last evening fixing the leak, while the engineer remained in the school building through the night. At the field school the furnace, a new one recently installed, was repaired after an all-day visit by furnace workers.

Attendance at most of the public schools was far less than normal. Distant schools, such as the Highland, West Side and the Field, reported less than half of the students attending. The night school attendance Wednesday was three-fourths up to the total registration.

Auto Victims Recover.

The four victims of accidents in automobile smashups Wednesday, will all recover. Chester Dean, young truck driver, who was hurled thirty feet from the top of the West Q street viaduct at Forty-fifth street, and buried beneath the debris of the machine, was able to go home unaided Thursday morning. It was first reported that his left leg was broken, but this was only bruised. His escape from instant death is remarkable as the truck was completely demolished.

Henry Wredt, young stockman at the yards, will recover according to announcement of his physician, Dr. Shanahan. He sustained only severe cuts about the upper chest and arms. His two partners in the car, William Kline and C. Collins, Avery, will also recover. They were but slightly injured. All three are still at the South Omaha hospital.

Patent Documents at Library.

Official patent office documents, historic records from that office, as well as the weekly gazette published by the government form and exclusive collection of valuable books at the local library at Twenty-third and M streets. Librarians here announce that books with competent indexes are available in a separate study room. The books are regularly studied by inventors and patent office attorneys.

Daniel J. Farrell Dead.

The body of Daniel J. Farrell, aged 74 years, who died at St. Catherine's hospital, Wednesday, after a sickness of a month, was sent to Greeley Cemetery, Neb., Thursday morning for burial. The deceased is the father of George Farrell, 4925 South Twenty-third street.

PERSHING'S VAN CROSSING BORDER

Unofficial Reports Say Twenty-Fourth Cavalry Already at the Boundary.

HOST OF REFUGEES ATTEND

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 1.—A report was brought here late today by a soldier of the Sixteenth United States infantry who arrived in Columbus, N. M., from Mexico this morning that the Twenty-fourth United States cavalry would cross the border late tonight or early tomorrow and go into camp at Columbus. He said the regiment was scheduled to arrive at Palomas Lakes, eight miles from Columbus, before noon today and would stop there only a short time and then push on to the border and the field base camp.

The other enlisted men who arrived here tonight from Columbus said they had heard the same report at the camp of the Twenty-fourth infantry, near Palomas.

High army officers here denied the report and said all of Pershing's troops would cross Monday. A rigid censorship is in effect in Columbus.

Temporary Field Headquarters, American Punitive Expedition, Ojo Federico, Chihuahua, Feb. 1.—(By Airplane to Columbus, N. M.)—The punitive expedition today entered on the last lap of its withdrawal from Mexico. When the main column recrosses the border on February 5 there will have passed 327 days since the first troops left the United States in pursuit of Francisco Villa.

Surpassing in interest the secrecy that has cloaked the troop movements has been the exodus of about 3,000 Mexicans along the American line of communication. On foot, in rickety wagons, on burros and scrawny ponies, they are preceding and flanking the long columns of marching troops.

The refugee problem, which was unexpected, complicated but did not delay the withdrawal. This was carried out with a speed and precision that spoke volumes for the intensive training the expedition has received in the last ten months.

Lincoln Delegation Unable To See President Wilson

Washington, Feb. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—President Wilson was unable to see the Lincoln delegation today who are here to extend to the president an invitation to be present at the celebration of the semi-centennial of the admission of Nebraska into the union, which the University of Nebraska proposes celebrating in June.

The delegation, composed of H. B. Granger, Frank Woods, S. H. Burnham, president of the First National bank; W. S. Whitten, secretary of the Commercial club, and J. C. Harpham of the Chamber of Commerce, decided to wait until Sunday with the hope of seeing the president tomorrow.

H. H. Sands and wife of Gering are in Washington on a sight-seeing tour.

What is the Cause of Rheumatism, Lumbago and Gout?

(By Valentine Mott Pierce, M. D.) Ever since Scheele, in 1775, discovered that uric acid was present in the system, scientific men have been making experimental investigations, and it is the almost universal opinion of our best medical men that the presence of uric acid in the system in excess is the cause of rheumatism and gout. When the urate salts are precipitated out of the blood into the solid tissue-structure the person suffers from gout and rheumatism in the muscles and joints, or suffers from lumbago and pain in the back muscles.

The first aim of the sufferer should be to get rid of the uric acid, which, in excess, is a poison, and to do this it is well to drink about a pint of hot water morning and night—get tablets of Anuric (double strength) at the nearest drug store and take them before meals regularly. Anuric will do no harm to the system and will carry off the uric acid by stimulating the kidneys. Then tincture iodine may be painted over the swellings, or in more severe cases hot linseed poultices may be applied to soothe the local symptoms. But most important is it for the sufferer to abstain from meat, to diet, drink only lemonade or hot water, and take Anuric for a considerable time, as it causes a drainage outward of the uric acid, and is many times more potent than lithia and usually one finds that it dissolves uric acid as hot water does sugar.—Adv.

EYES OF EUROPE ON WASHINGTON

World Realizes Question of Whether U. S. Enters War to Be Decided There.

OTHER NEUTRALS WATCH

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 2.—A report Great Britain and all Europe are today focused on Washington. It is recognized that the question whether the United States finally will be drawn into the European war is being decided there. Not only the policy of the United States but of neutral European nations also is being largely determined in Washington. From Spain, Holland and the Scandinavian countries messages to the English papers say they are waiting for the lead which the United States will give before framing their replies to the German announcement of unfettered maritime war against all cargo vessels approaching its enemies' coasts.

British officials declined to speak for publication on the crisis lest any utterances might be construed in the United States as officious attempts to influence the American policy and intrude upon the problem, which they recognize as purely one between the neutral nations and the central powers.

Two theories are current here and are being warmly discussed. One is that the central powers expect to starve out Great Britain and its allies by unrestricted sea warfare, and that they consider they have more to gain by trying to shut off American supplies of munitions and food than by continuing friendly relations. The second is that the central dynasties consider that at the present moment they may best serve their own interests with their peoples by bringing upon themselves the hostility of the neutral nations and saying that they cannot fight the whole world.

Dr. Oaks of Hastings Asylum Is Head of Pneumonia

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Feb. 2.—(Special)—Dr. C. A. Oaks, second assistant physician at the Ingleside hospital for the insane at Hastings, died Thursday evening after two days' illness from pneumonia. His death was announced by the Board of Control Friday morning.

Dr. Oaks, born and reared in Seward, Neb., was a son-in-law of E. O. Mayfield, newly appointed member of the board.

PARTY VOTE CARRIES REVENUE MEASURE

Democratic Bill to Raise Much Needed Cash Goes Through the House.

DEMOCRATS SIT TIGHT

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Washington, Feb. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—What is regarded as the last record vote on a revenue-producing measure in the Sixty-fourth congress was taken yesterday in the house of representatives, the administration measure being adopted, 215 to 196.

This majority will disappear in the Sixty-fifth congress, for inside information is that the republicans will organize the succeeding congress, through the help of three independents, two of whom have always had republican leaning.

The Nebraska members, and all were present, split on party lines on the new tariff bill, two republicans, Sloan and Reavis, voicing their objection to the measure on the floor. The democrats from Nebraska were content to sit tight and vote as their party leader gave the word.

The bill is designed to raise about $248,000,000 to meet extraordinary military and naval expenses through

Did German Crew Scuttle Ship Here?

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 1.—Federal officers had been unable tonight to ascertain the cause of the sinking of the German freighter Liebenfels, which settled to the bottom in the harbor here today under circumstances which led marine men to believe it had been scuttled. Captain Klattenhof of the vessel, which had been laid up here since the war began, would give no information concerning the incident. J. Lubken, the first officer, who was aboard, told Fred C. Peters, the collector of customs, that he was asleep when the ship began to settle this morning and knew nothing about it. Collector Peters examined the ship late today and later conferred with Assistant United States District Attorney Wang.

Young Farmer and His Former Sweetheart Elope

Smith Center, Kan., Feb. 2.—(Special.)—Somewhere in northwest Kansas in the bitter cold are Charles Kasper, a young married man of Jennings, and pretty Ida Rezuka, fleeing in an auto from the pursuing wrath of relatives and the law. Kasper slipped away Tuesday night from his wife and three young children to fly with his affinity. The latter is an attractive blonde and daughter of Joe Rezuka of Wakefield, this state. She was reared at Jennings and being back there on a visit a love romance she had with Kasper when they were in school was renewed. Kasper is a well-to-do farmer, owning a half section of land well stocked and is out of debt. His reputation has always been the best. It is believed that the pair is headed either for Kansas City or Omaha, and officers in all the towns between here and those cities have been warned to keep a lookout for the runaways.

Is "Peace Without Victory" A Dream, or a Prophecy?

Two unprecedented incidents have been recorded in the cable dispatches since President Wilson outlined before the United States Senate the kind of peace that "the peoples of America could join in guaranteeing." On the day following his speech a great conference of the British Labor Party in England rose to its feet and applauded for five minutes at the casual mention of President Wilson's name—and then enthusiastically voted its unqualified support to the British government in carrying the war to a victorious conclusion!

The other incident was the sending to President Wilson from the Allies' trenches in France of a number of circular letters each signed by three hundred soldiers, thanking him for his generous intervention, but asking him to "dream no longer of the chimera of peace until victory is gained."

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for February 3d, the feature-article shows what the rulers and the newspapers of the world think of President Wilson's attitude. Since it is not possible to know immediately what the common people think of it, it will give considerable satisfaction to read this comprehensive survey.

Among other articles of more than ordinary interest in this number are:
