NEW YORK STOCKS

Break in Relations With Germany Made Occasion of Further Advance in Shares.

BETHLEHEM STEEL RISING

New York, Feb. 5.—Far from causing dismay or even hesitation, the break in relations between the United States and Germany was made the occasion of a further advance in stocks today.

Prominent specialists particularly those embracing the so-called war group, made even greater gains.

Bethlehem Steel rose 15 points, although the stock yielded 4 points.

Shares of numerous other concerns, which have been the most conspicuous in the war boom of the last two years were substantially steady.

United States Steel occupied its customary commanding position throughout the day and on a total turnover of about 250,000 shares.

London Stock Market. London, Feb. 5.—American securities moved with Wall street and only few transactions were recorded on the stock exchange today.

STOCK MARKET IS STRONG AND HIGHER

Steel, Smelter, Copper and Kindred Issues Open One to Three Points Up.

ATTENDANCE IS LARGE

New York, Feb. 5.—Wall street began the day in a mood more serious than at any time since the beginning of the war.

The developments over Sunday suggesting the extent of the precautions taken throughout the country brought the financial community to a further realization of the grave conditions resulting from the diplomatic break with Germany.

At the stock exchange the attendance, despite the storm, was larger than on any day since the memorable 1st day of August, 1914.

The tone of the market at the opening was strong, with gains of 1 to 3 1/2 points in American Smelting, Lackawanna Steel, Utah Copper and Central Leather.

United States Steel made an initial gain of 2 points, at 100, on its offering of 2,500 shares.

Bethlehem Steel, old stock, rose 15 points, while the new stock was off 3 points.

High Price Ever Paid For Hogs On This Market. Never before did hogs sell as high as they did Monday in the stock yards at Omaha.

A flat 12 cents was reached on few loads, and the bulk sold at from $11.65 to $11.90.
