Teutons Think They Will Have War Won Before U. S. Is Ready

Berlin Via London, Feb. 5.—Comment in the morning newspapers treats the breach in diplomatic relations between the United States and Germany as a matter of great gravity, but all the editorials are calm and moderate.

Teutons Think They Will Have War Won Before U. S. Is Ready. The newspapers strongly reject the imputation that Germany has broken its promise made in its note of May 4, laying stress upon the fact that Germany's promise was expressly conditioned on President Wilson's success in bringing England to an observance of the laws of nations.

Teutons Think They Will Have War Won Before U. S. Is Ready. The newspapers say the country must meet war with America, as the lesser of two evils. The danger of the United States as a war factor is treated as comparatively unimportant, owing to the remoteness of the area of war and the time that would be required to create an army.
