UNIONIST WOMEN ASK CO-OPERATION

Omaha Suffragists' Luncheon. No organization of the Congressional Union for woman suffrage was effected Wednesday afternoon...

SPEAKS AT CONGRESSIONAL UNION CONFERENCE.

Mrs. Halleck F. Rose

Forty-six women of the number present signed the membership cards to the Congressional Union at 25 cents for a life membership...

The meeting started full of promise, but interest waned as the moments flew. By the time Mayor Dahlman, Miss Sarah Muir of Lincoln, Mrs. Rose, Miss Amidon and Miss Whittemore had finished speaking...

Mrs. J. H. Dumont was the only one who pressed the claims of the National Woman Suffrage association policies at the C. U. conference.

In explaining why Congressional Unionists picket the White House, Miss Whittemore asserted it was not because they liked it. It is an excellent way to get publicity...

Mayor Dahlman sat by and listened while Miss Amidon told how California women had cut down the democratic majority in the last election...

Mrs. Warren Blackwell, affiliated with no suffrage society, presided. Among the women present was Mrs. E. M. Fairfield...

Mrs. A. L. Fitch had at her table: Mesdames—Charles Hemo, Council Bluffs; Arthur L. Williams, Clara M. Fowler, Walter Reabe...

Mrs. Frank H. Myers had with her: Mesdames—Alfred O. Blich, W. Bruce Ponda, Arthur Walsh, Charles Sumner, Charles A. Cundaden, Charles Sumner...

Mrs. Charles Johannes entertained at her table: Mesdames—E. W. Gunther, Whitcomb, Lawrence Hayden, Misses—Anna Bourke, Clara Hawley...

Mrs. A. C. Anderson had as her guests: Mesdames—Adrian Polanabek, E. L. Bridgman, H. J. Peck, M. Barnum, M. Morrow, P. Miller, Mary Morrow...

At Mrs. D. R. Mills' table were: Mesdames—H. S. Clark, Jr., Ronald Peterson, Misses—Helen Chaney, Carol Howard, Ruth Mills...

The guests of Mrs. Joseph Polcar were: Mesdames—J. W. Woodruff, John Moore, Morris Dunham, T. L. Combs...

At the table with Mrs. Halleck Rose were the ushers: Misses—Anne Gifford, Regulus Council, Mesdames—Rosa Towle, Ben Boyce...

Mrs. Alfred Darlow had at her table: Mesdames—T. M. Orr, John J. Sullivan, Miss Helen Schwanen...

Among others who attended with smaller groups of guests were: Mesdames—H. H. Stevens, George Summers, Myron Leonard, Louis Nash, W. E. Barrett, S. A. Capen, W. E. Purviance, Cathbert Vincent, H. C. Howe, Joseph Duffy, David McElhenny, Miss Alice Mackenzie...

Jotted on the Social Calendar. The winter garden at the Blackstone is reserved for the week-end dinner-dance which the Misses Elizabeth and Meliora Davis have in charge...

Society to Help If Needed. Omaha women who visited Chicago during the recent allied bazaar here decided that it was such a huge success that it would be well worth trying in Omaha...

Creighton College Affair. Creighton University Mixers' club gave a banquet and prom in honor of Edith L. Wagoner...

a social affair for Thursday was under discussion. When one woman was approached on the subject, she promptly demurred. "Oh, no," she said, "that is my afternoon to work at the war relief room; I can't do anything else on that day."

Society women feel that now, if ever, they must put forth all their efforts for the war relief work. "Who knows that we may not need the hospital supplies for our own men soon?" People who are going on trips are hesitating. Mrs. John A. Kuhn, Miss Marion Kuhn, Miss Gertrude Metz and Miss Harriet Mack, who left last evening for Honolulu, felt some hesitancy about setting forth, but all their reservations having been made, they decided to leave as arranged...

Pending word from the Literary Digest, the $1,000 raised by Omaha people for the Literary Digest fund on behalf of starving Belgian children is being held at the Omaha National bank. Miss Carrie Millard, who has the fund in charge, was at the bank preparing to send the money by New York draft to headquarters, when news came of the break in diplomatic relations with Germany.

Knights Templar Reception. Mount Calvary Commandery will give its annual reception and dance at the Blackstone Thursday evening, February 15. Full Templar uniform will be worn by the knights. The committee in charge of the affair includes Mesdames Jonathan Mellen, Daniel A. Johnson, Walter G. Silver, John T. Dysart, Harold L. Fritchett, Charles W. Y. Loucks, William S. Rowe, Harry C. Schroeder and George W. Long.

Personal Mention. Miss Josephine Neary is recovering from a surgical operation at St. Joseph's hospital. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rood plan to leave about April 1 to superintend the building of a log house on their ranch in the Black Hills. They expect to remain there several months. Mrs. Austin J. Collett and two sons have returned to their home at Santa Domingo. Mr. Collett went ahead. Mrs. G. H. Renard of Wausa, Neb., who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Bridges for the last week, leaves this evening for her home.

With the Card Clubs. Mrs. R. E. Graham entertained one of the Wednesday visit clubs at the Blackstone. Valentine decorations and heart-shaped score cards were used, with red tulips to adorn the table. Mrs. William Simpson is the next hostess.

Mrs. Chester Nieman will entertain the Monday Bridge Luncheon club a week from Monday.

Drake Cards Received. Cards have been received by Omaha friends from Mrs. Charles Wiltshire of San Bernardino, Cal., announcing the marriage of her daughter, Grace, and Mr. Luther Drake of Omaha on January 25, and that Mr. and Mrs. Drake will be at home after March 1 at the Blackstone.

To Honor Bride. Miss Emily Wentworth entertained at an informal afternoon for Miss Marie Hodge, whose marriage takes place this month. Miss Hazel Evans will give a Kensington for Miss Hodge February 14.

Pleasures Past. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hall entertained at dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hoisington of Neligh, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. Hoisington are spending the winter with their son, Everett G. Hoisington. Covers were laid for seven. Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Bridges entertained last evening at a bridge party in honor of their house guest, Mrs. G. H. Renard, of Wausa, Neb., when four tables were placed for the game. The parlors were decorated in spring flowers.

Creighton College Affair. Creighton University Mixers' club gave a banquet and prom in honor of Edith L. Wagoner...

Edith L. Wagoner Presents Mrs. Edward MacDowell in a Lecture Recital. Y. W. C. A. AUDITORIUM SATURDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 10 AT EIGHT FIFTEEN...

"THEY are dangerous out of it!" Did you ever see a girl's eyes suddenly lifted over the white rim of her cup as she drank? The soft eyelids down—under their fringes the fan-shaped cup hiding mouth and nose—only the brows and still eyelids—demure—unexpressive. Suddenly they are lifted—and two eyes regard you! No matter how sober they are—your heart goes pity-pat! There is something about the gaze of a pair of feminine eyes—widely regarding over the cup she drinks from—that calls and stirs. So—you understand why a little maid's duenna says, "Keep your eyes in your cup, my child."

of the junior and senior classes at the Blackstone last evening. The mayor and Mrs. James C. Dahlman and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Woodruff were guests of honor. The governor and Mrs. Keith Neville and Judge Andrew M. Morrissey were unable to attend. Dr. E. H. Bruening was the toastmaster. The toasts were: "Creighton," R. F. Mullin; "Our Alumni," Bryan M. Riley; "Influences," Arthur F. Mullen, and "Omaha," J. C. Dahlman.

Entertain at Luncheon. Mrs. D. A. Foote entertained at luncheon at the Commercial club in honor of Mrs. E. F. Denison, wife of the general secretary of the Young Men's Christian association. Decorations were in pink. Covers were laid for six guests.

Mrs. L. M. Walkin entertained at a luncheon yesterday at the Fontenelle for Miss Marie Baden of Kansas City, Mo. The luncheon table had a basket of pink roses for a centerpiece. After luncheon the guests went to Mrs. Walkin's home, where the afternoon was spent enjoying a musical program.

Mrs. Charles L. Smith will entertain at a bridge luncheon at her home tomorrow in honor of Miss Baden. A basket of tulips will form the centerpiece and the place cards will be yellow tulips.

Hats Off To Tip-Top Bread! It's the answer to the high cost of living. It's a great big loaf made of good flour, good yeast, good shortening, good milk—all food value and it takes the place of more expensive things at every meal. It's good with butter, with jelly, with jam. It's good as sandwiches, toast, puddings. It's good, wholesome food any way you take it, and it's cheap at 10 cents. We could not afford to give you this bread value at 10c if we did not save in labor and wrappers and by making a big loaf. Ask for Tip-Top, 10c—Baked Electrically. Miss Whittemore Explains Aim at the Meeting at the Blackstone Hotel.

CONCENTRATE SENTIMENT

"We are not asking suffragists to choose between the Congressional Union and the National Woman Suffrage association. We are appealing for greater co-operation," explained Miss Margaret Whittemore, Congressional Union organizer, in her address at the conference-luncheon held at the Blackstone today. "The difference in the two organizations is only that we are not doing propaganda work, though we think it an excellent thing for the other suffragists to do," she said.

Here is the policy of the much-mooted Congressional union as outlined by Miss Whittemore:

"To concentrate existing suffrage sentiment on congress, backed by groups from the 4,000,000 women voters.

"To deal with the party which controls legislation, no matter which one it is."

"The Congressional union is in no way incompatible with any other suffrage organization. Its work overlaps to the extent that almost every member of the Congressional union also belongs to the national, and frequently officers in one organization also hold office in the other," said Miss Whittemore.

Miss Whittemore described the first great convention of women voters in San Francisco and the cross-country auto trip of Sarah Bard Field to secure signers to the suffrage petition and other work in congress all sponsored by the Congressional union.

"Since the democratic party is in power, we expect it to grant us suffrage," she said.

Miss Mary Graham of Lincoln, dean of women at the state university, and Miss Blanche Groat of the university faculty, Mrs. Halleck Rose and Miss Beulah Amidon were other speakers.

Miss Whittemore and Miss Amidon go tonight to Des Moines, leaving Congressional union affairs in Nebraska in the hands of the organization which was effected at today's meeting. Other Congressional union speakers will come later.
