

Nebraska TRADING STAMPS WIN IN HOUSE BATTLE Measure Indefinitely Postponed, Forty-Eight, to Thirty, After Fight. RIESCHICK WATCHES CASH

Lincoln, Feb. 8.—(Special.)—Prohibiting the advertising of goods of any kind in newspapers was the freak amendment sent up to the desk of the chief clerk of the house today, when House Roll No. 88, backed by the Nebraska Federation of Retailers, was up for consideration in committee of the whole. The bill was intended to do away with trading stamps, but before it had run the gauntlet of amendments nearly everything imaginable had been attempted in the way of loading it up.

Peterson would allow a merchant to give coupons with his goods, redeemable at his own store. This amendment was supported by Reiser, Leidigh and others, because they believed a merchant had a right to give his cash customers a discount in any way he desired. Mr. Hostetler was afraid the amendment would make the bill unconstitutional. The amendment was defeated. Waite then sent up his anti-advertising amendment, but that, too, was defeated. Other amendments were offered, but all of them went to the scrap heap. The bill was then indefinitely postponed, 48 to 30.

Irrigation Bill. The Stearns bill establishing a school of irrigation at Scottsbluff was ordered engrossed for third reading. But Kreschick had heard someone say something about an appropriation and it had such a jarring effect on his anti-appropriation system that it aroused him from his otherwise more or less peaceful sleep and he had the bill sent back for more consideration.

Consolidation Advanced. The bill to consolidate Benson and other towns with Omaha was advanced to third reading. Mr. Richmond said that the people of Benson favored the bill and he knew of none against it. Labor Commissioner Norman will have to get along without a raise in salary, the house refusing to lift the amount from $1,500 to $1,800.

Hard work on the part of his friends saved the municipal forest bill, House Bill No. 17, from being killed on its third reading in the house Thursday afternoon. A good many farmers' members voted "no," being opposed to having rural acreage turned into pleasure grounds for town people. However, Messrs. Thomas and Waite, the bill's introducers, hustled around and got some to change. These, with a few additional members who came in after the first roll call, put the bill through by the vote of 56 to 33.

Madison Men Fight Over Subsea Policy; Fined $15.20 Each

Madison, Neb., Feb. 8.—(Special.)—The first blood shed at Madison over the submarine war situation occurred in a saloon Tuesday afternoon. In an altercation ex-County Judge Bates poked William Miller in the nose. Both were arrested by Chief of Police Peters for disturbing the peace, pleaded guilty and paid fines Wednesday morning of $15.20 each. About the time of the blow Judge Bates which floored Miller, Ed Stevens as a friendly act, stepped between the enraged men. Miller, misinterpreting Stevens' motives, had Stevens arrested for contributing to the disturbance, and his hearing was held in the afternoon before Justice Oberg, and the action dismissed at Miller's cost.

Senators Live Up to Tradition When They Discuss Telegram

Lincoln, Feb. 8.—(Special.)—The Nebraska state senate descended from its lofty position as the "dignified" body of the legislature and killed a lot of perfectly good and valuable time and otherwise lived up to traditions today, just because Senator Ed Howell had received a telegram of which the following is a true copy: "Woman's organization of Polk county urges you to promote suffering. After the senators had joked and 'lofted' over the matter, they finally got sore and everybody sent up all the communications they had received and one senator sent up his letter file, all because the lieutenant governor had ruled that all communications coming to the senators were privileged to be read before the honorable senate. The message was finally disposed of by a substitute to the substitute motion sent up by Adams of Dawes, placing consideration of the communication for May 1, although McAllister protested that proper consideration could not be given the matter because the first of May would be the morning after the night before. Senator Tanner remarked that a day should be set aside for the reading of the private correspondence of the senator, who had sent up the message.

RICHMOND TALKS FOR NEW CAPITOL

Douglas County Representative Addresses Committee on Needs of State. STATE IS ABLE TO PAY IT

Lincoln, Feb. 8.—(Special.)—Reasons why Nebraska should have a new state house and the cost it would entail upon each taxpayer, were given in an argument in favor of the passage of House Roll No. 1 by its author, Representative Henry C. Richmond, before a joint committee of the house and senate this evening. There were other speakers, but the remarks of Mr. Richmond covered the proposition in such an instructive way that they met with a great deal of attention. Mr. Richmond said in part: Here in the capitol situation in a nut shell. First, do we need a new building? Is there a demand for it? Second, is the state able and amply able to pay for it? This question is answered by the affirmative and the proof is overwhelming. It is a matter now of almost public common knowledge that the capitol building is unsafe, unsightly and unsanitary. That it is vastly inadequate for the accommodation of the growing demands, and that at least the east section of the structure must be supplanted with a new building soon. House Roll No. 1 provides for the construction of a capitol building to cost $2,500,000, to be raised by an annual mill levy. It is intended that the levy shall run over a term of years and it is comparatively easy to pay for a new building in this way. Under the terms of this bill a new capitol building might be commenced before the next session of the legislature and within six, eight or ten years, section by section, it would come to completion and the taxpayers would scarcely miss the money they had paid. An annual mill levy would produce, according to the valuation in 1916, the sum of $500,000 a year. It would not be a great burden to the taxpayers. Take York county as an example. The average valuation is about $89 an acre for land there. Thus it would cost the average owner of a quarter section of land in York county exactly $2.77, of course, the tax on land in western Nebraska would be considerably less. According to the valuation in 1916 the building of a new state house under the terms proposed in this bill would cost the average farmer in Adams county, $1.80; in Boone county, $1.40; in Boyd county, $1.20; in Buffalo county, $1.05; in Butler county, $2.44; in Cass county, $2.52; in Dodge county, $2.66; in Fremont county, $1.90; in Hamilton county, $2.52; in Howard county, $1.25; in Jefferson county, $1.96; in Kimball county, $2.02; in Madison county, $1.96; in Seward county, $2.44; in Thurston county, $2.47.

HOW I KILLED MY SUPERFLUOUS HAIR. Let me tell you Free how Sacred Hindoo Secret Banished it Forever, Never to Return, after Twenty Years' Failures. Until nearly middle age I was severely troubled by hideous Superfluous Hair. My face was a sight, with a heavy mustache on my lip and a tough beard on my chin. My arms were also greatly covered. I tried one thing after another without success. The electric method made me grow worse. Finally, my husband an officer in the British Army, secured from a Native Hindoo Soldier the Hindoo Secret, which forbids Superfluous Hair to have over the slightest trace of hair on any part of their body except that on their head. I used it in a few days my hair growth had entirely disappeared and a trace of it can be found. I will send you, free and without obligation to any one, full information, name and complete list of actions so that you can follow my example and completely remove all trace without having to remove the hair in the dangerous electric method. My stop leading your mail on worthwhile letters, preparations and write me today giving your name and address, stating whether Mrs. or Miss. All I ask is that you send me a return postage.
