

Stunning Hats from the Smart Shops of Paris

Valentine About has originated a popular sports hat from bright blue and white linen. The linen is joined to form stripes and then shirred. To the right, a tailored hat by Maria Guy, of black straw and satin. This is a striking model.

One of the newest hats from the Maison Lewis fits firmly on the head and is made of beige straw with a crown of beige corded silk laid in folds. To the left a hat of taupe crepe de chine with the upper edge of the brim and the full crown chain-stitched.

Congressional Union Organizers Abandon Their Work in Omaha

A complete fizzle seems to be the result of three weeks of Congressional Union campaigning in Omaha, the culmination of which was a large conference at the Blackstone Wednesday, at which it was planned to effect an organization. When this plan failed Miss Margaret Whittemore and Miss Beulah Amidon, the organizers, announced that officers would be elected at another meeting Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Fontenelle.

Instead of remaining for the meeting Miss Whittemore and Miss Amidon left town Wednesday night, notifying one or two women they were called away by telegram.

"I do not know whether they will return or not. Nor do I know whether the Congressional union will make any further attempts to organize in Nebraska. They were up against a hard proposition here."

This was the substance of statements made by Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, Mrs. Halleck Rose, Miss Helen Sorenson and Mrs. Alfred Darlow, all of whom served on the committee of arrangements for Wednesday's conference.

Mrs. Alfred Darlow said Miss Amidon telephoned her Wednesday night asking her to take charge of the organization work here. Mrs. Darlow refused.

Mrs. A. C. Anderson was the only woman on the committee who seemed to have any information as to the plans of the departed leaders.

"They told me they would return Friday and would hold a meeting at 3 o'clock at the Fontenelle," said Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. Fairfield, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Darlow and Miss Sorenson, however, all denied any knowledge of the proposed meeting on Friday. Before leaving Omaha the two organizers said they would go on to Washington from Des Moines.

The meeting Wednesday was well attended. Over 150 women listened for more than three hours to suffrage talks.

Benson Banker's House is Looted; Diamonds Overlooked

Several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry, a valuable fur coat, three suits of clothing and numerous miscellaneous articles, such as eye glasses, electric flash light and table linens, were stolen by a burglar who broke into the home of N. H. Tyson, a Benson banker, Wednesday evening. The robbery, which occurred while Mr. and Mrs. Tyson were attending a party in Omaha, was reported to Sheriff Clark. The burglar overlooked a platinum sunburst, set in diamonds, valued at $500, but ransacked the house of the following pieces of jewelry: A diamond ring, a wedding ring, an opal ring, a garnet ring, a tiger's-eye ring and a ladies' watch. The burglar evidently had information that the Tysons would be away all evening, for when the banker and his wife returned at midnight they found that every room in the house had been systematically looted.

Which?

"Everything baked with Calumet is so tempting—wholesome—delicious—I want 'em all. For things hard to bake right it can't be equalled. Calumet is the world's best Baking Powder—it's moderate in price—pure in the can and pure in the baking—wonderful in leavening and raising power—the most economical to buy and to use."

Society Notes

February 8 by Mellicia

Surprises Friends by Marriage Wednesday.

Thirty-five girls of the junior high school of Brownell Hall will raise their sum toward the building fund of the school by giving a "carnival" at the Brownell Hall gymnasium on the evening of February 20. A program of folk songs and folk dances will be given in costume by the various girls of the school. A number of the students who are proficient in French will sing French songs. Other girls will conduct refreshment and candy booths.

One of the many interesting features planned for the evening's entertainment will be the Polish booth which Miss Sophie Nositz Naimska will conduct. Miss Naimska will wear a genuine Polish peasant costume and will dispense Polish souzouers and post cards for the benefit of ariving Polish children.

Not all the parts have been assigned, but each member of the class will have some share in the performance. The girls are entering into the plans with great enthusiasm and they hope to have a large attendance of all their friends and any others interested in the school or the carnival.

Selby-Norris Wedding.

Society registered complete surprise at the announcement that Miss Selby and Mr. Frank Selby were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Norris, and then had slipped quietly off to the east before anyone was aware a ceremony had been performed. The wedding was planned to be a large social function, as both young people are very popular, but a change of plans was thought best because of lingering case of the gripe from which the bride has suffered all winter.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Buckley in the presence of members of both families and a few relatives only. here were no attendants.

The bride, who is a lovely brunette, as gowned in silver lace fashioned her silver cloth. She wore Mr. Selby's wedding gift, a handsome diamond-shaped dinner ring of platinum and diamonds. Her gift to the bridegroom was also a platinum and diamond ring.

For the ceremony, which took place in the music room, the couple stood a bower of pink and white roses, with palms and ferns as a background. The living room and library were ablaze with spring flowers.

After congratulations, the bridegroom left for Chicago, Detroit and Buffalo, from whence they go on to Alaska for the Cornell college four-week festivities the latter part of the month. Mr. Selby is a Cornell man and has a brother, Wayne, who is attending Cornell this year. The young couple will spend several weeks in New York before coming home.

MRS FRANK S. SELBY.

will also attend the recital in a body. Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Kinsler have taken the last box for the Creighton University Glee club concert to be given next Thursday. The Dental college of the Creighton university will have a line party of fifty.

"Drink Hot Lemonade and go to bed"

AN old-time prescription, and one your doctor will endorse today. Hot lemonade and a warm night's sleep are valuable precautions against gripe and colds. To get the best effects, be sure the water is piping hot, and use Sunkist lemons,—one for each glassful.

California's Sunkist Uniformly Good Lemons

When you order lemons, ask for Sunkist, the uniformly good California lemons. Sunkist are waxy, tart and juicy. See that they reach you in the clean, crisp tissue wrappers stamped "Sunkist." They will stay fresh much longer if you leave them in these wrappers until you use them. Always have at least a half dozen in the house.

"Cardui is a Splendid Tonic"

"About six years ago," says Mrs. Emma McBride, of Boyd, Florida, "I got run down in health. . . I got a very bad complexion, and was dark under my eyes. . . I kept getting worse all the time, would be so very nervous. . . Couldn't rest well at night. . . I suffered great pains in stomach or lower abdomen, hips, left side and back, also had a dull headache. I could hardly do my work at all. . . and finally for three weeks I was confined to my bed and suffered great agony all the time. . . Mrs. —, of Boyd, recommended that I take Cardui. . . After using the third bottle I felt I didn't need any more medicine whatever. . . I never had another nervous spell after taking the Cardui. . . It's a splendid tonic. . . I do hope women suffering as I did will use it." If you suffer as this lady did, try CARDUI. For sale by all druggists.
