Central High Glee Club

Will Give Minstrel Show

The Central High Glee club will give a minstrel show in the school auditorium on February 16. It has been named "A Breeze From Dixie," and will contain several good acts. There will be a "Trial by Jury" sung by several members of the club, also an Hawaiian quintet, composed of Floyd Paynter, Leonard Wallen, George Benolken, Harry Hobson and Rudyard Norton. Pickinny comedy will be furnished by four members of the club.

Jay Burns will be the interlocutor in the minstrel show. The end men will be Floyd Paynter, Harold Moore, Arthur Paynter, Leonard Wallen, Robert Russell, Charles Brewer, Dwight Chase and Charles McCaslin.

A month later the annual road show of eight or more acts will be given for the benefit of the military department.

The show is to be given in an effort to raise money to defray camp expenses. Money must be raised by some outside means this year to insure an encampment at the close of the school year.

Episcopal Bishop Directs

Clergy to Say Special Prayer

Right Rev. Arthur L. Williams, Episcopal bishop of Nebraska, has set forth and directed the clergy of his diocese to say a special prayer at every occasion of public worship during the present crisis. The authorized prayer is as follows:

"O, Almighty God, the Supreme Governor of all things, Whose power no creature is able to resist, to Whom it belongeth justly to punish sinners and to be merciful to those who truly repent; save and deliver us, we humbly beseech Thee, from the imminence of war; and grant that we, being armed with Thy defense, may be preserved evermore from all perils, and truly glorify Thee, Who art the only giver of peace; through the merits of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

There's Newness Creeping in at Every Nook and Corner at Burgess-Nash

Like the Scent of a Pleasing Perfume
These New Spring Suits At $29.50 Will Captivate You

JUST in by express—hardly out of the tissue paper—their newness, their style, individuality and distinctiveness will appeal to the women who give a thought for the new.

The style trend is a decided change from the past season—some are strictly tailored with smart, close collar, snug shoulders and straight silhouette, that so many discriminating women prefer.

The coats are box pleated from belt down, odd shaped pockets, silk collars that can be detached, knife pleated skirts, that are slightly longer than past season.

The materials are Poviet twills, poplins, gaberdines, Burella cloth, English tweeds, in apple green, gold, mustard gray, copen, tan, navy as well as black.
