

What is Going On in Society Circles

their marriage took place last Monday at the Epiphany Episcopal church. Mrs. MacMartin was Miss Carol Angeline Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mann. They will be at home after April 1 at 511 South Thirty-fifth street.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Carol L. Mann, and Mr. Harold A. MacMartin, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. D. Kilets.

Creighton Glee Club Concerts. Archbishop J. J. Hartley will be in the box of Rev. F. X. McMenamy at the Creighton University Glee club concert Thursday evening. Other box holders are A. V. Kinsler, C. W. Hamilton, L. C. Nash, Dr. T. J. Dwyer and Dr. L. B. Bushman. Line parties will be given by Leo A. Hoffman, J. M. Daugherty, H. V. Burkle, C. F. Crowley, E. A. Wickham, Guy Furry and Miss Nettie Bushman. The patronesses are as follows:

Miss Lena Guggenmos entertained at a dinner party for Miss Hazel Hamilton, a St. Valentine's day bride. Wednesday evening, when covers were laid for fifteen guests. Sweet peas formed the centerpiece for the table and during the evening Miss Mildred Guggenmos gave several piano numbers.

Miss Marie Richardson entertained at her home Wednesday evening, for Miss Irene Messersmith, whose marriage will take place in the late spring. Those present were:

Miss Marie Hodge, whose marriage to Mr. Samuel Carrier of New York City will take place February 22, is being much feted before her wedding day. Today Mr. Carrier, who arrived yesterday from New York, will share honors with his bride-to-be at a dinner party which Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wilmoth will give.

The marriage of Miss Irma Swift, whose engagement to Mr. Anthony Oberreuter was announced two weeks ago, will take place some time during this week at St. John's Catholic church. Miss Marry Oberreuter and Mr. John Oberreuter will be the attendants. The young people expect to make their home at Clairdale, their country place near Ralston.

At a dinner given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fairhead, Miss Betty Fairfield, the young daughter of the house, was suddenly thrust into her mother's place as hostess by the latter's inability to appear, owing to a severe cold. That Miss Betty was equal to the occasion she very well proved, for this young high school girl is well posted on the subjects of the day and has ideas and opinions on things political as well as social. The dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart, 24; Mrs. J. de Forest Richards, Mrs. Mora Marple, General Harries and Earl Gannett.

A surprise dinner party was given Friday evening for Mr. M. N. Woodward to celebrate his fifty-third birthday. The host was presented with a Masonic watch charm, while the hostess received a bouquet of carnations and American Beauty roses. Mrs. Woodward and her daughter, Margaret, received, assisted by Mrs. Charles C. Haynes. Covers were laid for:

The University Mixers' club of Creighton university will give an informal dancing party at the Blackstone the evening of February 20. Members of the faculty will be chaperones. The Eite club will give the third of a series of parties at the Scottish Rite cathedral Saturday.

Social Functions Planned. Mrs. E. C. Jensen will entertain at bridge on Friday at her home for her sister, Mrs. Edmund V. Krug of Pasadena, Cal., who arrived Friday to visit her mother, Mrs. John F. Coad. Mr. Krug comes later.

Mr. A. J. Rothschild has dinner reservations at the Blackstone for Tuesday evening. Mrs. L. M. Halliday will entertain twenty-four guests at bridge luncheon at the Blackstone Wednesday.

Prof. Van Haecke of the University of Louvain, in Belgium, who is already scheduled to give two talks in Omaha Tuesday, one at the Blackstone and another at the Creighton university, has consented to give another talk in French for the newly organized Alliance Francaise. This will be Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Patronesses for Creighton Glee Club Concert

MRS. J. McMILLAN HARDING

MRS. W. M. JEFFERS

Prof. Van Haecke will tell about the life of the Belgian refugees in the settlements in Holland.

Social Clubs Meet. Mrs. Walter Busher Shade entertained the Swastika club Friday afternoon, when three tables were placed for the game of high-five. Mrs. Eric King won the first prize, Mrs. F. M. Swearingen the second and Mrs. J. C. Rieder the third. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Draper February 23.

Mrs. George Schreiber entertained the members of the Cosmos club Wednesday, when eight guests were present. Miss Bella Robinson's Music Study club will meet Monday evening with Mrs. Ward Shafer. The program will be given by Miss Nina Garrett, Miss Martha Murphy, Mr. Charles E. Coche and Mr. Ward Shafer.

With the Visitors. Mrs. Eugene Levi and daughter of Lincoln are the guests of Mrs. Levi's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rehfeld. Mrs. G. H. Renard of Wausau, Neb., who was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Bridges for a week, returned home Wednesday.

W. H. Neidinger of East Orange, N. J., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sunderland and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Adams. He will be here several days.

Mrs. Thomas Willis Jones of Atlanta, Ga., formerly Miss Nell Entell of Omaha, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Ella Entell, and her sister, Mrs. William Moran, enroute to California, where she and her husband expect to make their home.

Wedding Plans. The marriage of Miss Irma Swift, whose engagement to Mr. Anthony Oberreuter was announced two weeks ago, will take place some time during this week at St. John's Catholic church. Miss Marry Oberreuter and Mr. John Oberreuter will be the attendants. The young people expect to make their home at Clairdale, their country place near Ralston.

Daughter as Hostess. At a dinner given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fairhead, Miss Betty Fairfield, the young daughter of the house, was suddenly thrust into her mother's place as hostess by the latter's inability to appear, owing to a severe cold. That Miss Betty was equal to the occasion she very well proved, for this young high school girl is well posted on the subjects of the day and has ideas and opinions on things political as well as social. The dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart, 24; Mrs. J. de Forest Richards, Mrs. Mora Marple, General Harries and Earl Gannett.

Events of Past Week. A surprise dinner party was given Friday evening for Mr. M. N. Woodward to celebrate his fifty-third birthday. The host was presented with a Masonic watch charm, while the hostess received a bouquet of carnations and American Beauty roses. Mrs. Woodward and her daughter, Margaret, received, assisted by Mrs. Charles C. Haynes. Covers were laid for:

Mrs. B. F. Duffbacher gave a theater party last week. Her guests were:

Mrs. George Laier had seven guests for luncheon at the Blackstone Friday. Miss Katherine MacArthur entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. E. C. Morgan of St. Joseph, Mo., who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson. Covers were laid for twelve and the table decorations were in red and white carnations.

Miss Margaret Berry entertained Wednesday evening at a bridge party in honor of Mrs. E. C. Morgan.

Wedding Announcement. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Nelson have received word of the marriage in New York City Monday, February 5, of Mr. Allen T. Taylor and Miss Frances McFriedgen. Both young people are well known here. They will make their home in New York.

Audubon Sponsor Mills' Talk. Tickets will soon be put on sale for the lecture which Enos Mills will give under the auspices of the Audubon society the evening of February 26. The Audubon society will show its beautiful nature slides in connection with the lecture. Although this will take place the first week in Lent, no one need hesitate to attend the lecture, for it is a suitable Lenten amusement. Audubon society officers say. Mr. Mills is the author of the

SOUTHERN WOMAN VISITS MOTHER IN OMAHA.

MRS. THOMAS WILLIS JONES

The Lutheran church choir will give a special song service of old-fashioned songs this evening. Miss Hazel Wilcox left last Thursday for a week's visit in David City, Neb.

The Municipal League held a short business and social meeting last week at the John Speedie home. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bleick of Elgin, S. D., are at the home of Mr. Bleick's brother, Frank Bleick.

Mrs. F. E. Young will be hostess for the Methodist Ladies' Aid society next Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. W. E. Yarton left last Tuesday to spend a few days in Leigh, Neb.

A former Baptist pastor here, Rev. George Campbell, died in Missouri Valley. He leaves a widow and an adopted daughter. Miss Marguerite Liljenstolpe was hostess last Tuesday for the Augustinian Luther League, a program being given and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lebrand Wycoff, who were married last week, will reside at 6131 Bryan street here. The Rouse Edison rooms will be moved to Twentieth and Farnam streets soon, into larger quarters.

The Christian Endeavor society will have charge of the evening service this evening, with a special service. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schinner have come to this place to reside. They are from Maryland, Mo.

Dr. L. W. Mason has returned to his home in Pittsburgh, Pa., after a visit here with Dr. Mason and Mrs. Mason. The Baptist Young People's Union of the Baptist church will hold a social next Friday evening at the home of Miss Anderson.

The 1917 Eighth grade has organized with the following officers: President, John Calvert; vice president, Harold Brown; secretary, Florence McInay; treasurer, Helen Bullis. Miss Ethel Hamer has returned from a week's visit in Fremont with her sister, Mrs. R. E. Bosworth, formerly of this place.

Mrs. A. L. Strahl spent a few days in York visiting her sister and friends. A social dance and high five party was held Thursday evening in St. Bernard's hall, when nearly a hundred were present.

Messrs. Fred Oleson and Roland Woolston of Cheyenne, Wyo., are guests at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. A. W. Albee. Miss Loretta Nesmeyer, formerly of Benson, now of Lakewood, S. D., was married on February 3 to Mr. Helgren Lekwood. The young couple will reside in Lakewood.

The T. T. M. club of the high school gave a musical program in the auditorium Friday afternoon and evening. This entertainment was postponed some time ago on account of the illness of Miss Shipherd, the leader.

The Woman's club has completely fitted out the city rest room with furniture and a rug, also reading matter. A public opening exhibition will be given in the near future at the gymnasium. Rev. Mr. Calvert has been appointed chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Mrs. James McClung was called to Greely Center, Neb., last week by the death of her father, a pioneer of the state and nearly 90 years old. Mrs. Will Ellis of Crete and Miss Rachel Stander of Louisville, Neb., have been recent guests at the J. Calvert home.

Mrs. G. L. Musk entertained at dinner last Friday evening in honor of Mr. Musk's birthday. Covers were laid for seven guests. Miss Minnie Dien of Irvington, who has many friends here, was married last Wednesday to Mr. Alfred Williams, also of Irvington.

Mrs. G. R. Williams was tendered a surprise by a number of her friends on the evening of February 1, in honor of her seventy-first birthday anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Moulthrop entertained the Methodist church choir last Thursday evening after the practice. A social hour was had and lunch was served.

South Side Social Gossip

Dr. C. M. Day is at West Side, Ia., for a few days on business. Mrs. V. Smith and son are visiting at Shenandoah, Ia., with Mrs. C. E. Briggs.

Mrs. George F. Copper spent Sunday with his family. Mr. Copper is now in the land office at Lincoln. Mrs. John R. Hughes spent a few days at David City this week, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Parker of Garden Plain, Ill., were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Day for several days last week. They are enroute to Los Angeles to spend the winter.

Mrs. F. W. Black is home from the Nicholas Senn hospital, much improved in health. Mrs. Wesley Way is convalescent after a serious illness.

Miss Lillian Brooker is now teaching school near Wayne, Neb. Mrs. Wilbur Garrabrant of Funk, Neb., is convalescent at Lord Lister hospital after a serious operation.

Mr. Garrabrant is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Copper during his wife's illness. Mrs. William Berry will entertain the P. E. O. society Saturday afternoon.

On Tuesday the South Omaha Woman's club will meet at library hall at Twenty-third and M streets. On Tuesday evening the Mystic Workers will give a high-five party at the Odd Fellows hall, Twenty-fourth and M streets.

The Jolly Dozen held a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Earl Burke Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Dawson, Twenty-fourth and A streets.

The New Century club met last week at the home of Mrs. Robert Moorehead. The Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church was entertained at the home of Mrs. W. E. Philby, 2514 H street, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. M. Snodgrass assisted the hostess. The meeting took the form of a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Albert Porter, who leaves soon with Rev. Mr. Porter to make her home in Brookings, S. D.

Mrs. Porter was presented with an electric library lamp as a farewell token. Messdames Banner, Shields and McBurney were guests of the afternoon. The Aid society of the Grace Methodist church was entertained Wednesday at the home of the Rev. C. C. Wilson.

The Home Missionary society of the Grace Methodist church will be entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. G. Ingraham, 2312 South Twenty-fourth street. Mrs. Charles Martin will assist the hostess. The society is studying the southern California missions and the Friday program will be in charge of Mrs. Bertha Clark Hughes, who visited these missions when she was on the coast last year.

At a Great Sacrifice. I will sell my new American Encyclopedia, in 22 volumes, bound in genuine Morocco, India paper. Call at 615 Bee Bldg., or Phone Tyler 1821.

Omaha's Greatest Hotel. The Spirit of Good Service. And Unequaled Facilities For Its Accomplishment. Add to these an unrivaled location. Consider this. HOTEL FONTENELLE is the largest and safest hotel structure in OMAHA and you understand why it is the Most talked about and most popular hotel in Omaha today. PRICES NOTABLY MODERATE. Management John F. Letton.

THE OFFICE OF THE OMAHA LOAN AND BUILDING ASSOCIATION Will Be Closed MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12TH, 1917. LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY—LEGAL HOLIDAY. Thrift accounts may be opened on any other day of the week. One dollar opens the account. Real estate loans at the lowest building and loan association rate in the city. NO COMMISSION. Office—Northwest corner 15th and Dodge Streets.

THE OFFICE OF THIS ASSOCIATION WILL BE CLOSED Monday, February 12th, Lincoln's birthday and Thursday, February 22d, Washington's birthday, both being legal holidays. The office will be open all other business days for our members and the reception of new THRIFT accounts. $1.00 will start you. ARE YOU READING THE TEN COMMANDMENTS? You will find them in the Omaha and Council Bluffs street cars. The Conservative Savings & Loan Ass'n. 1614 Harney Street, Omaha, Neb. Resources, $13,000,000.00. Reserve, $350,000.00.

Ever Stop To Think. That you spend more money on frivolities than in taking care of your health? If you do you will see that it pays to buy your health. Brown Park Mineral Baths will keep you in good condition and ward off sickness. COME THIS WEEK. The famous Sulphur-Chlorine Mineral Water is delivered in five-gallon jugs, $1.65—90c refunded when jug is returned. BROWN PARK MINERAL SPRINGS. DR. JOHN A. NIEMANN, Osteopathic Physician in Charge.

TARPON INN. TARPON SPRINGS, FLORIDA. GOLF Northern Cooking Booklet. Every Southern Sport. G. F. BALDWIN, Mgr.

South Side Social Gossip

Dr. C. M. Day is at West Side, Ia., for a few days on business. Mrs. V. Smith and son are visiting at Shenandoah, Ia., with Mrs. C. E. Briggs.

Mrs. George F. Copper spent Sunday with his family. Mr. Copper is now in the land office at Lincoln. Mrs. John R. Hughes spent a few days at David City this week, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Parker of Garden Plain, Ill., were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Day for several days last week. They are enroute to Los Angeles to spend the winter.

Mrs. F. W. Black is home from the Nicholas Senn hospital, much improved in health. Mrs. Wesley Way is convalescent after a serious illness.

Miss Lillian Brooker is now teaching school near Wayne, Neb. Mrs. Wilbur Garrabrant of Funk, Neb., is convalescent at Lord Lister hospital after a serious operation.

Mr. Garrabrant is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Copper during his wife's illness. Mrs. William Berry will entertain the P. E. O. society Saturday afternoon.

On Tuesday the South Omaha Woman's club will meet at library hall at Twenty-third and M streets. On Tuesday evening the Mystic Workers will give a high-five party at the Odd Fellows hall, Twenty-fourth and M streets.

The Jolly Dozen held a surprise party in honor of Mrs. Earl Burke Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Dawson, Twenty-fourth and A streets.

The New Century club met last week at the home of Mrs. Robert Moorehead. The Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church was entertained at the home of Mrs. W. E. Philby, 2514 H street, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. M. Snodgrass assisted the hostess. The meeting took the form of a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Albert Porter, who leaves soon with Rev. Mr. Porter to make her home in Brookings, S. D.

Mrs. Porter was presented with an electric library lamp as a farewell token. Messdames Banner, Shields and McBurney were guests of the afternoon. The Aid society of the Grace Methodist church was entertained Wednesday at the home of the Rev. C. C. Wilson.

The Home Missionary society of the Grace Methodist church will be entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. G. Ingraham, 2312 South Twenty-fourth street. Mrs. Charles Martin will assist the hostess. The society is studying the southern California missions and the Friday program will be in charge of Mrs. Bertha Clark Hughes, who visited these missions when she was on the coast last year.

At a Great Sacrifice. I will sell my new American Encyclopedia, in 22 volumes, bound in genuine Morocco, India paper. Call at 615 Bee Bldg., or Phone Tyler 1821.

Omaha's Greatest Hotel. The Spirit of Good Service. And Unequaled Facilities For Its Accomplishment. Add to these an unrivaled location. Consider this. HOTEL FONTENELLE is the largest and safest hotel structure in OMAHA and you understand why it is the Most talked about and most popular hotel in Omaha today. PRICES NOTABLY MODERATE. Management John F. Letton.

THE OFFICE OF THE OMAHA LOAN AND BUILDING ASSOCIATION Will Be Closed MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12TH, 1917. LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY—LEGAL HOLIDAY. Thrift accounts may be opened on any other day of the week. One dollar opens the account. Real estate loans at the lowest building and loan association rate in the city. NO COMMISSION. Office—Northwest corner 15th and Dodge Streets.

THE OFFICE OF THIS ASSOCIATION WILL BE CLOSED Monday, February 12th, Lincoln's birthday and Thursday, February 22d, Washington's birthday, both being legal holidays. The office will be open all other business days for our members and the reception of new THRIFT accounts. $1.00 will start you. ARE YOU READING THE TEN COMMANDMENTS? You will find them in the Omaha and Council Bluffs street cars. The Conservative Savings & Loan Ass'n. 1614 Harney Street, Omaha, Neb. Resources, $13,000,000.00. Reserve, $350,000.00.

Ever Stop To Think. That you spend more money on frivolities than in taking care of your health? If you do you will see that it pays to buy your health. Brown Park Mineral Baths will keep you in good condition and ward off sickness. COME THIS WEEK. The famous Sulphur-Chlorine Mineral Water is delivered in five-gallon jugs, $1.65—90c refunded when jug is returned. BROWN PARK MINERAL SPRINGS. DR. JOHN A. NIEMANN, Osteopathic Physician in Charge.

TARPON INN. TARPON SPRINGS, FLORIDA. GOLF Northern Cooking Booklet. Every Southern Sport. G. F. BALDWIN, Mgr.

Dundee Society Notes

D. L. Johnston was in Ohio on business last week. Mrs. Arthur Darby and daughter, Ione, of Washington, was the guest the last week of Mrs. F. W. Carmichael.

Mrs. D. L. Johnston's Bible class met Thursday morning with Mrs. Royal Miller. It meets this week with Mrs. J. W. Marshall.

The Young Married People's club gave a dance on Thursday evening at Harte hall. The annual musical of the Ladies' Aid society of the Dundee church was given Friday evening at the home of Mrs. John Harte. Those taking part were the Misses Mary Johnston, Marguerite Scharpless, Emily Wentworth, Edna May Grove and Mrs. F. C. Hill.

The Women's class in the Dundee Sunday school met Friday afternoon at the home of the leader, Mrs. D. L.

Thompson-Belden Buyers Now in New York City

C. C. Belden of Thompson, Belden & Co. is now in the east on a three weeks' business trip. He will meet the company's buyers in New York and supervise their spring buying. Robert Nicoll of the ready-to-wear, W. W. P. Horne of the linens, George Hazen of woolsens and silks and Miss Isabelle Rhodes of the women's furnishings and gloves are now in New York, where they expect to remain until purchases have been completed.

Johnston, for a business and social session. W. S. Wright and sister, Miss Wright, left Tuesday for southern California to remain for about two months. Mr. and Mrs. Sterford of Nebraska City were guests over night Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Templeton.

Snow's Liniment—Kills Pain. Is the greatest pain killer ever discovered simply laid on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives pain away. All druggists—Advertisement.

Lincoln Omaha Denver. $9.00 Novelty Boots $4.95. Havana browns, with light colored buck tops, grey buck. Grey kid vamps with white kid tops and others. A variety of over TWENTY newest possible combinations, many just in, others not over thirty days old. Full run of sizes. We can fit you. BE SURE TO COME UP MONDAY. At a Great Sacrifice. I will sell my new American Encyclopedia, in 22 volumes, bound in genuine Morocco, India paper. Call at 615 Bee Bldg., or Phone Tyler 1821.

Omaha's Greatest Hotel. The Spirit of Good Service. And Unequaled Facilities For Its Accomplishment. Add to these an unrivaled location. Consider this. HOTEL FONTENELLE is the largest and safest hotel structure in OMAHA and you understand why it is the Most talked about and most popular hotel in Omaha today. PRICES NOTABLY MODERATE. Management John F. Letton.

THE OFFICE OF THE OMAHA LOAN AND BUILDING ASSOCIATION Will Be Closed MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12TH, 1917. LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY—LEGAL HOLIDAY. Thrift accounts may be opened on any other day of the week. One dollar opens the account. Real estate loans at the lowest building and loan association rate in the city. NO COMMISSION. Office—Northwest corner 15th and Dodge Streets.

THE OFFICE OF THIS ASSOCIATION WILL BE CLOSED Monday, February 12th, Lincoln's birthday and Thursday, February 22d, Washington's birthday, both being legal holidays. The office will be open all other business days for our members and the reception of new THRIFT accounts. $1.00 will start you. ARE YOU READING THE TEN COMMANDMENTS? You will find them in the Omaha and Council Bluffs street cars. The Conservative Savings & Loan Ass'n. 1614 Harney Street, Omaha, Neb. Resources, $13,000,000.00. Reserve, $350,000.00.