

LANSING SENDS SHARP NOTE TO CUBA

U. S. Will Not Recognize Any Government Established by Revolt.

TROOPS JOIN THE REBELS

Washington, Feb. 14.—Secretary Lansing sent to the Cuban people today a warning that any government that might be established by revolt could not be recognized by the United States.

Intervention by the United States is contemplated with reluctance, but the intimation has been conveyed to President Menocal and to the leaders of the uprising that such a step may be taken if it becomes necessary. The message to the Cuban people was sent to Minister Gonzales and to all American consuls with instructions that it be given widest publicity.

Menocal Expects Settlement.
President Menocal has declared that he has no doubt of his ability to confine the rebellion to a small area. He has also explained that it is his conviction that the special election being held today in Santa Clara province will be accepted as the solution of the electoral deadlock, which brought about the revolt.

Minister Gonzales in messages to the State department has confirmed the report that a part of the garrisons in Camaguey has joined in the revolt and that grave fear is felt that the administration may not be able to suppress the movement.

The character of the message sent to the Cuban people was practically the same as that enunciated by President Wilson at the overthrow of the Madero government in Mexico. It was pointed out that the policy of the American government announced then, not to recognize as legal any government that came into power by violence, was exchanged.

Troops Join Revolutionists.

Havana, Feb. 14.—President Menocal is reliably quoted as admitting that troops are in revolt in Camaguey province. The insurgents will be attacked by a heavy force, under Colonel Figueroa and Colazo.

The small group of rebels in Cienfuegos province clashed with loyal troops yesterday afternoon. The rebels lost seven killed and several wounded. Five or six minor encounters between rurales and rebels have also been reported from various points. El Mundo quotes President Menocal as saying that the yacht Julito, owned by former President Gomez, has been captured near Cardella, in Santa Clara province, by the captain of the port, who will be attacked by a heavy force.

U. S. SOLDIERS CROSS BORDER AFTER RAIDERS

border, cavalry troops will cross in an effort to rescue them.

Raid Monday Afternoon.

Eugene Romney, a relative of one of the missing Mormon cowboys, said today the Mexican raiders crossed the border into the United States Monday afternoon after cutting the line fence. The raid occurred, he said, soon after a troop of the Twelfth cavalry had passed by on patrol duty. The Mexican raiders rode to the Corner ranch, sixty miles southeast of Hachita, ordered all Mexicans employed there to join their band, took cattle and horses and then went in search of the three Mormon cowboys, who were out on the range rounding up cattle, Romney said. The raiders were believed to have obtained their information as to the whereabouts of the cowboys from the Mexican ranch hands.

Other Raid By Miranda.

Romney said he obtained his information of the raid from Lem Spillsbury, the Mormon scout with General Pershing in Mexico, who was at Carrizal and who was taken prisoner, together with negro cavalrymen, by de facto troops. Spillsbury has a ranch a short distance from the Corner ranch, which is owned by the Palmas Land and Cattle company, an American company.

The raid Monday followed a raid at the Nogales camp, forty miles south of the border, which occurred on February 10, according to information received here. This raid also was made by Miranda's command, cattlemen here believe. Ten horses were killed and a large quantity of stock and supplies taken there. This ranch is also owned by Americans.

Cut International Fence.

The Mexicans cut the international fence in making their raid. They were led, according to reports here, by Prudencio Miranda, a semi-independent leader allied to Villa.

The "Corner" ranch, or "Richardson's" ranch, as it is known in southern New Mexico, is located in an angle formed by the international boundary which runs directly south from a point half way between Columbus and Hachita, then turns at right angles westward. The ranch is about sixty miles southwest of Columbus and an equal distance from Hachita. This angle in the border has been the scene of a number of raids during the last five years. At Lone Cabin, between Columbus and the Corner ranch, Mexicans crossed prior to the Columbus raid, fought a skirmish with American soldiers and fled back across the border. Raids have also been made at Dog Springs and near Lang's ranch.

"Death Troop" Entains.

Juarez, Mexico, Feb. 14.—Two hundred of the "death troop" of General Jose Carlos Murguia's command entrained today to go to the Casas Grandes district in pursuit of Villa troops operating in that district. General Murguia announced today he would lead the command in person and would take 500 men into the field with him.

Telegraphic reports received at military headquarters from Casas Grandes and intermediate points along the Mexican Northwestern railroad say the Villa followers have left the vicinity of the railroad line and have moved into the district recently occupied by General Pershing's troops

German Official Version of Proposal Made to Washington

London, Feb. 14.—The German official version of the proposals made through the Swiss minister in Washington for a conference on submarine questions is given in the following official telegram, says Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent.

"What lies at the bottom of this report is the following:

"A telegram from the Swiss minister in Washington was transmitted to Germany by Switzerland, in which the minister offered, if Germany was agreeable, to mediate in negotiations with the American government about the declaration of prohibited areas, as thereby the danger of war between Germany and the United States might be diminished.

"The Swiss government was then requested to inform its minister at Washington that Germany, as before, was ready to negotiate with America in case the commerce barrier against our enemies remained untouched. "As is obvious, Germany could only have entered into such negotiations on condition that, firstly, diplomatic relations between America and Germany should be restored and secondly, that the object of the negotiations could only be certain concessions respecting American passenger ships.

"The interdiction of overseas imports proclaimed against our enemies through unrestricted submarine warfare would thus, even if diplomatic relations with America were restored, be in no circumstances relaxed.

"The reply of the Swiss minister at Washington expressed very clearly that in the resolute carrying out of our U-boat war against the entire overseas import of our enemies there is for us no turning back."

police attached little importance. A young man tried to approach the party and was seized by detectives who hurried him to police headquarters. He said he was Alfred Hopkins, 19 years old, of New York City and had been given a letter by a man in that city who instructed him to hand it to the ambassador. A letter was found on him, together with a horoscope and writings of astrology and astronomy. The police took possession of these and telephoned for Hopkins' relatives to come to Hoboken. The prisoner refused to tell the name of the man who gave him the letter. He said that his sole object in coming here was to deliver the letter.

Ready for Examination.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 14.—One hundred government officials and inspectors arrived here today from Ottawa to take part in the examination of the steamer Frederik VIII, which will stop at this port on its way to Copenhagen with Count von Bernstorff and his suite. The steamer, which is expected to arrive here Friday, will not enter the harbor until after midnight government officials said and will also depart at night.

Unusual precautions are being taken to guard the members of the party during their stay here. The steamer will not stop at Quarantine, but will enter the harbor and naval patrol boats will escort it to an anchorage near shore.

It was announced that examination of the cargo would begin immediately upon the steamer's arrival to determine whether the Frederik VIII carried contraband.

Enos Mills to Lecture

At First Methodist Church

STEAMSHIP RYNDAM BACK AT NEW YORK

Adriatic and Carmania, Which Sailed from New York to Liverpool, Arrive Safely.

NEW ROUTE FROM SWEDEN

New York, Feb. 14.—Germany's unrestricted submarine warfare resulted in the return today of the Dutch steamship Ryndam to this port. Its arrival was coincident with announcements that the British liner Adriatic, carrying one American citizen, had arrived safely in England and that a Swedish passenger vessel, the Stockholm, would sail from here February 16 by way of Halifax for Scandinavian ports on a route outside the U-boat zone.

The Ryndam, a Holland-American liner, came back after a 6,000-mile voyage because its captain, William Kohl, changed his mind about continuing after receiving wireless information from the government station at Arlington, Va., about Germany's renewed submarine activities.

Officials of the International Mercantile Marine said word was still being awaited from Washington regarding arming of merchant liners before a decision was reached as to whether the St. Louis and other American liners would be allowed to leave port.

The United States army transport Kilpatrick arrived here today from the Canal Zone, bringing ten canal workers, who are Germans. According to a quarantine physician who visited the ship before it docked, the Germans came as prisoners, locked in cabins. It was expected they would be taken to Ellis Island.

The Cunard line steamship Carmania, which left here February 4 with passengers and cargo for Liverpool, has arrived safely, according to cable information to the line here today. The date of its arrival was not given.

AUSTRIA STANDS BY RUTHLESS WARFARE

marooned Americans detained in Asia Minor. Since the break with Germany no word has been allowed to reach this country either from Constantinople or Sofia.

It developed today that the naval collier Caesar, loaded with a quarter of a million dollars' worth of food supplies contributed by Americans for Syrians and Armenians, and the cruiser Des Moines, with a cargo of medical supplies, both bound for Beirut, have been ordered held at Alexandria indefinitely by the Navy department.

After the break with Germany officials here decided it was essential to keep the two vessels from entering a Turkish port until sufficient guarantee had been obtained that they would come to no harm.

Much surprise exists here over the cutting off of all communication with Turkey and Bulgaria, where the United States is responsible not only for extensive American interests, but also is representing some of the belligerent powers.

Americans Detained Year.

The plight of the thousand Americans who have been detained more than a year by the Turkish military authorities, despite assurances of the Turkish foreign office that they would be released, is arousing alarm here because the whole section is largely destitute of food and is known to be infected with disease.

Turkey, after peremptory demands, agreed to allow the Americans to leave, but the Turkish military director there refused for a long time on the ground that the refugees would take away military information.

Both the Des Moines and the Caesar were enroute to rescue the Americans when the break with Germany threw all the arrangements into confusion. Intimations also have been received that the Turks intended to hamper or totally prevent distribution of the Caesar's relief supplies if they could.

Important Witnesses in Leak Inquiry Leave City

New York, Feb. 14.—When the congressional committee investigating the "leak" of President Wilson's peace note resumed its sessions here today it was baffled in its search for further information in regard to the manner in which E. F. Hutton & Co. obtained advance information on the note owing to the absence of members of the firm who were wanted as witnesses.

George E. Ellis, one of the members, testified that Mr. Hutton had gone to Florida on a vacation and that H. J. Barrett, another member, was ill in Memphis, Tenn. The witness denied insinuations that his firm had sought to avoid the inquiry and promised to get in touch with his partners by telegraph.

Ellis in his testimony today said he has been unable to locate the telegram from Connolly & Co. to the Hutton firm in which the latter based its forecast of the peace note, which was sent by wire to its correspondents. Ellis' initials were signed to this message.
