Hogs—The hog supply amounted to about 115 cars, or 15,569 head; marked 115 cars, or 15,569 head, being less than half as large as for the corresponding day a west ago and much smaller than for the two preceding days this week. a provisit ump buyers started out of fering lower prices. Seilera however, could see no good reasons for making concessions, but believed that if anything the market ought to be stronger, as supplies were rather moderate compared with most of the runs during the last ten days. Shippers were buying rather freely and prices attely have been, if anything, a little low compared with other markets on account of the heavy runs here. By midforenoon some of the buyers had rathed their hands a little and movement started on a steady to be higher hasis, though, as was the case, ward about getting in and before long tentiled down to about a steady market for desirable hots.

Before anything like a clearance had been made the domand seemed to go to plees altogether. Sellers found hids with the desirable hots.

Before anything like a clearance had seen made the domand seemed to go to plees altogether. Sellers found hids with drawn and the next offers they got showed for good hogs as much as the below only. A little stuff was selling that way, but most sellers who had decent hogs left had refused to cut loose at such great declines.

On common mixed and underweight hogs it was the same old story. A few sold early at satisfactory prices, but lawyers left most of them for the close, when they were wanted only at big reductions or not at all.

Sheep—One of the largest sheep and lamb runs that has been here so far this year put in its appearance this mening, when some eighty-nine loads, or 11,000 head, were reported in. This brings the supply for the four days up to 61,871 head, as against 15,572 head last week, 45,542 two weeks ago find 3,698 hast year.

The outlook was bearish from the start today. Chicago had a fair supply and reported lower prices at the opening, while most of the local packers report their coolers full of mutton, and with refragerator care on spening rounds.

New York, Peb. 15.—All records for duitness since the stagmant aessions of last summer were surpassed today, total dealing amounting only to 29,000 shares. Of this amount one-third occurred in the first hour, the later periods being marked by frequent pauses.

Price movements were in keeping with this state of inertia, standard stocks drifting slowly downward while speculative issues were more variable. Leading industrials, including United States atted, yielded 1 to 2 points, smillar tendencies being manifessied by most of the equipments and munitions with a 10-point break in Bethebem Sites (old stock), on a single transaction.

Notices, metals and utilities made extreme recessions of 1 to 3 points, gas shares once more showing conspicuous weakness with other insues of less definite strength.
