WAZAMATTER, MEN? WATCH THE WOMEN

Why Buy Eggs for the Ladies When Frenchmen Win 'Em With a Glance?

TRIUMPH OF "ZOSE TEAS"

By A. R. GROH.

"Oh, those fascinating French-men!" exclaims Mellificia in her society column of yesterday. "How many hearts of our young girls are palpitating at the thought of the 'distingue' foreigners!"

What do you think of that, men of Omaha?

And that isn't all, either. Melli-cia's interesting article continues thus:

"'Cultivating the gentlemen!' said one charming matron. Why, my dear, all the girls are perfectly crazy about all the girls are perfectly crazy about them."

Think of that, you husbands and would be husbands of Omaha, you who lavish your money in buying silks and satins and georgette crepe waists and diamonds and pearl neck-laces and potatoes and eggs and other luxuries for these same fair creatures.

And what is your reward? It is to sit, powerless, and see the ladies hearts palpitating over "these fascinating Frenchmen," (who are here in the interest of war relief), to see the girls going "perfectly crazy" over the "distingue foreigners."

We read, further, that "the detonair gentlemen are proving perfectly delightful lions for the afternoon teas."

How's Your Heart?

Doesn't it make your hearts paipi-ite? Doesn't it make you perfect-crazy?

tate? Doesn't it make you perfectly crazy?

Later on we learn that one of the Frenchmen, remarking upon the pleasant teas at which they are being entertained, "contented himself with saying, 'Ah, zose teas!"

Some "bon mot," eh? "Ah, zose teas!" When it comes to bon motting we can certainly beat that.

But what is the matter with us, men of Quaha? We do well to ask ourselves this question. We are confronted by a condition, not a theory, as the late President Cleveland so aptly remarked.

Why can't we make the ladies' hearts palpitate and make them perfectly crazy ourselves?

It cannot be denied that their hearts do palpitate and that they are perfectly crazy ourselves?

It cannot be denied that their hearts do palpitate and that they are perfectly crazy about the "distingue foreigners." Mellificia has said it. The charming young matron has said it.

The Lure of Love.

The Lure of Love.

These French gentlemen have got a fascination about them. There a no use in trying to close our eyes to that fact. Whether it's the curl they give their moustaches or the flash of their dark eyes or their perfectly barbered and cravatted and waist-coated and gloved appearance. I don't know. It isn't their clothes. The cut of Frenchmen's clothes is beautiful. And French shoes are abominable.

Maybe it's the suavity of their manners, their deference, their natural polish and inborn grace, their perfectly mastery of all the niceties of society.

In beauty and wit we are their equals. Indeed, yes. All we need to do is fix up a bit and always be perfectly, ah, messieurs, exquisitely groomed.

We must do something. We can't let these nice Frenchmen come in here and set all the girls' hearts pal-groomed.

We must do something. We can't let these nice Frenchmen come in here and set all the girls' hearts papitating and making them perfectly crazy. We simply can't do it.

"Ah, zose teas!"

New Concern for Omaha to Employ cinb. Acticles of incorporation are heing filed. The capital stock is $100,000.

The deal really represents the bodily moving to Omaha of the plant of the Nelson corporation of Chicago, with the addition of some new blood in the stockholders. The company is a manufacturer of loose leaf books. The plant is to be moved to Omaha within the next sixty days. The incorporators are Frank E. Rudolph, R. B. Busch, Albert R. Busch, C. R. Nelson, L. W. Carpenter and C. S. Montgomery. The officers just elected at the meeting of the stockholders are as follows: C. R. Nelson, Chicago, president; Frank E. Rudolph, vice president; Frank E. Rudolph, vice president and general manager; Albert R. Busch, secretary and treasurer. Mr. Rudolph and Mr. Gillan, industrial secretary of the Commerical club, have gone to Chicago to pay over the money and take a complete inventory of the machinery and stock. Owing to the fact that this is a going concern, it will be impossible to slight down the plant in Chicago in partially equipped, for the reason that there is much partially completed work and a vast amount of orders that must be taken care of, This new factory will employ at the outset about thirty men and the number will be increased as the plant expands.

An Excellent Remedy for Coughs and Colds.

You will look a good while before you find a better preparation for coughs and colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. George Bryant, Charleston, Ill., in speaking of this preparation, says: "My husband caught a hard cold that settled on his lungs, and he coughed terribly. A neighbor advised him to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He bought a bottle of it at the drug store and the first dose relieved him. Before he had taken the contents of the one bottle his cough and cold had entirely disappeared."—Advertisement.

POLICE SCHOOL FOR AUTO DRIVERS

Commissioner Kugel Details Two Traffic Officers to Teach "Safety First."

POWELL WORKS WITH HIM

"Safety first" principles will be preached to visitors at the twelfth annual Omalia Automobile exposition, which will be held at the Auditorium February 26 to March 3, with the aid of a safety first bureau, which will be jointly conducted by the Automobile Show association and the Omaha police department.

Clarke Powell, manager of the exhibition, has arranged with Commissioner of Police Kugel to have two traffic officers in constant attendance at the show. They will have a desk and condensed pamphlets containing the pre-eminent traffic laws of the city and the state will be distributed. The officers also will an-distributed. The officers also will answer questions.

The safety first hureau will be conducted primarily to familiarize Nebraska automobile ywiers with the laws governing their conduct while at the wheels of their cars. It is sadly true that too few motor car owners and drivers have even a working knowledge of the laws. These pamphlets will explain them perfectly, and it is the belief of the members of the show association and the dity police department that the the city police department that the number of accidents would be ma-terially reduced if all car owners only were familiar with the traffic laws.

Western Shipyards Are Being Worked to Limit

Secretary Seroy of City Commissioner Kugel's office received a letter from a brother in Portland, Ore., stating that seven large ship yards along the Columbia river are being worked to the limit. He wrote that thousands of men are employed at these yards.
