Polly the Shopper

Joy be! Rose Tapley from the Vitagraph studio, whom everyone loves and adores on the screen, is going to give us the opportunity of seeing her own, really truly self this afternoon and evening at the Music Theatre. She will give a little talk about just the kind of pictures people care for, and "Script and Screen," the one-act film, will be shown. You'll certainly want to be there!

Don't forget to tell your friends about the news in Polly's column.

Take special note of this! The A. Hoopes Co. has the following articles, formerly priced as high as $4.00, on sale for $1.69 this week: Beautiful picture frames, night lamps, love lamps, candle-sticks, Sheffield silver, smother sets and vases. Such wonderful bargains in pretty things for your home! If out of town, I'll be glad to select one of these $1.69 prices for you if you'll clip this item. Mr. Hoopes has generously offered to pay the express or mail.

The sports parson matches the sports hat and skirt.

You should see the wonderful new silks shown at Thompson-Belden's in the Dress Silk Dept. There are new patterns in silk with coin dots and wiggly rainbow stripes, silk radium with Cinderella dots, and that stunning sports material, Silk la Jera. You'll go into ecstasies over the bewildering new shades—Rivers, turquoise, powder gray, Roman rose, fiery green, citrus green and other pretty colors. But then you'll want to see all the beautiful new silks before planning your Spring outfit.

Cherish! I've something to tell you! The Omaha Record, Exchange, 1212 W. O. W. Bldg., furnishes phonograph records in exchange for old ones, or will sell you records. Write them for more about this new idea.

Glassed flowers and velvet are much in demand for Spring hats.

DRAHON-LITTING certainly excel in their nice line of trim tailored hats for street wear, in such exclusive makes as Hyland, Knox and Gage. The hats are so soft this season they make you think of lectures on art.

DONT be worried about your superfluous hair—Miss Johnston of the Comfort Shop assures me that she can satisfactorily remove hair-moles or other blemishes with her electrolytic treatment. And, remember, if you are footsore and weary, The Comfort Shop, Room 1122, makes a specialty of chiropody.

SURPRISED! Indeed I was when I saw the price mark on those lovely fresh crepe de chine blouses at The Haas Sample Suit Shop. Think of it! Only $2.95—and such good quality! White, flesh, Nile Green, gold and maize are the shades. Balcony floor, Fashion Bk.

IT'S quite puzzling at times to know just the most appropriate gift for a baby shower. Let me suggest your going to Hanson, Thorne's when you're making a selection, for they have some decidedly new novelties. A big wooden spoon, hand-painted design in blue and red, wrapped with ribbon, has hooks on which to hang baby's dainty garments. Priced $1.95. Sachets with pretty verse for $1.

Creepers for babies are made so attractively nowadays, with touches of handwork—some with smocking in color.

BY THE way, I do want to call your attention to the new strictly tailored blouses of madras, dimity and linen. Thompson-Belden's are selling for $2.95. Just what we business women like, because they are neat and stylish and so easily laundered. I noted some pretty yellow waists with fine tucks and dainty edgings that were exceptional for $1.95.

MOTHERS who like to dress their youngsters in smart garments will do well to visit A. T. Benson's Specialty Shop, 1211 Farnam, and see the pretty Elzabeth, Miss dress which is made of silk—so cleverly designed are these little frocks with dainty touches of handwork and in the wonderful new shades of apple-green, suede-brown, besides navy, tan and blue. Nippon crepe—so attractive as well as practical—and linen are the brilliant new shades are especially distinctive.

THE effective grouping of blooming plants in Larned's flower windows makes one instinctively want to go inside and admire the lovely flowers and sniff the fragrant perfume. A girl would just adore a box of roses, violets or Spring blossoms! Tip "Mr. Man" off to the fact that Lee Larned—Monteclair Florist—always has the most beautiful, freshest and colorful flowers in Omaha.

SUCH a boon! Stout women who cannot be fitted in the stores may have neatly made brassiere and nifty tailored petticoats made to order for $1.50 up at The Linergic Shop—109 Des Moines—and, oh! I mustn't forget to tell you about the nice house gowns with cape to match for $1.75.

SPEAKING about apparel for stout women, I am reminded of a marvelous new corset, recently transformed by Miss Boone corset and now she carries herself with dignity quite gracefully. The new Corset is in the Kirtchick Block, No. 285, should you care to know.

OH, but I've got some beauties to show! Claim my pleasant little friend at the Waist Section of Benson & Thorne's, when I want to inquire about blouses the other day—and, indeed, they were positive beauties! A lovely two-tone effect of gray and coral Georgette, with a wide, wide, wide collar, with a corn button, for $7.75, made me wish it for my very own. This exquisite blouse also comes in combinations of blue and rose, turquoise and taupe, and maize and rose. A similar little blouse with a frilly effect for $4.45.

WHERE shall I get my embroidery done? The Ideal Button and Finishing Co. has an expert operator, who does beautiful work in all the latest materials. Embroidery is so good now. It's well to remember a shop whose work you can so well rely on.

MRS. SMITH, at the Alfa Shop, 301 S. 15th St., showed me some aprons and wall coverings—write to me or to Orchard & Wilhelm's direct, and you will receive promptly the rug or your choice. Think what this service means—you can save a trip to the city and still be able to select what you want.

UT-OF-TOWN women, living in small towns or the country, should be delighted with Orchard & Wilhelm's new plan, to enable them to select their rugs in their own homes. This is the idea: They will send, on request, a small folder of sets in perfect coloring and design, of their line of Hartford Saxony rugs. Select the rug you desire to match your draperies and wall covering—write to me or to Orchard & Wilhelm's direct, and you will receive promptly the rug or your choice. Think what this service means—you can save a trip to the city and still be able to select what you want.

The new collars for Spring come in pongee and Georgette, with wide hemstitch and hand embroidery.

ELEGANCE typifies the new blouses in rich shades of gold and blue, with pockets and collar of solid Chinese embroidery—after the fashion-Belden's. And if one's mind runs to daintier fabrics those Georgette blouses in garden smock effect in the
