HOGS TAKE HIGH GEAR AND MOUNT

Twelve-Sixty-Five Is Paid at Omaha Yards for One Load on Wednesday.

FIFTEEN DOLLARS SOON

His Highness, the Hog

Four days this week... Fifteen-cent hogs? Quite likely, and very soon.

What has started this climb in hogs, and what supports it, is mystifying the commission men.

Shortage of Hogs Alleged. Over at Chicago some of the commission men allege a shortage of a million head of hogs at the eleven principal markets.

Export of Pork Products. Exports of pork products, except bacon, do not show such increase as to account for the uplift in prices.

Foreigner Is Also Paying. That the foreigner is also contributing to the joy ride the porker is taking, is shown by the prices of the shipments abroad in December, which are recorded as:

Provision Prices Overtaken. A year ago the spread between the price of hogs and the figures for provisions was considerably greater in proportion than it is today.

Colds Are Infectious. Coughs and colds may be communicated from one person to another. That's the reason why over half the population have colds and sneezes that number are absent from work on account of colds.

Triplets Come to Brighten the Little Home of Tony Scapellato

TONY SCAPELLATO WITH SEBASTIANA, PROVIDENZA AND FORTUNATA.

In a dingy rear room at 1215 Pierce street, the already sizable family of Tony Scapellato is rejoicing over the arrival of three more babies.

Birth control does not interest Mrs. Scapellato, who is very proud of her black-eyed babies. Tony said he was strong and had a job, when mention was made of the H. C. L.

Unable to talk much English, Tony surrounded the triplet with broad arms and merely chuckled his pride, Sebastiana, one of the tiny trio, stared with rapt attention at Herman Schonfeld, the Bee photographer, while the picture was made.

Four neighbor women are helping in relays to care for the new arrivals. Mrs. Jennie Saragosa, 1213 Pierce street, says it keeps them all busy. Other helpers are Mrs. Sebastiana

Phonograph Records Can't Enter Germany

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 22.—On the grounds that talking machine records might carry code messages containing valuable information for the German military authorities, while the material of which they are made might be used to help relieve Germany's hard rubber scarcity, a large quantity of such records found in possession of the German officials returning home from the United States on the Frederik VIII will be confiscated by the British authorities, it was learned here today.

Catalano, Mrs. Tribulata Lucia and Mrs. Troia Bastiano.

Tony is becoming an American citizen. He first came to America from his native land about ten years ago. After living here four years, he returned to Italy, married and the couple came back to Omaha, where they have lived since.
