FAST FOR Y. M. H. A.

Candy Colts Prove to Be University Chaps and Too Experienced for Locals.

BRANDEIS TROUNCE BANKS

Two basket ball games were features of an indoor athletic carnival held at the Young Men's Christian association by the Young Men's Hebrew association Thursday.

One of the basket ball contests wound up most disastrously for the Young Men's Hebrew association. The Lincoln Candy Colts came up from the capital city and walloped the local five 42 to 7. The Lincolns were university students, all much rangier, more practiced and therefore more proficient than the Hebrew quintet.

The Omahans made the first basket of the clash, but they stopped right there. The Lincoln lads were too heavy and strong and always came away with the ball after every mishap. They were given a stubborn resistance, however, and had to fight hard for every point they made. Lineup:

LINCOLN: Y. M. H. A.
Thomas (R.F.R.P.) Brown
Adler (L.F.L.P.) Schatz
Phillips (R.G.R.G.) Kalman
Adkins (R.G.R.G.) Levinson
Reynolds (L.G.L.G.) Davidson

Substitutes: Souze for Phillips, Sherman for Schatz, Levy for Kalman. Goals: Thomas (3), Adler (1), Phillips (1), Adkins (2), Reynolds (1), Brown (2), Levinson (2). Free throw: Brown. Referee: Cohn.

The other game was between the Brandeis, independent champions of Omaha, and the Omaha National bank quintet, leaders in the Commercial league. The Brandeis returned victorious to the tune of 26 to 17. Lohm, Paynter and Shepperd were the stars of the game. Shepperd did some fancy work, negotiating five field goals despite the vigilance of Bob Koran.

BRANDEIS: OMAHA NATIONALS.
Hager (R.G.R.P.) Bender
John (L.F.L.P.) Shepperd
Paynter (R.G.R.G.) Koran
Koran (R.G.R.G.) Hawick
Ritchie (L.G.L.G.) Hawkins
Substitutes: Lee for McIntosh, Field goals: Hager (3), Paynter (4), Koran (2), Ritchie (2), Bender (3), McIntosh (2). Free throw: Shepperd (2). Referee: Cohn.

During a rest period between the floor frays, Tom Ray, Omaha middle-weight professional wrestler of no mean repute, tangled with Abe Leibowitz, champion of the Young Men's Hebrew association, and Ray failed to throw his man in the ten minutes allotted for the bout. In fact Leibowitz very capably held his own with the pro.

About 250 were present.

TAYLOR WINS FIGHT FOR RURAL SCHOOLS

House Advances Measure to Third Reading After Long Session.

SENSATION IN CHARGE

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, Feb. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Making a spectacular stand for his bill to make a levy of one mill throughout the state in order to assist rural school district, W. J. Taylor, member from Custer, took the floor this afternoon and for an hour gave the house an insight into what the bill would do if it became a law.

Every session Mr. Taylor has made at least one speech along education lines which has attracted wide attention, but this time he won his point, the bill being ordered to third reading by a vote of 64 to 19. Mr. Taylor emphasized his speech by use of the blackboard.

Charges Are Numerous.

The occasion was filled with tense situations. Charges were made that attempts were being made to create dissension and bad feeling between the rural districts and the towns and when at the close of his speech Mr. Taylor charged that a man from Omaha when claimed to represent the Commercial club of that city had bill amendments, promising that he would see that the club saw to it that the entire Douglas county delegation would support it, there was agitation in that delegation.

"Who was that man," shouted Keegan.

"Jesse Palmer," replied Mr. Taylor.

"I don't think it is fair to the Douglas county delegation to assume that this man spoke with authority," said Mr. Hopkins with some warmth.

Club Never Indicated.

"I can say that the Commercial club of Omaha has never indicated to us what its wishes are regarding this bill."

"I want to say, Mr. Chairman," said Richmond, "that the young man mentioned by the gentleman from Custer was a member of the last legislature and there was not on the floor a brighter or more influential member. I have just talked with Mr. Palmer over the telephone and he desires me to say that any man who makes the charge mentioned is telling what
