Carter Lake Club Members Hold Dance At the Rome Hotel

Had the floor been a smooth body of water, and the dancers expert swimmers, the 160 members with their wives and sweethearts, could not have dipped and glided more gracefully than they did at the annual complimentary hop given by the Carter Lake club at the Hotel Rome last evening. ... While dancing was the big affair of the evening, it was by no means the feature. The latter was the special work of Miss Pauline Capps who delighted the lake dwellers during intermissions with fancy and clever glides. ... The dancing hall was profusely decorated with American flags, in recognition of Washington's birthday, and the orchestra repeatedly struck up national airs. ... D. H. Christie, A. P. Whitmore, H. Rippen and Otis Smith of the board of directors comprised the committee on arrangements.
