

Council Bluffs Social Notes

Monday Mrs. Robert Wallace entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon at her home on Bluff street. The twenty-four guests were seated at two large tables, which were decorated with jonquils. The afternoon was very delightfully spent in visiting.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Christianson entertained at a three-course dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Fort of Fortville, Ind., who are celebrating the fortieth anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Fort are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Elmer Eakin. Covers were laid for ten.

The announcement was made this week of the marriage of Mr. H. Earl Schmidt of Terre Haute, Ind., and Miss Frances Ilga Neunas of this city. The ceremony was performed August 19, 1916, by Judge Wintersteen at Fremont, Neb. The bride wished to return to college at Ames in the fall, so the young couple decided to keep the event a secret. Mr. Schmidt is a graduate of the Rose Polytechnic Institute at Terre Haute.

The study of Slav literature was resumed at the meeting of the Ideal club at the home of Mrs. Terwilliger Tuesday. The discussion of current events was led by Mrs. M. B. Moon. A very interesting review of Tolstoy's novel, "Anna Karenina," was given by Mrs. C. E. Swanson.

A very delightful tea was given by Mrs. M. A. Metzger and Mrs. G. W. Gibson Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gibson. The affair was given for the members of the Central Chapter of St. Paul's Guild. About twenty women were present.

Tuesday evening the members of the Husler's class entertained at a costume party at the Young Women's Christian association. The other girls in the "gym" class. Half of those present represented George and half Martha Washington. Both the parlor and the large gymnasium were used for the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served by the hostesses at a late hour.

Miss Irene Galloway, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Leitzinger, left Wednesday for her home in Dayton, O.

The Book Lovers met Wednesday and began the study of George Meredith's novel, "The Ordeal of Richard Feverel." Reviews and comments on the first part of the book were given by Mrs. H. A. Woodbury and Mrs. Thomas Metcalf, jr., and a general discussion followed. The selected topic, the city of New Orleans, was given by Mrs. Otis, who considered the subject from an historical standpoint. Mrs. A. P. Hanchett and Mrs. R. H. Nichols were chosen as delegates to the meeting to organize a visiting nurse association. An unusually interesting program has been planned for the next meeting, which will be held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles R. Hannan, sr. The hostesses will be Mrs. Hannan, Mrs. Charles T. Officer, Mrs. R. H. Nichols and Mrs. H. W. Tilton.

Tuesday evening Miss Gertrude Scheidle entertained the members of the H. B. club at a juvenile party. The guests were all dressed as school children. The earlier part of the evening was spent at cards. Later a two-course supper was served by the hostess. The decorations and favors were all appropriate for Washington's birthday. Following the supper the guests all enjoyed the dancing on the enclosed porch. The club will not meet again until after Lent.

Benson Social Circles

Mrs. J. H. Vick was hostess for the Blue Stocking club Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hamilton have returned from a few days' stay at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Mrs. A. C. Higbee, who has been visiting her son, J. H. Higbee, has returned to her home at Scottsbluff.

Miss Marie Maney has returned to her work in Peru normal after a few days spent at home.

Mrs. Frank Davis of Grand Junction, Colo., spent a few days last week at the S. A. Davis home.

The women of the Methodist church will serve luncheon at the church next Wednesday.

Virgil McKinstry was a guest at the C. E. Edwards home last week, while on his way from Chicago to Twin Falls, Idaho.

Mr. Anton Sorenson was surprised at his home on Wednesday evening by the Danish Brotherhood, which presented him with a gold watch.

Mrs. G. W. Palmer will give a social at her home on Friday evening for the young people, and Mrs. C. A. Johnson on Saturday evening for the older people of the Augustina Lutheran church.

Mrs. G. E. Eckstrom was hostess last Wednesday for the West Farnam Kensington club.

Mrs. L. A. Simons entertained at lunch last Wednesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kroger of Polk, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. McGlasson have left for their home in Wood River, Neb., after an extended visit at the E. A. McGlasson home.

Mrs. C. L. Carlson entertained at dinner last week in honor of Mr. A. Norton of Los Angeles.

MU SIGMA CLUB'S BIRTHDAY PARTY HOSTESS.

MRS. STELLA B. WILSON.

Thursday evening in their hall when the full initiation ceremonies were given by the team to a class of candidates. A committee served cake and coffee during the entertainment hour.

West Ambler Social Activities

Miss Mabel Larson of Minneapolis was the guest of Miss Marie Carlson.

Mrs. Harold Goll, who has been the guest the last month of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jacobsen, left Tuesday for her home at Calhoun.

Miss Bertha Gochayne left Thursday for Gordon, Neb., where she will visit on a ranch.

The homes of Mr. and Mrs. John Sokey on South Fifty-second street and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Howland on South Fifty-sixth street were both brightened Monday by sons.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Groves gave a dinner Wednesday evening in honor of their sister, Mrs. F. C. Butts, and family of Dundee.

Mrs. Hattie Edgar of Scottsbluff, Neb., will spend a few weeks with her son, Park Edgar.

Miss Ida Lehmer of Oklahoma, a former resident of West Side, is the guest of Mrs. J. Long and daughter, Mrs. Clayton Mann of Crete, Neb., is the week end guest of Mrs. John Blake.

Mrs. I. A. Miller was the guest Monday of William Aughe and family in Council Bluffs.

Misses Ruth and Clara Elmberg gave a dinner Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. H. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gilmore.

Mrs. D. Shandy will entertain the all-day meeting of the Ladies' Aid society Thursday, March 1.

Frank Kuhn arrived Friday from Mason City, Ia., to visit his sister, Mrs. Thed Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carlsen of Harlan, Ia., are the guests of Mrs. Ola Carlson.

Gay Holland and Miss Marion Elliott, only daughter of Mrs. W. W. Elliott of West Side, were married February 17.

Mrs. Joe Gilmore gave a dinner Sunday in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stewart's thirty-third wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton King had as their week end guests Mrs. Ella Wright of Lorton, Neb., and Mr. and Mrs. H. Shafer and daughter of Manly, Neb.

Mrs. W. L. Paine and son, Chauncey, of McCook, were the week end guests of Mrs. Frank Hensman.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Downing spent the week with friends at Nickerson, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wisler left Thursday for Detroit for a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. Arthur King and son Verl, her sister Mrs. M. Jacobsen, and father E. Nichart, spent the last of the week with Mrs. M. Nichart at Nebraska City.

Mrs. Frank Marshall gave a party Wednesday for the following of the Royal Neighbors of America: Mesdames A. J. and J. Wisler, E. A. Winn, F. Cockayne, William Vickers, C. Black, J. Seger, W. Van Dusen, F. Kern, J. Cole, J. Lemly, E. Gorman and Miss Hazel Van Dusen.

What Women Are Doing in the World

A PERMANENT organization was effected at the Mississippi Valley conference of state presidents of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, held in Minneapolis last week and attended by two Nebraska women, the state federation president and past president, Mrs. J. N. Paul of St. Paul, and Mrs. A. G. Peterson of Aurora. It is to be known as The Upper Mississippi Valley Conference of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and its purpose is to promote closer understanding and co-operation between the states' organizations. State presidents and past presidents, acting state officers and General Federation directors and past directors of the following states: Missouri, Kansas, Wisconsin, Illinois, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota and North and South Dakota will be included in the conference. Biennial meetings preceding the biennial meetings of the General Federation were designated.

Mrs. Paul responded to the toast "The Awkward Squad," at a unique dinner given in honor of the delegates. The caption was "Our National Guard," and other responses to toasts were "The Recruiting Officer," "Inspection," "The Enemy," "The Flying Squadron," "Great Guns," and "Marching Orders," the latter given by Mrs. Thomas G. Winter of Minneapolis, who is well known in Omaha, all the toasts carrying out the spirit of the times.

Mrs. Francis E. Whitley of Webster City, president of the Iowa federation, was elected president and Mrs. Harvey of Menominee, president of the Wisconsin federation, was named secretary of the new organization.

Mrs. Paul and Mrs. Peterson passed through Omaha Friday morning en route home and were met at the station by Mrs. F. H. Cole.

Nebraska clubwomen are further interested in the midyear conference of the state executive committee for the Nebraska Woman's Christian Temperance union, which will be held in Omaha, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Three Omahans will speak at the meeting, Dr. Jennie Callas of "The New Vision," Mrs. George Covell of "Ballots for Both," and Elmer E. Thomas on pertinent topics. Important matters, which have to do with enforcement of the prohibition law, will be discussed.

Mrs. William Berry, acting Douglas county president; Mrs. C. J. Roberts, Mrs. W. T. Graham and Mrs. Flora Hoffman are other Omahans who will attend the meeting.

Local temperance workers are anticipating a visit from Miss Anna Gordon, national Women's Christian Temperance union president, when she passes through Omaha May 3 or 4 on a transcontinental tour.

The newest development in local club circles is the proposed organization of a Woman's Commercial club Monday evening in the offices of Miss Ione C. Duffy of the Van Sant colic e. A preliminary meeting, at which enthusiastic plans for the new organization were broached, was held Friday evening in Miss Katherine Worley's office.

All business women will be eligible for membership, according to Stella Bedford Wilson, lawyer, with whom the idea originated. Twenty-five business women attended the meeting Friday night.

"The organization hopes to have its own club house some day," says Mrs. Wilson, "if that is not building too many castles in the air."

Social Settlement activities will be demonstrated at the Omaha Woman's club political and social science department meeting Monday at 2:30 o'clock at Metropolitan club house.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis, the head resident, will talk; Edward Vosacek will tell about the boys' work; Mrs. F. S. Hanna, who has the sewing in charge, will have a group of children exhibit their work; four little boys from the settlement will sing Serbian songs and the same number of little girls will give kitchen gardening exercises. Helen Nightingale will sing and Dan Hurley will tell a story. Mrs. J. H. Dumont has charge of the program.

At the business meeting Mrs. Samuel Foote, Mrs. Dumont, Dr. Adda Wiley Raiston, Mrs. D. G. Craighead and Miss Grace Thomas will tell about their experiences down at Lincoln last week when they went to lobby for the suffrage and against the school election bills.

"The Piper's Play," which is to be given by the oratory department for its open day program next week, will be rehearsed at the department meeting Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. There will be a dress rehearsal Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

"Ruth" will be the Bible topic discussed by the current topics department Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock. The Burnett immigration bill, China and Japan and other topics of current discussion will occupy the rest of the meeting time.

Mrs. W. C. Bentz will give her postponed talk on "Perseverance, How to Develop It," for the philosophy and ethics department Tuesday at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. J. W. Gill, assisted by Mrs. Jean Johnston and Mrs. A. O. Nickum, will have charge of the program for the art department Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

PROMOTING COMMERCIAL CLUB FOR WOMEN.

MRS. STELLA B. WILSON.

Thirty-eighth avenue, Mu Sigma is the oldest study club in the city and has still on its membership list the names of three of the original members, Mrs. A. D. Somers, Mrs. George Thompson and Mrs. H. D. Neely. Readings and musical numbers will be given by members.

Mrs. D. H. Weir will entertain the J. F. W. club Thursday afternoon.

P. E. O. sisterhood, BP chapter, will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. K. R. Ogden, 2011 Fowler avenue. There will be an educational day program.

Mrs. J. C. Lawrence, leader of the program, will give the biography of the composer, Humperdinck, at the Omaha Story Tellers' league meeting Thursday at the public library. Miss Edith Haight will tell the story of the opera, "Hansel and Gretel," and Mrs. William Dox will tell a selected story.

Rev. Charles S. Holler, pastor of the South Side Baptist church, will lead the prayers of the Business Women's council Tuesday at the court house. Luncheon will be served by women of Clifton Hill Presbyterian church during the hours of 11 and 12.

The George A. Custer Woman's Relief corps will hold its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at Memorial hall. Much business is to be transacted.

The Omaha Settlement association will hold its annual meeting Saturday at 3 o'clock at the Settlement house, 2829 Q street, South Side. Reports of committees will be read and directors elected, the directors in turn to name the officers. A tea at 4 o'clock will follow.

Benson Woman's Christian Temperance union will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. T. Chadwell.

The Woman's club of Benson will meet Thursday at the city hall. The program on "Pan-Americanism" will consist of papers on "Contrast Between Eastern and Western Coast States," by Mrs. J. W. Speedie; "Central American States," Mrs. J. Y. Hooper; "Caribbean Islands," Mrs. Beasley; "Panama Canal's Influence," Mrs. Seanson, and "Mexico," Mrs. Hooper. Mrs. M. Blackwell of Omaha, a resident teacher for some years in Brazil, will give a talk. Mrs. Sawtelle will be leader. The club will put on a minstrel show Saturday night.

Rev. A. De Larme, pastor of the First Baptist church, will speak on "Missionary Work and Organization" at the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary federation of Omaha Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association. Reports of the year's work will be given and election of officers will be held. Mrs. F. J. Birss is president of the federation.

William F. Baxter will speak on "The Minimum Wage" at the home of Mrs. J. T. Stewart, 2nd, Wednesday at 4 o'clock for members of the Equal Franchise society. This talk was postponed from February 15. Mrs. E. M. Fairfield is chairman of the program.

Education in Norway and Sweden will be studied by the literature department of the South Side Woman's club Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock at Library hall. Mrs. H. J. Peck, leader of the program, will be assisted by Mrs. W. P. Adkins, Miss Sadie Fowler and Mrs. R. P. Falkner.

Election of officers will take place when Chapter M of the P. E. O. meets Saturday at the home of Mrs. Lucy H. Eads. A 1 o'clock luncheon will precede the business meeting. Mrs. F. E. Houseman and Miss Hortense Eads will assist the hostess.

Miss Etta L. Pickering, general secretary of the Young Women's Christian association will address the Temple Israel sisterhood will present, on the first Monday afternoon in March, the program it was forced to postpone from the first Monday in February. This includes a talk on Browning by Rabbi Frederick Cohn and one on vocational guidance by Miss Jessie Towne, as well as musical numbers.

Mu Sigma's twenty-fourth birthday will be celebrated Monday afternoon with an informal tea at the home of Mrs. Waite H. Squier, 124 North

DIAMOND EAR-RINGS AT BRODEGAARDS' THIS WEEK ONLY $11.75 One pair of Diamond Ear Screws, perfect blue-white and extraordinary swell mounting; weight guaranteed. These Ear-rings can be exchanged for larger diamonds any time at full value. Brodegaard Bros. Co. 16th and Douglas Sts. AT THE SIGN OF THE CROWN UP THE GOLDEN STAIRS

Young Women's Hebrew association at a special meeting Tuesday evening in the clubrooms in the Paxton block. A hop will be given in the clubrooms this evening. The Dramatic club meets Monday night and the choral society Wednesday and Saturday nights.

Miss Catherine Morrison, assisted by Miss Alice Chambers, will give a program on Raphael, the Madonna painter, for the Business Women's club Tuesday at 7 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association. Miss Itha Lindeman will give current events.

Hauptman's "Lonely Lives" will be the subject of Miss Kate McHugh's lecture before the Drama league Tuesday at 4 o'clock at the Blackstone.

The Dundee Catholic circle, which combines sewing with cards at its Monday afternoon meetings, will abandon this week's meeting will be at the home of Mrs. James M. Welsh at 2:30 o'clock. Household economics and Lenten menus will be discussed.

Mrs. J. O. Detweiler will be hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon for the Mothers' Culture club Wednesday afternoon at her home, 3524 Dodge street. Mrs. W. W. Fisher will give a talk on American heroes, Washington, Lincoln and several famous women, and Mrs. T. M. Giltner will lead the home progress child study. Mrs. Origen Williams will assist the hostess.

Temple Israel Sisterhood will sponsor a minstrel show to be given Thursday evening, March 8, at Metropolitan clubhouse.

Tennison chapter, C. L. S. C., will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the public library. The lesson will be chapters eight to twelve in "Belgium, the Land of Art," with Mrs. N. Nelson as leader. Chapter six of "The Spirit of French Letters" will be reviewed by Mrs. R. E. Parrott. Roll call will be answered by current events.

Quotations from Mrs. Lillian N. M. Stevens, late president of the national Women's Christian Temperance union, will be the response to roll call when Frances Willard union meets Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. R. Ward, 2121 Wirt street.

The Women's Christian Temperance union committee of which Mrs. James McClair is chairman will hold an educational and social meeting at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Smith. Mrs. J. H. Dumont will explain the bill pending before the legislature proposing to change the method of electing members of the school board.

On March 1 a special meeting at which Mrs. L. V. Sloum will speak on "Your Boy and Mine," will be held by the committee of which Mrs. W. L. Lite is chairman at the home of Mrs. Belle Seymour. Mrs. J. R. Baird will also discuss civic affairs of the city.

A memorial meeting in honor of the late Mrs. John Dale and Mrs. Sarah Powell will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. J. E. Inkster by the committee of the Women's Christian Temperance union of which Mrs. E. D.

Stoneypher is chairman. Friends of the honored woman have been invited to attend.

A Boy Scouts' program will be given in connection with the children's movies, according to arrangements being made by the educational committee of the Omaha Woman's club. All Boys Scouts of the city will attend with the life and drum corps.

The Cambro-American society of Omaha will celebrate St. David's day Thursday evening at Jacob hall. Mr. John T. Yeats will preside. A good program has been provided. All the Welsh and those of Welsh descent will attend.

A musical church was held by Miss Alice MacKenzie will be given at the regular service this afternoon at 4:30. Hosted by Madame Charlotte Lund, soprano, Wednesday, February 22, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of social committee of Young Women's Christian association. A class is just starting in business English. It meets Tuesday from 7 to 8 o'clock.

Society Notes Dundee

Rev. H. Foster spent the last week in Chicago. A colonial play was given by some of the grades at Dundee school Friday.

The woman's missionary meeting of the Dundee church was held Friday at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Nelson.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor held a meeting Saturday at the home of Doris and Mildred Braden.

Mrs. Holman's Sunday school class met Friday afternoon at Miss Dorothy Dodd's home.

Troop Four of the Boy Scouts of America met Friday evening at the Dundee church. Speeches in honor of the retiring scoutmaster, Mrs. E. H. Orchard, were made, and the new master, Mr. Thomas Kelley, was introduced.

Aged Man Violates His Parole and Goes to Pen John H. Clark, an aged prisoner brought before Judge Sears on January 24 on a charge of forgery, was sentenced to from one to twenty years in the state penitentiary and then paroled from the bench to M. Anderson, adult probation officer. He violated his parole and was again arraigned on the same charge, pleading guilty and receiving a sentence of one year. He was taken to the penitentiary Saturday morning.

A Harmless Fat Remover

For years the knowledge and conviction that there is a safe, sure, harmless remedy for obesity has been spreading, until now the whole world knows that in the famous Marmola Prescription is found a sure road to symmetry—a great specific for over-fatness which leaves the body symmetrical, the skin smooth and clear and the bodily health perfect. This almost miraculous change is accomplished without dieting, exercise, or denial of any kind at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week. Convenience in taking this great remedy is facilitated by procuring Marmola Prescription in tablet form. Visit your drugist today or send the perfect Marmola Co., 864 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich., for a quantity of these tablets sufficient to start you on your way to the coveted goal—slimness.—Advertisement.

SAVE YOUR HAIR WHILE YOU HAVE HAIR TO SAVE

An early appreciation of the value of good hair and the intelligent use of Newbro's Herpicide will save many regrets and the discomforts of total baldness.

Hair loss in most cases is due to dandruff. Herpicide eradicates this hair destroying contagion and prevents the hair from coming out. The use of this most popular scalp prophylactic is quickly apparent in the increased life, lustre, and luxuriance of the hair. The results sometimes are almost marvelous, as is testified by the experience of thousands.

Herpicide has a most exquisite, dainty odor which is always associated with a system of complete personal cleanliness. The odor appeals to those of the greatest refinement. Herpicide stops itching of the scalp almost instantly. It is a most delightful hair dressing.

Send 10c for trial size bottle and booklet—Guaranteed by The Herpicide Co., Dept. 153B, Detroit, Mich. Sold Everywhere—Applications at the better barber shops.

Newbro's Herpicide

Wounded Affections Mended Cement won't do it, nor will a doctor—But send Flowers and see what a persuasive factor they are. Try our baskets of Sweet Peas—finest ever—in fact, wonderful. JOHN H. BATH "The Careful Florist" 1804 Farnam St., Omaha Phone Douglas 3000

SPRING MILLINERY We take pleasure in announcing the first view of our display of Spring's newest and smartest styles in the most correct and approved MILLINERY FASHIONS You will be charmed with our exhibition of Spring Styles. Your Inspection Invited F. M. SCHADELL & CO. 1522 Douglas St.

This $70 Casket $30 $150 Oak Casket, $87.50 $175 Silk Plush Coach Casket, $97.75 In the affairs of life you ask honest and fairness of treatment. Doubly so do you need such help during the sorrows of bereavement. Then, as at no other time, you ask and have a right to expect Conscientious Service—the kind of service you yourself would give were you able to do so. You ask and expect an impressive service, free of needless expense, yet fitting the occasion. In using "Stack and Falconer" Service either in our mortuary or in your home, you will find all these requirements met—quietly, restfully and in good taste. STACK & FALCONER "OMAHA'S ONLY INDEPENDENT UNDERTAKERS" 24TH AND HARNEY STS. Douglas 887.