

THE OMAHA BEE

DAILY MORNING-EVENING-SUNDAY
FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER
VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR
THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY, PROPRIETOR

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION
Daily and Sunday... $4.00 per month
By Carrier... $6.00 per month

REMITTANCE
Mail by draft, express or postal order. Only 2-cent stamps taken in payment of small accounts.

OFFICES
Chicago—People's Gas Building
New York—200 Fifth Ave.
Boston—100 State St.

CORRESPONDENCE
Address communications relating to news and editorial matter to Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

JANUARY CIRCULATION
54,320 Daily—Sunday 49,878

Subscribers leaving the city should have The Bee mailed to them. Address changed as often as requested.

Fewer laws and more respect for law is a good slogan!

It isn't too soon to commence figuring on the "paint up" program.

Remember the Auto show is even better at the finish than it was at the start.

Another "Powell Puzzle Picture" in Sunday's Bee. Try again and as often as you please!

The prospect of Villa "standing by the president" lends a dash of gaiety to the situation.

Omaha's gain in bank clearings is a fair index of what the city is doing in other directions.

Whatever else the legislators may do, they are showing good judgment in the bills they are killing.

The farm loan bank will give out some jobs before it makes any loans. Who wants the places? Speak up.

Another million-dollar building will be welcomed, but we can spare the application of fire for clearing the lot.

It's a cinch that wild horse deal will not look half so tempting to a person after serving a term in prison and paying a $10,000 fine.

It is gathered from his remarks "Gumshoe Bill" Stone dislikes the rude carresses of the road roller. Evidently it disturbs the moss.

The German chancellor refers to the "unparalleled bravery" of the submarine crews. Passengers on the Laconia can testify on this point.

Colonel Bryan's lucid expositions of dry rot falls painfully short of the volume of silver moonshine dispensed some twenty-one years ago. Time tells.

An extra session of congress commends itself for one epochal reason. The inauguration of the "lady from Montana" justifies the worry and the expense.

No half-way station any longer between "Wet" and "Dry." The new federal law makes it a through ticket every time from point of departure to destination.

With assurance given to the public that the car shortage situation has been completely relieved in the west, food price boosters will have to find another excuse.

Future Relations with Germany.
The Chicago Tribune carefully analyzes the speech of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg to the Reichstag and finds it a solemn warning to the United States.

Such a Foolish Feud.
What an exhibition of foolishness we are having in the court house, where certain county commissioners have "locked horns" with the sheriff.

Under Which King?
Nebraska's fiftieth birthday was celebrated in Washington by citizens domiciled there in befitting manner, even to the staging of a section of the interminable dispute between the democratic "leaders" of the Antelope state.

Barring a British "Slacker."
Public approval will follow the determination of Governor Whitman of New York to debar from exhibition in his state a prize fighter who notoriously has evaded military service in his own country.

Vindication.
The hog editor of our esteemed hyphenated contemporary scoffed recently at a statement made by The Bee, relative to the progress of the pig as a producer and reproducer of its kind.

Not a Penny for Blackmail.
After Colombia lost Panama it offered to take $8,000,000 for all its rights to the canal zone and later reduced the price to $5,000,000.

Subscriptions to federal loan bank stock range from $41,725 in Omaha to $410 at Columbia, S. C.

Never another peep in reinforcement of that labored charge that the Allies were unwilling to accept "peace without victory" only because it would compel them to forego the profit, at so much an acre, on a huge international land grab!

Rev. C. N. Dawson
"My First Sermon"
"At the close my big friend said, 'Well, you did a mighty right better than I thought you could.'"

It was back in Kankakee county, Illinois. Soon after receiving my quarterly conference, or local preacher's license, I was informed by my pastor at the close of his Sunday morning service, that he would not be able to fill his evening appointment on account of sickness in his family.

Slamming the Stable Door
Minnneapolis Journal

Under the pressure of the present emergency, the senate has passed the administration's espionage bill, imposing severe penalties on foreign spies who violate our neutrality or undermine our national defenses.

Even now it is touch and go whether the house gets around to take action before it is overtaken by March 4.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

Timely Jottings and Reminders
Birthdays greetings to Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, who is 70 years old today.

Timely Jottings and Reminders
Birthdays greetings to Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, who is 70 years old today.

Timely Jottings and Reminders
Birthdays greetings to Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, who is 70 years old today.

Health Hint for the Day.
Don't let your finger nails! It is simply a sign of bad temper or overflow of irritable energy.

One Year Ago Today in the War.
Terrific fighting continued in the vicinity of Verdun.

In Omaha Thirty Years Ago.
In the establishment of Tiffany & Co., New York, there is prominently displayed the large cast of a buffalo head six feet in height, bearing the inscription: "Cast of the new bronze"

Woman Suffrage in Practice.
Omaha, Neb., March 1.—To the Editor of The Omaha Bee: Wyoming is a great state—in area—but has a population of only 145,966 in 1910, less than Omaha.

This Day in History.
1793—William C. Macready, one of the greatest actors of his time, born in London. Died there April 27, 1873.

The Day We Celebrate.
Lewis S. Reed was born March 2, 1847, and is one of Omaha's pioneers. Mr. Reed was for many years cashier of the Nebraska National bank, retiring because of his health.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

The Bee's Letter Box

Who Should Pay the Bills.
McCook, Neb., March 1.—To the Editor of The Bee: If I am reliably informed, the Taylor bill before the state legislature provides a tax on all property of the state for assisting rural education.

Woman Suffrage in Practice.
Omaha, Neb., March 1.—To the Editor of The Omaha Bee: Wyoming is a great state—in area—but has a population of only 145,966 in 1910, less than Omaha.

This Day in History.
1793—William C. Macready, one of the greatest actors of his time, born in London. Died there April 27, 1873.

The Day We Celebrate.
Lewis S. Reed was born March 2, 1847, and is one of Omaha's pioneers. Mr. Reed was for many years cashier of the Nebraska National bank, retiring because of his health.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

People and Events
Investigation of the remains of the private bank of Robert L. Pitte & Son, Chicago, show that fraudulent transactions have been going on for thirty years, and depositors did not get wise until the bank went under.

SMILING LIRES.
Judge—How came a man of your ability to stand here convicted of forgery? Prisoner—In all owing to my taking good advice, your honor. When I left school my teacher told me with his talents to go on and forge ahead—Baltimore American.

DEAR MR. KASIBIBBE.
A GIRL THAT JILTED ME A FEW YEARS AGO, IS GETTING MARRIED. SHE HAS INVITED ME TO ATTEND HER WEDDING—SHOULD I GO? —WILLIAM HINZEL

TAKE NO CHANCES—THE GROOM IS LIABLE NOT TO SHOW UP!

THE REPUBLIC.
Longfellow's "The Building of the Ship." Thou, too, sail on, O Ship of State! Sail on, O Union, strong and great!

Self Controlled Men can't be stampeded

—Moderation is the watch-word of their lives in business, eating, drinking, INVESTING

—They are the type of men we want for stockholders. —The L. V. Nicholas Oil Company will sell stock in amounts of from $100 to $1,000 at $100 per share.

—Interviews will be gladly given. The L. V. Nicholas Oil Company

Itching Pimples Kept Mr. Simpson Awake for Hours. Suffered Badly. Healed by Cuticura.

"I suffered very badly with my head which came out in little white pimples. They would go away in a week and then come back again. They festered and came to little white heads and my scalp was sore. It itched and burned so badly I would just lie awake for hours with the pain and I used to have big eruptions on my head from scratching. My hair was also thin and dry.

Bargains for You NOW! Get your share of that elegant quality Furniture at discontinued bargain prices from the Raymond Stock 1513-15 HOWARD.

The Horrible Handicap of Poisoned Blood

The Innocent Suffer Even Unto the Third and Fourth Generations, But Relief is Now in Sight. It has long been accepted as a matter of course that the sins of the posterity yet it is hard to become reconciled to this condition. The heritage of physical infirmity is a handicap under which thousands must face the battle of life.