

Let's go shopping with Polly

"Where are you going My pretty maid?"
 "I'm going A shopping sir"
 She said
 "For Polly tells me What is nice And lets me know About the price I got enthusiastic Quite When I am told Just what is right To buy in suits In modes elite"

What is the hat To wear for street Where I may find Rare nosebags too Where to secure A fine shampoo What kind of boots In latest style How to make My trip worth while Countless benefits I derive To please you Always Do I strive

THE newest note in footwear fashion is the cloth-top which clings so smoothly over Mlad's dainty ankle. I saw such a strikingly beautiful model at Napier's Booterie that had the most interesting "Persico" back—the vamp of ivory kid had a top to match of that new material, "Eradonite" (it's funny, isn't it, the way words now attached to feminine apparel)—$9.00 is the price of this extremely smart boot, and should you prefer light gray there's that shade, too, at Napier's—Rose Bldg.

This is the time to buy your new outfit, if you have not already. If you live out of town, let me help you. Write your color and fabric preference, give exact size and suggestion of desired style. Purchases are sent C. O. D.

THE OMAHA BEE
 "Polly the Shopper"

THE swager sticks I've mentioned before as being popular in New York, with sports costumes, can be found at Lucien Stephens' Shop, 1201 Farnam—new designs are available, but are excellent means of defense. A prominent woman in town has bought one for that purpose.

THE use of Colonial Maid cream adds much to a woman's charm. 50c. at the Ideal Hair Parlor—Baird Bldg.

A SURPRISE! A big one, too! The Vogue Shop, 293 Rose Bldg., offers its underwear Monday and Tuesday only:
 $2.25 Pink Italian Silk Vests, plain and embroidered—$1.45.
 $2.50 Pink Italian Silk Vests, hem-stitched—$1.75.
 $2.50 Pink Italian Silk Envelope Chemise, Swiss embroidery, lace yoke—$1.75.
 $2.50 Pink Italian Silk Bloomers—$1.45.
 $2.75 Pink Italian Silk Blouses—$2.45.
 Large assortment Front and Back-Laced Corsets.

IN YOUR new arrangements for Spring, you will probably redecorate many rooms. Why not enlist the aid of the Orchard & Wilhelm Co.'s decorating department? Expert collaboration of color and design is free and does not in any way obligate. And speaking of decorating—you really should see the exquisite tiled and combinations of colors noted in the new cretonnes at Orchard & Wilhelm's. It is worthy of comment to tell you how appropriately and discreetly these cretonnes are used for bedrooms in box-painted valances, for curtains, and also covers for the furniture that can be taken off and washed. And I do want to mention, too, the dainty new vases with colored borders and marquisettes for bedroom curtains.

Tan pumps worn with white spats will be quite smart for the Spring.

SISTER Dear's Easter outfit has just arrived at Benson & Thorne's and you must take her down there at once to make a selection of tiny coat and hat to match—coats tailored just like Mother's—cunningest things you ever saw—in the bright, new shades: blues, golds and checks and for parties, or "dresses up," they're simply wonderful—little silk coats in semi-empire models with daintily embroidered Georgette collars and ties to 2 1/2. Miss Adams will be delighted to show these to you.

SUCH a galaxy of smart tailored hats, chic dresses, chapeaux, and sports models did I see yesterday when I peeped into the workshop of the Drabow-Lattig Hat Shop, Baird Bldg., and watched them being taken from the big boxes. A boy of young women were also busily engaged in creating some lovely models. It quite convinced me that their SPRING OPENING tomorrow is going to be a real event. Hope I'll meet you there!

JUST when we think we're really beginning to know what Dame Fashion has decreed we shall wear this Spring—the surprises us with something new and strangely interesting. The new sports frocks of Jersey cloth are addressed in his pocket. Georgette and crepe de chine and are strikingly individual in effect—have you seen them at Thompson's?

THE Fifth Ave. Specialty Shops are showing items in the Georgette and crepe de chine sizes 12 to 14 inches deep.

MISS LEBICH of The Hosiery Section of Thompson-Helm's has many friends, and I've discovered why: She's always so pleasant and accommodating. Let her show you her new beautiful clock-work and beaded designs—the sheer party stockings in scroll work and open stripes—wonderfully pretty! Miss Leebich also has a lovely pair of silver slippers which they match.

PROPER creosote assures good health. Be fitted to get R. H. Camp "Goodwin," by Ida Stockwell, Room 7, Baird Bldg. Her scientific creosote is endorsed by leading physicians.

SPRINGTIME loveliness is displayed in the fairy-like Georgette blouses shown at Benson & Thorne's. A pair of blouses with pointed double collar topped with orchid shade, from which hangs pendant silk tassels, is daintily beaded and tucked. My pleasant little friend at the Waist Section surprised me when she announced the price as $1.00. There are also some lovely blouses with effects of white and gold, peach and white and in plain shades—all the latest effects worth a trip down town to see them!

PETITOT: Not the ordinary kind, but real tailored affairs, and of any material you choose in select, be it silk oringham—for these petticoats are made to your order at The Lingerie Shop, 509 Bee Bldg. And, though I've told you before, I can't emphasize it, that Miss Cole's Bangalow aprons and house dresses are clever and nifty.

THOSE beautiful and decidedly elegant embroidered delaines which you admired so much on our previous display in our select shops may be accurately reproduced at The Ideal Hat and Dressing Co. The operators in this shop have had years of experience and you can trust them with the choicest fabric and most intricate pattern. Talk with Manager VerMeiren about the trimming on your new gown.

A THEM! of Spring poem was a basket of Calendulas and Narcissus—out of which Pussey Willow—hy-harbingers of Spring—sprung—pooped—imagined more exquisite harmony than a slender, lavender basket of stately, yellow daffodils! Less common, but equally floral—Fountain's Hotel—is constantly featuring something new and individual. I do want you to see his artistic array of baskets.

YOU'LL soon be getting your home spick and span for Springtime, and there'll be a favorite picture that you'll just want to draw up in a pretty new frame. So I'm going to suggest Hoop's as exactly the right place to find one—attraction frames for 50c and up. And, by the way, have you seen Hoop's lovely little locket, fastened with real landscape, beautifully framed in gold and natural wood—such an affect touch to your refreshment home—lovely as an anniversary gift.

MR. BENSON, just returned from Fashion's hub, told me that the beautiful new garments he had selected there—and I had the pleasure of beholding some of these wonderful things as they were being unpacked. You would have gone into contact, as did I, over the Spring time about recommending Moore's Specialty Shop in the uptown district as the place to buy smart Spring tops.

ONE year old? Yes, that's the age of the little girl in the simple little Spitz Shop is celebrating—and to show their good will, they're offering a lovely pair of Georgette and crepe de chine sample dresses for $12.90—surely wonderful bargains!

MAKING my rounds of interesting places this week, I found the Excelsior Bath Institute, 331-33 Ross Bldg., and was invited to inspect the different, beautiful and splendidly equipped departments. The Women's Bath, in charge of Miss Thomas of the famous Excelsior Springs Health Resort, and the Chiropractic Dept., of Dr. J. M. McNamara, already known in our city, is the head, are so clean, comfortable and well equipped that I'm sure Omaha women, seeking health, will welcome this institute as a great boon.

A N inspiration for "le dancin'" is a dream of a party frock of canary crepe, with a broad, ruffled collar, worn at Lamond's—Rose Bldg.—one of my favorite exclusive shops—the sweet, little bodice of silver lace and billowy skirt looked as if particularly designed for some fancy princess. And, oh! such an adorable coat-cape of the same material, lined with robin's egg blue chiffon, and finished with a puffy ruffle. What more could any princess ask!

CHERRIE! Old Hen made NEW—New Hats made, TOO! by Stella Kelley in her Parlor Millinery, 2777 Tridell St. Her "specialty" is $1.00 trimmed hats.

MISS LEBICH of The Hosiery Section of Thompson-Helm's has many friends, and I've discovered why: She's always so pleasant and accommodating. Let her show you her new beautiful clock-work and beaded designs—the sheer party stockings in scroll work and open stripes—wonderfully pretty! Miss Leebich also has a lovely pair of silver slippers which they match.

A TRACTIVE, indeed, is Belle Hatch's new hat shop, freshly redecorated for Spring—and the HATS! Fish, Phipps and original models—beautiful—1201 Farnam.

THE most beloved of screen stars, the lovely and delightful little actress, Marguerite Clark, is the attraction this week at the Muea Theater for a fresh and interesting show on March 5th, in "The Fortune of Pitt." "Pitt" is a little French actress, both physically and in character, who is charming, a difficult character to portray, and, yet, we know how delightful Miss Clark will appear in such a role. Don't miss a main party for your friends—the theater is delightful in itself—I quite, refer it to any other.

Attention! Now what do you think, were just on the brink of war with our neighbors, and it's quite "up to you" to consider what great use of fabrics there'll be made in a store of garments for galore for good health and out of the question, and needs and tray and, yet, we know how delightful Miss Clark will appear in such a role. Don't miss a main party for your friends—the theater is delightful in itself—I quite, refer it to any other.
