NEW KALEM SERIES FOR EARLY RELEASE

General Film Company Now Announces Interesting Bit of News for Exhibitors.

SOME GREAT SUBJECTS

Two big Kalem series, "The American Girl" and "A Daughter of Daring," are soon to be issued by the General Film Company. "The American Girl," will be of special interest to those who follow "The Girl From Frisco" series, featuring Marin Sais. Miss Sais, who scored so heavily in that series, has been chosen to play the title role in "The American Girl." The famous fiction writer, Frederick R. Becholdt, who is making his bow to the picture world as a scenario writer, will write the stories. The first of the series will be "The Black Rider of Tasajara," and will deal with a respected westerner, who turns out to be a famous bandit. It is the American Girl, Marin Sais, that cleverly unmasks him, and the incidents leading up to this denouement provide the drama with ample dramatic value.

Miss Sais is well known to the picture fans as a girl of splendid physique, of remarkable ability as a rider, and moreover a sterling actress. In the first episode of "The American Girl," she pursues the "Black Rider," who turns in his saddle and shoots her horse from under her. Miss Sais takes what appears to be a tumble which would seriously hurt any girl, but such is her skill as a horsewoman that she effects the fall without mishap. Undaunted, she continues with her search for the bandit, and her untiring efforts are finally crowned with success.

The importance of the announcement of this series is rivaled by the coming of the first episode of a new "thrill" series, "A Daughter of Daring," featuring Helen Gibson. This beautiful, fearless girl astounded the world of picture fans by her dare-devil performances in "The Hazards of Helen," but that series did not seem to exhaust her fund of thrill-producing ability. Helen is always ready to risk her pretty neck to show the thrill-loving audiences that hard luck has no terrors for her. She keeps hundreds of scenario writers throughout the country thinking up schemes to make Helen's life depend on her skill and courage.

The first episode of the new series will be "In the Path of Peril," and calls forth the utmost from this fair "daughter of daring."

Petrova a Writer as Well as Fine Actress

Madam Petrova is recognized as one of the really great stars of the silent drama. Not only is she a star, but it is proven absolutely that she is a playwright of no mean ability, as the photoplay "Bridges Burned," which shows at the Sun theater Tuesday and Wednesday, was written in its entirety by her. When still in her teens she took up newspaper work, later becoming book and dramatic critic for the London Times. She then became ambitious for a stage career and after having had varied experiences in this line she started in the Folies Bergere in Paris. Henry B. Harris saw her there and engaged her for a similar role in his New York Folies Bergere. When she had terminated this engagement she was starred in "Panthea" and "The Revolt." She then became a screen star under the Metro emblem, where she has starred in a great many successes. "Bridges Burned" is a story with a new love appeal—one that will strike at the heart strings of any audience even more forcibly than did "The Black Butterfly." You see Petrova in this picture as an Irish lass of independent nature. She is beautiful, sympathetic, appealing and affectionate.

Marguerite Clark a Real Little Wonder in Her Way

One of the many reasons which makes Marguerite Clark so irresistibly charming on the screen is the fact that she seems to have no limit of versatility. The more roles she plays in Famous Players productions, the more she seems to increase her mastery of the art of screen acting. Always charming, she possesses the rare gift of approaching each new characterization with a fresh viewpoint and of enacting her role in some new and unexpected manner. The fact that she is playing an actress on the screen for the first time in "The Fortunes of Fifi," which is her latest Famous Players-Paramount picture to be shown at the Muse theater on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, lends added interest to this photoplay. How will Miss Clark play the role of an actress? Of course she will do it charmingly, but it will be interesting to know just how she will do this most difficult of all roles upon the screen.

Cold Cash Offer That Means Business to Fans

In hard cold cash $500 is a lot of money at this time when you can take a pocketful of potatoes and buy most anything that your heart desires. This amount, though, is to be given away by A. C. Hartman of the Omaha Film exchange under certain conditions that are mentioned in his ad in this paper today. This has been advertised for some time, but the fact of the matter is, no one has been able to win the money. Looks like with all the talk about the H. C. of L. that someone would "spruce up" and try and get the money. The Omaha Film exchange is the oldest firm of its kind in the city, dealing, as it does in motion picture machines, supplies of all kinds and even taking and developing of motion pictures, so you will see that the offer is bon. fide.

Apply Sloan's Liniment to the painful part in all you need. The pain goes at once. Only 50c. All drug stores—Advertisement.

MARY PICKFORD

Mary Pickford is the vice president and leading woman of the Mary Pickford Film company. She was born in Toronto, Canada, April 8, 1893, and began her stage career in juvenile parts at the age of 5 as a member of the Toronto Stock company. She joined Chauncey Olcott's company, and later scored a success in Belasco's "Warrens of Virginia." Her screen career was first with the Biograph company under the direction of D. W. Griffith, but later joined the Imp-Universal company. She then returned to the stage for Belasco's "A Good Little Devil," and then went to the Famous Players company with the entire cast for the film version. Other pictures are: "In the Bishop's Carriage," "Hearts Adrift," "Tess of the Storm Country," "The Eagle's Mate," "Such a Little Queen," "Cinderella," "Fanchon, the Cricketer," "The Dawn of Tomorrow," "Little Pal," "A Girl of Yesterday," "Madam Butterfly," "The Foundling," "Poor Little Peppina," "The Eternal Grind," "Hulda from Holland," "Rags," etc. She then formed her own company with the pictures to be released by the Artcraft Pictures corporation, where she made "Less Than the Dust" and "The Pride of the Clan." Her next picture will be "The Poor Little Rich Girl." Studio address: Mary Pickford Film company, 729 Seventh avenue, New York City.

Max Winthrop Buys Out Paul Le Marquand's Stock

It is announced this week that Max Winthrop has purchased the entire stock of Paul Le Marquand in the Fontenelle Feature Film company and will continue the business in the future. This concern deals in nothing but the best of state right features. Besides owning "The Witching Hour" for Nebraska, Iowa and Missouri, the company has Lina Cavalieri in "Macon Lescaut," Mme. Petrova in "The Tigress," Jacob P. Adler in "Michael Strogoff," Thomas Jefferson in "Rip Van Winkle," "The Ragged Earl," "The Education of Mr. Pipp," House Peters in "Salomy Jane," Ethel Barrymore in "The Nightingale," Mabel Taliaferro in "The Three of Us," Thomas Jefferson in "Shore Acres" and Thurlow Bergen in "The Spoilers of Souls," and for only Nebraska there is Frank Keenan and Enid Markey in "War's Women," Paul Swan and Baroness von de Witz in "Diana the Huntress" and for Nebraska and Iowa they have Beatrice Michelena in "The Unwritten Law." As special features for children they have "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

"Groceries" Was Label On Shipment of Liquor

For violating section 240 of the federal criminal code, regarding interstate shipments of liquor, the Italian Mercantile company, 2123 Pierce street, has pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $10 in federal court. The law requires that all shipments of liquor between states shall be labeled with information concerning the kind and amount of contents and the names of the shipper and consignee. Defendant company admitted that one of its shipments of liquor to Fort Dodge, Ia., was labeled "groceries." This was done by mistake, the proprietors alleged.

Exposures

DOROTHY GISH is on her way to New York to purchase new gowns and see some of the latest theatrical successes on Broadway. Before leaving Los Angeles, she was presented with a dusty pair of hand-woven Chinese anklets, the latest wrinkles in Los Angeles for feminine decoration, but these anklets will not be worn in Omaha until the low season starts, and possibly never with girls who are blessed with good understandings.

C. E. Holah, newcomer to Omaha, and manager of the local Pathe exchange, purchased a car that he might get better acquainted with the great town of ours. But there seems to be quite an epidemic of autos getting out of commission, with the Holah subjects of late (that is for the one that can afford them) and Holah had to get in on it. Going up a "nice" little hill, the interior of the car decided it would leave. He discovered that Omaha people are very hospitable as he secured the loan of a basket in which he put the unruly parts and started for the office, and that he might obtain a better view of the surroundings.

The title of Charles Chaplin's next picture was announced as "The Health Resort," but has been changed to "The Cure."

Ye Editor was conspired against a few nights ago. Being at the Sun theater about 11 o'clock, he was convinced by certain persons, Ed. Horton, Sam and Harry Goff, that a spin in H. G.'s car would be conducive to a good night's rest. It was one of those nights when the mercury was about "nothing" that this crew started on this eventful ride. Of course the air would be best in the back seat, so ye editor was there placed (ye editor) in the rear. Naturally the country air is more refreshing so without a word the route led straight there. No doubt if H. G.'s had not left his head, the party would now be in Frisco, but it did and this was then the turning point. On the way back to Omaha, Nebraska, the party was stopped by a "whatyoumakin'" on the "Interstate" and there was stopped, many miles from home and mother, not to mention a nice, warm bed. It was not thought that anyone else would have nerve enough to motor on a night like this, so it was unanimously agreed that a "watch party" would be held and would set there and watch the Sun rise. However, after many long minutes, a car have into sight, and it was not the Sun, but Edward Horton in a relief boat coming back to the rescue. Moral—Keep away from the fellow who owns an automobile on winter nights.

What would the love be without—The honest young farmer?

The country girl who goes to the city?

The Prince Albert and "old-headed" can't?

The Vampire who wants most vampishly?

Byvianus Smucker has joins the Elito Feature Film company as an expert thrower of mustard pie.

Sometimes, we feel confident that no chieftain ever appeared in the movies without wearing sideburns.

There was a young man from Virginia who said to his girl, "We'll continue."

To go to them shows

Where they can't see your clothes.

As if anything busts, I can fix 'em."

In order that the smallest detail of local color should not be neglected, stowed prizes were in the boarding houses seen in the trams, "They Met and Then Parted."

You have all read more or less about jealousy among movie actors and actresses, but one would hardly think that it extended even to the brain offices where the film is sold, but it is true and it is right here

RETURNS TO OLD PLACE AS FILM MANAGER.

F. A. VAN HUSAN

A few months ago F. A. Van Husan, then local manager of the Universal Film company, decided that he would go in business for himself. He organized the Western Supply company, located at Twelfth and Harney streets, whose business was supplying equipment and supplies necessary to the operation of a modern motion picture theater. "Van," as he is best known among the movie men, was successful in working up a large and prosperous business. But, once in the movie game, always, so we now find him back at the head of the Universal local branch as manager, still retaining the Western Supply company. Jake Mitchell, who was made manager at the time "Van" resigned, will remain as assistant manager. George A. Rogers, who has assisted Mr. Van Husan at the Western Supply company, has been named manager of the concern.

In dear old Omaha, too. It was exposed in these columns a few weeks ago that Lester Starnes, local manager, was a proud father. One of the salaried by the name of Morgan Walsh now announces that he also is in this class, but he was so overjoyed at being a father that he is a nervous wreck and is laid up in bed. The very young man's name has not yet been decided on, but it is even bet it will be George.

The reason, of course, is that George Walsh is one of the leading Fox stars. One of the foremost directors of this company is Raoul Walsh. If many more Walsh's join the Fox organization, it might just be possible that the name would be changed to W. J. Film Company.

New York is full of actors with touching inclinations, great ideas, and no money. They say that (a rare kind of meat) has advanced in price.

Marian Sais, the Kalem star, has several hobbies (not horses). One is the collection of saddles and bridles. She possesses nine, five of the saddles having been given her by the big-hearted cowboys who have ad-

NO OPPOSITION TO GEN. CARRANZA

Although Two Other Candidates Are in Field, They Show No Strength.

ELECTION TO BE MARCH 11

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Mexico City, Feb. 22.—Little doubt is expressed throughout Mexico as to the identity of the successful candidate for president of the republic at the elections to be held Sunday, March 11. Although two other candidates have announced themselves, General Venustiano Carranza, first chief of the constitutional army in charge of the executive power, practically has no opposition. The two other candidates who have announced themselves are Nicolas Zuniaga Miranda of Mexico City and Francisco A. Garcia of Zaragoza, Puebla. The first is known as the perpetual candidate, as he has appealed to the voters for their ballots at every election for twenty years, opposing Diaz and Madero. He is not taken seriously and neither is Garcia, who is practically unknown.

Voters Must Take Part.

Politicians will have little difficulty "getting out the voters" at this election, as those who are eligible, registered and have not some excellent excuse are subject to a penalty of a month in jail or a fine of from 20 to 200 pesos each if they do not cast their ballots. The new constitution provides that the exercise of suffrage at elections is one of the duties of a Mexican citizen and this provision will be placed in effect.

Impeachment Charge Against Gov. Ferguson

Austrian, Tex., March 3.—Impeachment charges against Governor James E. Ferguson were filed in the Texas house of representatives this morning by Representative H. P. Davis.
