

CAN'T SPARE CASH TO FEED PRISONERS

Salaries Must Be Paid Out of What Little is Left in the Treasury.

SHERIFF'S CREDIT IS GOOD

After going on record as disallowing Sheriff Clark's claim for the jail feeding in January, amounting to something over $1,500, comes now the democratic county board with a threadbare excuse—it couldn't pay the sheriff's account for the feeding of prisoners if it wanted to.

Though not enlightening anyone as to why this state of affairs was not explained before, Commissioner O'Connor, chairman of the board, announced that there is hardly enough money in the general fund to pay salaries from now till August—the time of the next levy.

"I don't see how we could possibly pay the sheriff's claim," said the commissioner. "The money in the general fund, together with some taxes that will be coming in, is barely sufficient to pay the salaries of county employes up till the time of the next levy."

Out of Poor Fund.

Commissioner O'Connor declared that other expenses, such as foodstuffs and supplies for the county institutions, will come out of the poor fund.

Sheriff Clark says that he has been forced to borrow considerable money from banks with which to meet the bills incurred in feeding the jail prisoners. These loans, one for $1,000 and the other for $500, he will have to pay interest on, he avers. The sheriff also used his semi-monthly salary checks in February to help pay bills for foodstuffs and jail supplies.

The sheriff has not been officially informed by the board that there is not enough money in the general fund to pay his claim. The impression created right along up till now was that the claim was disallowed because the sheriff did not submit itemized accounts of his actual expenditures for the jail.

"I may not have the money, but my credit's mighty good," remarked the sheriff.

Thugs Rob Victim In Broad Daylight In Sight of Many

One of the most daring holdups in several months was staged at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon near Ninth and Douglas streets by two thugs, who, in full view of many passing pedestrians, slugged and robbed J. E. Berg, 1018 California street, and then made their escape.

Berg said he had been playing cards in a saloon at Ninth and Douglas streets. He saw two men lurking about the place and thought at the time they might have been watching him, but he gave them no more thought when he departed from the place.

The two men, Berg says, followed him from the saloon and a short distance away jumped upon him. Berg put up a stubborn resistance. He knocked one of the bandits down, but the other slugged him from behind. He then robbed Berg of $45 in money and fled.

It all happened so quickly the thugs easily made their get-away.

THIEVES RETURN FOR DISABLED CAR

Owner Almost Traps Them, but Bandits Have the More Powerful Machine.

MAKE GOOD THEIR ESCAPE

Two automobile thieves who attempted to steal an automobile from Tom Morrissey, 1922 Emmet street, were almost captured by Morrissey and Richard Dugdale, who laid in ambush for the motor bandits and then gave pursuit when the bandits started flight.

Morrissey, in company with his sister and niece, was making a visit at 4015 Izard street Thursday evening. When he parked his car outside of the residence at the above number he had a "hunch" his car might be stolen. So he removed the spark plugs from the engine.

About 10:30, upon looking outside, he discovered his car was missing. With Dugdale, who was also visiting at the above number Morrissey instituted a search of the neighborhood, believing the car could not be very far away because it would have to be towed, the engine being incapacitated when the spark plugs were removed.

Coast Down Hill. He spied the machine at Forty-second and Izard streets, two blocks down the hill. The thieves had evidently coasted it down the incline.

Just as Morrissey had placed the spark plugs back into position preparatory to returning with the machine he heard the whir of an approaching car. Believing the thieves might be returning with another car to tow his machine away Morrissey, with Dugdale, hid behind their car in the hope of ambushing the bandits.

But just after the thieves climbed out of their car they detected Morrissey, leaped back into their own machine and started a hurried flight. Morrissey and Dugdale leaped into the Morrissey machine and started pursuit. They kept up the chase for eight blocks, but the fleeing thieves, having the more powerful machine, hit up a speed of fifty miles an hour and escaped.

Oh, Sherlock! One Man, Two Horses and Hayrack Gone

"The Mystery of the Missing Hayrack," is "baffling" the sleuths of the sheriff's office. Here are the "clues" they have to work on:

A large hayrack, the motive power of which was a span of bay horses, owned by Albert E. Martin, a farmer living two miles west of Elmwood park, disappeared Thursday morning. Neither the hayrack, the horses, nor the driver, Robert George, a hired man, have been heard from since.

ROY BANGERT MAY YET GET INTO NAVY

His Stubborn Refusal to Be Turned Down Might Win the Day.

WADDELL ASKS A WAIVER

A burning desire to serve his country in the navy is probably going to land Roy A. Bangert of Grand Island on one of Uncle Sam's battleships, although he has been turned down four times by recruiting officers because he was a trifle too short and under weight.

"Let me in anyway, won't you?" young Bangert begged of Lieutenant Waddell. "I want to serve my country, and I'll probably soon grow enough to make up the tiny discrepancy."

He is 18 years of age, is one-fourth of an inch shorter than the minimum and lacks four pounds of meeting the weight requirements.

Wants a Fight. Ever since a year ago, when he first tried to join the navy, Bangert has sought periodically to increase his height and weight to meet the requirements. Periodically he has come to Omaha and sought to enlist.

Now Lieutenant Waddell has asked Navy department headquarters at Washington to issue a waiver, so that Bangert can be enlisted in spite of the regulations. The lad passed all other examinations satisfactorily. He is now in Omaha, awaiting word from Washington.

"Gee, I hope they will let me in," he says. "I'm awfully anxious to fight for Uncle Sam."

Mrs. N. B. Updike Head Of the P. E. O. Sisterhood

Mrs. N. B. Updike is the new president of chapter E. P. E. O. sisterhood, elected at the annual meeting held Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. E. George. Mrs. G. W. Tribble is vice president; Mrs. J. A. Bryans, recording secretary; Mrs. F. L. Adams, corresponding secretary;

WHAT'S THE CAUSE OF GOUT, RHEUMATISM, LUMBAGO?

PROF. H. STRAUSS, M. D., of the Royal Charity Hospital, Berlin, says, "The cause for an attack of gout, rheumatism, lumbago, is supplied by the increase of uric acid in the blood serum, the result of various causes—the most frequent of which is renal."

Before an attack, one suffers sometimes from headache, neuralgia, twinges of pain here and there or confined to a single locality." Dr. Levison and Dr. Strauss both hold that a long continued disturbance of the kidney function, resulting in an accumulation of uric acid in the blood serum, causes these painful afflictions.

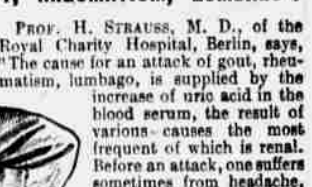

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead, when the back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; when you suffer with sick-headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach; or you have the rheumatic pains of lumbago, gout, sciatica, when the weather is bad, do not neglect the warning, but try simple means.

As Dr. STRAUSS says, the amount of fluid should be regular and distributed thru the day. Take six or eight glasses of water thru the day, a glass of lukewarm water at night just before going to bed, or a pint of hot water a half hour before meals (with one-half teaspoonful of bicarbonate of soda.)

Then obtain at your nearest drug store ANURIC, double or triple strength. This to flush the kidneys and to act as a tonic so that the kidneys will filter out the uric acid poison. ANURIC, double or triple strength, is more potent than lithia, and in most cases it will dissolve the uric acid as hot water does sugar.

Mrs. F. M. Cox, treasurer; Mrs. J. H. Fitton, chaplain; Mrs. W. A. Shropshire, guard, and Mrs. R. B. Zachary, journalist. Mrs. Updike and Mrs. George are the delegates to the grand chapter convention in Fremont in June, with Mrs. Tribble and Mrs. Zachary as alternates.

Mrs. W. B. Woodward, a former president, came from Villisca, Ia., to attend the meeting.
