

News of the Week in Social and Club Circles

DOZENS of plans are popping around in the heads of the young people who are away at school, plans for the spring vacation and Easter holidays, which will soon fall due. These holidays vary in length, but the majority of them are too short to allow the school folk to come to Omaha for the recess. Some fortunate young people have their parents with them at their schools, others will join parties in Washington or at the coast resorts, but one and all are planning a time of unlimited gaiety. House parties and visits to friends will occupy a great many. It would be impossible to tell you what each and every young person of your acquaintance expects to do during the holiday time of the next two months, but these are a few of the arrangements:

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baldrige will leave soon for Atlantic City, where they will be joined for the Easter recess by Miss Gwendolyn Wolfe, who attends Miss Fawcett's school in New York, and her brothers, Dudley, who is in school at New Haven, and Gratton Wolfe, who attends school at Pomfret, Conn.

Mr. Russell Peters, who took the part of the leading woman in the masque given at Cornwell recently, may have the pleasure of traveling during the spring vacation. There is some talk of taking the masque on the road during Easter week. His mother, Mrs. A. D. Peters, may spend the week with him if the "road show" is given up.

Mr. Milton Rogers, who is at the Blake school in Minneapolis, will come to spend the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Fuller left a week ago Monday to spend ten days with their son, Edward, at Mr. Washburn's school in Brooklyn, Conn., and their daughter, Mary, at the Bennett school in Milbrook, N. Y.

Mr. Herbert Davis, son of Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Davis, has purchased a handsome new roadster, which so far has been kept in New York. At the Easter holidays Mr. Davis with a friend or two will go to New York from Cornwell for that little car and have a real boy's vacation with it.

Miss Florence Russell, at Smith, will visit friends in Boston during the holidays. Her sister, Miss Anne, will come home from the state university for the recess.

Mrs. W. B. T. Belt visited her daughter, Miss Dorothy, at school at Kenosha, Wis., a week ago, and finding her slightly ill brought her home for a short rest. Mrs. Belt accompanied her daughter back to Kemper Hall the first of last week. Miss Dorothy will be home again for Easter.

Mr. Malcolm Baldrige will come home to spend the spring holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Baldrige. His vacation begins about April 1 and lasts ten days.

Miss Erna Reed has a variety of plans for her vacation. The original plan was to go to Bermuda, and the young women of the party would have gone in great glee in spite of the rebellion had not parental objections prevented. As it is, Miss Reed and three of her classmates expect to go from Vassar to Washington for a few days and from there to Atlantic City for a short stay. They have other equally delightful plans under consideration.

Mr. Warren Breckenridge, who is at Harvard law school, will utilize his vacation by making a short trip to Marblehead or some of the other coast resorts. Mr. Fritz Bucholz will not come home from Yale for this spring holiday.

Mr. Jabin Caldwell will go up from New Haven to New York for the Eastern vacation. His brother, Mr. David Caldwell, who has been in school at Lawrenceville, is coming home next week, because of illness and will spend the rest of the year in California.

Mr. Francis Gaines will not be at home during the vacation, but his mother, Mrs. F. H. Gaines, and perhaps Mr. Gaines, are planning to go east at that time.

Miss Mary Gifford will spend the holidays with friends in Pittsburgh.

Miss Myrle Gilchrist may spend the vacation with friends in Cincinnati or she may stay at Lexington, Ky., where she attends Hamilton college. The girls of the school have been having a gay time this winter. Their last party was a Colonial ball and Miss Myrle as Columbia and another girl as Uncle Sam led the grand march. The next frolic in prospect will take place on May day.

Cornell students have only about a week of vacation, and so few of them will have time to make the trip to Omaha. Mr. John Hannighen, who is a senior this year, expects to spend his vacation at a house party as the guests of some of the guests at the recent Cornell festivities.

Miss Leola Harris may spend her vacation from Wellesley at the shore or she may accompany a party of young women to Washington.

Miss Catherine Hastings will be at home from Monticello Seminary, Godfrey, Ill., about March 29, to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron K. Hastings.

Miss Edith Howe will be one of a party of girls who go to Washington for the vacation. After her return she will spend the few remaining days with her roommate at Fall River, Mass.

Mr. Channing Jordan will be at home from Shattuck for the week following March 20.

Mr. F. H. Myers will go east soon with Miss Dorothy, who is at the Sergeant school in Cambridge, Mass., will spend her vacation traveling with him.

Mr. Guy Hamilton Beckett of Omaha, is playing one of the leading parts in the Union College Dramatic club's musical comedy, "Come to Balm's Land," which makes its initial appearance in Glenn Falls, N. Y., on Monday evening, March 12. On Friday of this week a performance will be given in Schenectady. Mr. Beckett plays the leading feminine role as Gloria Quale, a SMART CIRCLES of Omaha are rejoicing in the presence of three charming visitors, one of whom will remain here permanently, to brighten the somberness of Lent. They are Mrs. Perry Allen of New York, a one-time Omaha beauty who is visiting her mother, Mrs. William G. Sloan; Mrs. Louis Calder, also of the great metropolis, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Martin Harris; and Mrs. John R. Dumont, who is at the J. H. Dumont home, after four years' absence.

Mrs. Perry Allen

prima donna. Mr. Beckett has very great natural talent and an excellent voice.

Miss Elizabeth Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Wright, who attends Sweet Briar college in Virginia, had a delightful visit to Washington during the inauguration. While in Washington she was the guest of Mrs. Franklin Van Rensselaer, who is visiting her parents, Major and Mrs. Lord.

Last of Fine Arts Lectures.

"Art in Modern Life" is the subject of Frank Alvah Parsons' lecture before the Omaha Society of Fine Arts Monday at 4 o'clock at the Hotel Fontenelle. This is the last of the lecture series and sponsored by the big art society. #### News of the Wayfarers.

Miss Virginia Offutt and Miss Esther Wilhelm, with Mrs. Charles Offutt, plan to spend the Easter vacation at Atlantic City.

Miss Erna Reed went down from Vassar for the Alpha Delta Phi dance at Sherry's Friday evening, when she was the guest of Fritz Bucholz of Yale. Jarvis Offutt and Philip Chase were also at this dance, which is one of the smart fraternity events of the season.

Mrs. Charles Kountze is still in Chicago at the hospital, but expects to go to French Lick Springs, Ind., with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cudahy before coming home.

Miss Martha Gyger, who is visiting relatives in Philadelphia and New York City, will spend the week-end at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., with a friend at Vassar.

To Take West Point Exams.

Mr. Wilkins Rustin, who has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. C. B. Rustin, and his sister, Mrs. Brandon Howell, for the last month, left Saturday evening for New York, where he will take his examinations for West Point March 20. He will then go to Virginia to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Vincent Moore, formerly Mrs. William Percival Goodwin of this city, where he will remain until June.

Mr. Rustin has been fortunate enough to receive besides his appointment to West Point from New York two alternates from Nebraska and an alternate from New York state to Annapolis.

Mrs. Allen's Washington Visit.

Before arriving in Omaha to visit her mother, Mrs. William G. Sloan, at the Colonial, Mrs. Perry Allen of New York City visited Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh in Washington home, which is admittedly the handsomest residence in the capital. Mrs. O. H. Belmont was another house guest of Mrs. Walsh who, during their stay, entertained for Vice President and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall.

Mrs. Ned McLean, Mrs. Walsh's daughter, and the mother of the famous McLean baby, heir to many millions, gave a large luncheon in honor of Mrs. Allen. Guests at both affairs were men and women prominent in diplomatic circles in Washington. The next day, during the inaugural ceremonies, Mrs. McLean entertained at luncheon 800 Annapolis cadets who took part in the ceremonies.

Looming on Social Horizon.

Mrs. J. O. Philippi and her daughter, Miss Mary, will entertain at a luncheon next Saturday in honor of their house guests, Mrs. Harry Wilkins of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Elwood Bailey of Jackson, Mich.; and Miss Ulena Ingersoll of Mount Pleasant, Ia. #### New Church Housewarming.

For the housewarming planned by the members of the new First Presbyterian church a musical will be given at the edifice, Tuesday evening and a reception Wednesday evening. The musical will be given by William E. Zuech, who comes from Chicago to play on the wonderful echo organ, which is Senator J. H. Millard's gift. Miss Jessie Millard will give a luncheon for old friends of Mr. Zuech on Tuesday at her home.
