Foreign Trade Drops Off $190,000,000 During February

Washington, March 17.—American foreign trade decreased approximately $190,000,000 during February, the first month of Germany's unrestricted submarine warfare.

The total purchases abroad in February were $199,576,597, against $241,816,282 in January.

The falling off of exports and imports was due, in the opinion of department officials, almost wholly to Germany's unrestricted submarine warfare.
