

GAME WARDENS AT WORK ALONG PLATTE

Federal Agents Secure Evidence at Several Towns of Shooting of Wild Fowl.

POTATO SELLERS FINED

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—A corps of government game wardens are at work along the Platte river in Nebraska, and a number of cases of illegal shooting have been recorded at Cozad, Gothenburg and Lexington, in violation of the federal migratory bird law, according to United States District Inspector R. P. Holland of Atchison, Kan. Inspector Holland was in conference Saturday with State Game Warden G. G. Koster and Governor Neville. While no arrests are made for law violations, names and facts are taken and regular information charges are filed, which, under the law, are valid for three years. These informations are held up pending action by the United States supreme court in determining the constitutionality of the federal law. Due to these hunters, if the law is declared valid.

Potato Sellers Fined.
After prosecuting the produce house of Levinson & Robinson of Omaha for selling bad potatoes, the State Pure Food commission has gone a step further and successfully prosecuted the firm which sold the potatoes to the produce house. This was the Columbus Fuel and Storage company, which pleaded guilty, according to the Pure Food department, to two counts, "misbranding," in calling large rotting and cut potatoes "small potatoes," and "being adulterated," by being decomposed and unfit for food.

The Columbus firm, in County Judge John Gibbon's court, paid a fine of $25 on each count. The Omaha firm had been fined $10 on each of the two counts.

State House Girls Celebrate.
Daughters of Erin numbering twenty from the various state offices of the capitol celebrated St. Patrick's day at a luncheon at the Lincoln Commercial club Saturday noon.

Girls exclusively arranged the program and planned the celebration, to which not a man was invited. The organizer and toastmaster was Miss Anne O'Donnell of the state superintendent's office.

Every girl present had to respond to a toast with an Irish story. They wore green "Erin Go Bragh" emblems crossed with American flags. All were those who traced their ancestry, close or remote, to the Emerald Isle.

These were the guests: Ruth Steyer, Ceal Foster, Cora Thompson, Mammie Muldoon, Anna Whelan, Leota Miller, Isabel Ford, Anna Tracy, Eustochium Matthews, Martha Woods, Jean O'Shea, Lenore Daily, Myrtle Keegan, Alice McElfresh, Tillie Heagney, Beula Blanchard, Alice Florer, Frances Daily and Helen Carraher.

Subjects of toasts ranged from "America" and "Nebraska" to "The Shillalah."

MAIL CONGESTION AND DELAY AT TRANSFER TERMINAL—These pictures, taken at the Council Bluffs terminal transfer, showing different views on separate days, will give the public in general an idea of a sight that is becoming very familiar to transcontinental travelers. It shows the heaps of mail lying out in the open, waiting to be handled under the new dispensation. Delay of twenty-four to forty-eight hours is expected, and some cases of weeks of waiting are reported. All sorts of mail but letters are included in mass.

Omaha, March 16.—To the Editor of The Bee: A few days ago several articles appeared in your paper in regard to the demoralization of the Railway Mail service, only facts and figures were not strong enough. The order to cut all lines has gone into effect in spite of protest of the Commercial club and Congressmen Lohbeck. In this week's order we find that three more "one-man runs" are discontinued and closed pouch service established, taking off these clerks and reducing them to the surplus list. As far as the Council Bluffs terminal is concerned, the public has no conception of the delay of mails. Daily papers destined for Oregon points from Omaha, including your papers, have been worked there twenty-four hours after they were mailed, and which should have been in Green River, Wyo., by the time they got started. It is a matter of getting a sack full before it is sent, causing delays of twenty-four to forty-eight hours. "Outside" packages for news-dealers have been found in sacks and have been delayed twenty-four to forty-eight hours, being taken direct from one mail train and left behind when another train was started west and supposed to take all this mail.

The following are some other conditions of our economical mail service: Last week a sack of circulars was chopped out of ice and sleet that had been there since December 25, when trucks of mail were left in the open without guarding against exposure. Some circulars mailed by an Omaha firm quoting prices good for two weeks were worked there three weeks after the prices were no good anymore. Some circulars that were worked up and ready to go were left four days, simply waiting for

Governor Will Open New River Bridge at Kearney

Kearney, Neb., March 17.—(Special).—Governor Keith Neville will head the Nebraska celebrities who are expected in the city next month when the Platte river bridge here is formally opened. State Engineer Johnson and heads of the house and senate committees are also invited, and a majority of them have accepted. The governor stated that he would be on hand and consequently plans are being made over here for a proper and fitting opening. Kearney and Buffalo counties will combine their efforts in this direction. Painters gave the structure a finishing touch last week. In the event the old wooden bridge goes out with the ice, which is feared, the new structure will be thrown open to travel, and the engineering firm completing the job does not care to rush the opening until the bridge has been accepted. This may be done next week, when State Engineer Johnson is here.

CATARRH IS STAGNATION PERUNA IS INVIGORATION

Maintain Your Health!
Look well to the foods that enter your body. See that they are not harmful in any way. Impure air and harmful food will weaken anybody's health. You may breathe the purest of air and eat the most beneficial food and still poison your body if the nutrition has to pass through diseased membranes. The mucus membrane protects every part of your body exposed to the air. Through it you breathe and through it you absorb your food. When it is unhealthy the air is unhealthy, and the food is poisoned by your own body. An unhealthy membrane has catarrh, which is stagnation of the blood, sometimes called inflammation. When your food and the very air you breathe go through a diseased membrane, how can they be healthful?

Ask Yourself If It Isn't the Truth
Hundreds of people suffer from systemic catarrh. Nature makes a great struggle to throw off this disease, but she cannot do it unaided. PERUNA is a reliable remedy for such conditions, tested by 44 years. Read what some of the restored have to say about it.

CATARRH OF WHOLE SYSTEM Mrs. James A. Hall, Box 36, Norris City, Ill., writes: "About twelve years ago my health began to fail. I couldn't eat anything without suffering for it. I had heart burn, sour stomach, palpitation of the heart, smothering spells, pains in my sides and back. "Doctors failed to relieve me. I continued to grow worse until I was able to sit up only a part of the time. "Peruna books described my feeling so truly I sent at once and got a bottle and began taking it. "When I had taken two and one-half bottles I began to eat without suffering. I continued to improve. When I had taken eight I was like a new person. That was nine years ago. "I think Peruna the greatest family remedy there is, for so many ailments are due to catarrhal trouble."	TONIC FOR WOMEN Mrs. Mary E. Barlow, 4709 Champlain Ave., Flat 1, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I can recommend Peruna as a good medicine for chronic catarrh of the bowels and stomach. I have been troubled severely with it for over three years. I consulted two of Chicago's best doctors, but none seemed to make any improvements whatever. One year ago I began to take Peruna, the wonderful tonic for women, and I noticed a wonderful improvement at once. I took six bottles in succession and I always have it on hand to take some now and then when my cough is bad. Words cannot express my praise for your tonic. I weighed only ninety pounds before taking Peruna, now one hundred nineteen pounds. Anyone who has chronic catarrh should try Peruna. It will help anyone."	PERUNA BROUGHT STRENGTH Mrs. H. D. Amoss, White Plains, Ga., writes: "I feel like a new woman. "When I commenced taking Peruna I could hardly walk across my room; now I am doing my own work; can walk a mile and a half to church. "I shall never cease to thank you for prescribing for me. I have been under the treatment of two doctors, but never received any benefit until I commenced taking your medicine. "I am now well and able to do my own work."
