"The wreckers are coming!" This entire building is to be torn down. We have received notice to vacate; as a result we were forced to devise the Parisian Cloak Co.'s Closing-Out Sale

Starts Monday, March 19th / Instant Action!

Omaha's best known, best liked Women's Appareling Establishment must terminate its business most abruptly. The"wreckers" force instant selling.

The order to vacate assails the Parisian just when Crisp, New 1917 Spring Stocks are complete to the very utmost point. An array of stunning Attire.

$50,000 Worth of Ladies' Suits, Coats, Skirts, Dresses, Etc., Awaits Buyers at 1/4, 1/3-Yes, Even ¹/₂ Off. All New, Spring Attire

Here's the explanation, brief, yet thorough. Until a few days ago we thought we could somehow or other pull over ONE more season at this location. We thought that perhaps the new building upon this site might not yet be commenced for a time. And —we purchased accordingly—quite the GREATEST, unquestionably the LARGEST, and assuredly the NOBBIEST Spring stock of women's attire we have EVER purchased. But—events fly thick and startling in this modern era and we have been notified that "The Wreckers Are Coming" to demolish this structure. As a consequence, we must do just as YOU would do, were you confronted with the SAME conditions—WE ARE GOING TO CLOSE OUT THIS ENTIRE STOCK IN A HURRY, AT PRICES LOW ENOUGH TO EFFECT A HURRIED CLEARANCE. The figures quoted below are eloquent, for PRICES TALK.

LODGE ROOM NEWS

ing Many Members.

BISHOP C. B. MITCHELL.

Knights of Pythias. Nebraska Lodge No. 1 will hold its regular meeting Monday at 8 p. m. at Crounse hall. There will be work in the rank of knight. All senators must be present on this date. There will also be installation of the new vice chancellor, Brother Virgil Kennedy, vice C. C. Blackmore, resigned. The Pythian Sisters met Friday aft-ernoon at the home of Sister Getzman and completed arrangements for the Bishop Charles Bayord Mitchell of Minneapolis will occupy the pulpit at the First Methodist Episcopal church this morning. Bishop Mitchell is one of the newly elected bishops of the Methodist church and this is his first visit to Omaha since his election. He is a brother of Mrs. C. H. Aull of this city, who is state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolu-tion. He is one of the most eloquent preachers in the Methodist church. The Pythian Sisters met Friday alt-ernoon at the home of Sister Getzman and completed arrangements for the reorganization of their auxiliary. Quite a number of the knights and their friends journeyed to Council Bluffs last Tuesday evening and at-tended the party given by the Dokys. All report a good time and say that the Zem Zem was the best ever. Brother H. J. Hackett passed away last Thursday night after a very brief illness. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed, but the fu-neral will probably be Sunday after-noon at 2:30 from the Brailey & Dor-rance parlors, Nineteenth and Cuming streets. The Knights of Pythias will conduct the services. Don't forget that important matter under the fifteenth and one-half order of business. If you are unacquainted with it, it will pay you to investigate.

Order of Moose. "Story of Mooseheart," four reels of human interest, will be shown free at the Swedish Anditorium Saturday eve-ning, March 24, at 8:30. These pic-tures have to do with the protection of the home and the conservation of childhood. The entertainment is given under the auspices of Central Lodge of Omaha, No. 190, Loyal Or-der of Moose.

Odd Fellows. Omaha Lodge No. 2 conferred the second degree last Friday. A commit-tee is at work revising the by-laws and the same will be presented for consideration April 6. A committee has been appointed to confer with the other lodges to ar-range a program to be given April 26, which will be the ninety-eighth anni-versary of the order.

Emma B. Manchester Grove No. 156, Woodmen Circle, will give its regular monthly dance in Crounse hall Thursday evening.

Women's Relief Corps.

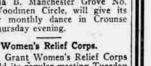

U. S. Grant Women's Relief Corps will hold its regular meeting Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock in Memorial hall.

Rescinds Tariff Order

suspended by the interstate Com-merce commission following com-plaint made by the traffic bureau of the Commercial club of Omalia and others. The roads had proposed to put this reconsigning charge into ef-fect March 15. The rule would have put into effect reconsigning charges on all freight except live stock, grain and fruits. The tariffs had fixed the charge at $2 if the order was given while the car was in transit to first destina-tion and $5 if given after arrival at original destination. As these charges seemed to be excessive and would have worked a considerable hard-ship on a great many lines of busi-ness, the taffic bureau protested be-fore the Interstate Commerce com-mission with the above result. The degree.
