U. S. STEEL HOLDS PLACE

New York, March 22.—The more irregular tendencies manifested by today's market were traceable to additional selling for the short account and a diminution of public interest. Dealings were again fairly broad, but individual offerings were in lighter volume, except in the more popular issues.

WHEAT DEMAND IS ACTIVE

The cash grain situation was very strong today, but the local trade continued quiet on account of the extremely light receipts. The demand, however, for wheat was only moderately active, but there was an excellent demand for corn and oats, and both of these cereals sold at record prices.
