

REGULATIONS FOR PRINTING WAR NEWS

State, War and Navy Officials Give Rules for Handling Military Information.

PRESS WILL CO-OPERATE

Washington, March 24.—Regulations for the guidance of the press of the United States in handling news in the present emergency framed by officials of the State, War and Navy departments and accepted by representatives of the principal press associations were made public today. The regulations are as follows: "In view of the desire of the press of the country to refrain from the publication of information harmful to the public interest and with the intention of securing the maximum publicity, with the least injury thereto, the following regulations are hereby issued for its guidance, which it is earnestly requested be closely observed:

"Regulations 1. No information, reports or rumors should be published which tend to disclose the military and naval policies of the government of the United States.

"(This regulation is directed against the publication of any news or comment which might reveal the strategic disposition or operation of armies or their subdivisions or the fleet or its subdivisions; any measures which might be adopted in consonance with the department of state for the furtherance of American defense and, in general any plans for the use of the army and navy during the existence of an emergency.)

"Military Movements. "2. No information, reports or rumors should be published which tend to disclose:

"(A)—Movements or employment of armies and their subdivisions; fleets and their subdivisions.

"(B)—Movements of vessels of the navy or their arrival at or departure from any port.

"(C)—Departures of merchant vessels should not be mentioned and it is desired that the name of the port of arrival be omitted.

"(D)—Assignment or movement, whether as groups or individuals, of officers and men of the military and naval establishments.

"(E)—Transportation of mails, supplies or munition.

"(F)—Information of any designs, inventions or test thereof; or of manufacture, transport or distribution of implements of war.

"(G)—Concentration of military or naval supplies or location of such supplies.

"(H)—Activities in or about arsenals, fortifications, army posts, naval magazines, navy yards, naval bases and radio stations.

Maps and Pictures.

"3. Publication of any maps, diagrams or photographs which in any way might seem of military or naval value.

"4. No moving pictures should be displayed which are of military or naval value.

"5. Any doubtful matter should be submitted to the authorized representatives of the department concerned who shall give an immediate decision thereon and keep the inquiry made strictly confidential.

"6. It is requested that no information, reports or rumors attributing a policy to the government in any international situation not authorized by the president or a member of the cabinet be published without first consulting the department of state.

"Note. The above regulations shall not be enforced in any matters officially given to the press by properly authorized officials."

TORNADOES KILL MORE THAN FORTY

poles. A path four miles long was swept by the wind.

North of Decatur the village of Monmouth was struck and a number of persons were injured. Buildings were destroyed and miles of fencing and electric wires were blown down.

Teachers at one school, seeing the approaching storm, took the pupils to the basement of the building before the roof was whipped from over their heads. Near Corydon two women were probably fatally injured by a storm and many pupils at the Crosby schools suffered broken arms and other injuries when the building was rased. Two Grant county men were hurt in a storm near Swazee.

One Dead Near Carlisle. Carlisle, Ind., March 23.—One man was killed and fifteen persons injured when a tornado devastated a thickly populated farming district south of Carlisle today. The storm swept a district of eight miles long and one-half mile wide.

Omaha Man Sues Rail Conductor Over Alienation

Louis F. Thomas, 422 South Tenth street, a draftsman in the employ of the Union Pacific, is the plaintiff in a $25,000 alienation of affections suit which will be tried at Rushville, Neb., before Judge Westover of the Sheridan county district court, starting Tuesday.

The Omaha man is suing Walter P. White, a passenger conductor, for alleged alienation of his wife's affections. White has had the run between Chadron and Long Pine for the last twenty-three years. He is married.

According to Thomas' allegations, his wife met White at Chadron in September, 1915. He alleges that she left him a few weeks later. The wife sued for divorce. The case is now pending.

John Wenninghoff Dead; Well Known Contractor

John B. Wenninghoff, 50, and prominent contractor, died Saturday morning at his home, 1518 South Twenty-seventh street, following a brief illness. He had been a resident of Omaha for over thirty-five years.

Surviving are five children, Mrs. C. B. Mills of North Platte, Mrs. O. H. Gibbs of Omaha, Miss Mathilda, John and Alfred Wenninghoff of Omaha.

The funeral will be held Tuesday morning from the residence to St. Magdalene's church, and regular high mass will be celebrated by Father Sinne. Burial will be in Forest Lawn.

LITTLE GIRL WILL NOT WED ABDUCTOR

Ruby Hutchinson Now Says Will Not Marry Even to Save Name.

BACK TO HERSHEY HOME

North Platte, Neb., March 24.—(Special.)—Freed from the influence of Walter Raueche, with whom she eloped from her home in Hershey, 14-year-old Ruby Hutchinson now declares that she hates her alleged abductor and that she has no desire to marry him, even to save her good name and to save Raueche from the penitentiary Raueche was arraigned in county court charged with kidnaping, waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the Lincoln county district court. His brother, Paul Raueche, and George Mudd, both of Hershey, furnished bond in the sum of $1,000.

At the county jail, where she was taken with Raueche by Sheriff Saltsbury when he returned to North Platte with the couple, the little girl met her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cahill, of Hershey. To her mother and Mrs. Sallisbury, wife of the sheriff, the child sobbed out the story of her elopement and of the wrong done her by the man she trusted. The story of the elopement told here was substantially the same as told by the girl in Omaha.

"When we were in Omaha I intended to marry Raueche just to keep him from going to prison," the child stated. "But now that I am back here again I don't want to marry him. I hate him and don't want to even see him again."

South Dakota Guards' Bonus Case Postponed

Pierre, S. D., March 24.—The suit before the supreme court of South Dakota to compel J. E. Handlin, state auditor, to pay $75,000 of the state funds appropriated by the last legislature for payment of members of the Fourth infantry, South Dakota National Guard, while in service on the Mexican border, today was postponed until March 30 by agreement of attorneys.

Mr. Handlin refused to recognize a warrant for the sum, signed by the governor on the grounds that the appropriation was unconstitutional. The suit is to test the procedure. Under the appropriation each man in the regiment would receive $75.

"Dismissed," Says Judge; Prisoner Dashes for Air

Tony Bronson, Fremont, told Police Judge Fitzgerald that he knew enough to go home once in a while and would proceed there immediately if the court would only give him that chance. The judge wrote "dismissed" on the blotter and Bronson started from the court room with such speed that Sergeant Wilson thought it was a prisoner trying to escape and yelled after him to stop. Bronson skidded a couple of times before he could halt and then the sergeant leisurely escorted him to the door.

Peruna Did Me More Good Than Two Years Under Doctor's Care

I Am Able to Work. Before I Could Not Help Myself.

can really say that I feel like another person. No more swollen feet and limbs. No more bloating of the abdomen. No more shortness of breath. No more stiff and sore joints. You have no idea what your treatment has done for me. It certainly has prolonged my life and made a new woman of me. Oh, such a blessing I have received through your kindness, Doctor, and the assistance of the medicine which you so kindly prescribed. I am able to work since I began your treatment, but before I was not able to help myself, much less work for any one else. All praise is due to your medical department and treatment. These who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

Mrs. O. D. Robinson, No. 36 St. Felix St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I have taken Peruna and it did me more good than all my ten years' treatment by special physicians. I
