Moriarity, Paynter and Logan repre-sent Omaha's contribution. Moriarity led last year in the 220 yard dash and the broad jump. His time in the dash was 24 seconds, while in the jump he cleared twenty feet and four inches. Although this is far from the state and valley marks, the Omaha athlete has been jumping consider-ably better than twenty feet leven inches in practice, which would indi-cate that he will get by with a few startlers this year. Nelson of Ne-braska City at the mile, Brian of Lin-coin at the discus throw and Galilian of Hardy at the 880-yard run, are the only other veterans of note, who will survive. He took a couple of base balls with him and intends to work his arm into shape himself. Barham, it is believed, will prove a winner. Barham comes from Van-couver, where he pitched some great ball last year. He is, of course, a doubtful prospect, in a sense, but Rourke believes there is little danger that he will fail to deliver the goods. Needs One More.

And, as Stecher threw them, Caddock threw all four-teen in straight falls. It is, of course, true that Caddock didn't make as short work of them as did Stecher. That is all except two. Caddock bumped Bob Managoff off in thirty-three minutes, while it took Stecher forty minutes to turn the same trick and it took both thir-ty-three minutes to polish Paul Domke off.
