GRAIN AND PRODUCE

Bulk of Wheat Offerings Taken Up at New Record Breaking Prices.

CORN ALSO IS MOVING UP

Omaha, March 26, 1917.

The cash wheat situation was very good again today and while a few early sales were made at a slight decline the bulk of the offerings sold at record-breaking prices. No. 2 hard reaching $2.01 per bushel, and there were several cars of No. 2 and 3 hard that sold for $2.00.

The receipts of two days, which were rather light, were placed on the tables, but the demand was very strong and would probably have taken care of much larger offerings.

No. 2 hard wheat was quoted at $2.00@2.01; No. 3 hard ranged from $1.94 to $2.00½, with the bulk going at $1.96@1.97; No. 4 hard brought from $1.90 to $2.00 and the sample hard sold from $1.80 to $1.85.

The advance in wheat was followed by good gains in the corn market and a sale of No. 2 white at $1.17 set a new high mark for corn.

The commercial grades of white corn brought from $1.16½ to $1.17; yellow corn ranged in price from $1.15 to $1.16¼ and the better grades of mixed sold around $1.14@1.15¼, with the bulk of the samples selling at $1.15@1.15¼.

The oats market was firm and was quoted from unchanged to one-half cent higher.

The demand for this cereal was very good at the prevailing prices and the bulk of the offerings, which graded No. 3 white, sold at 62½@63c and two cars of No. 2 white brought 63½c, an advance of one-half cent over the highest previous sale.

Rye also reached a new high level, a car of No. 2 selling at $1.60, or 3c above Saturday's high quotation.

Barley was dull on account of light receipts and this market was quoted unchanged.

Clearances were: Wheat and flour, equal to 322,000 bushels.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,622,000 bushels and shipments 441,000 bushels, against receipts of 1,762,000 bushels and shipments of 863,000 bushels last year.

Primary corn receipts were 960,000 bushels and shipments 577,000 bushels, against receipts of 1,187,000 bushels and shipments of 589,000 bushels last year.

Primary oats receipts were 1,169,000 bushels and shipments 809,000 bushels, against receipts of 825,000 bushels and shipments of 691,000 bushels last year.

Omaha Futures Market.

May wheat opened strong at an advance of 1c to 1¼c over Saturday's closing prices and there was an active trade in this article during the entire session, while the trade in corn and oats was rather quiet.

The grain generally was very bullish today and a May wheat in the local market closed at an advance over the Chicago, a fact which traders regard as unusual, as the Chicago options are always quoted in advance of the local market.

A sharp advance was made in wheat during the early part of the session on reports of bad condition in the winter wheat belt, and many farmers in this territory say that their wheat will be a total loss.

Corn and oats closed steady, May corn ruling about unchanged, while May oats closed ¼c lower.

Suave Stranger Profits By Smooth Deals On Farm

Here's a tale of a "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" victim who destroyed the only evidence which could be used by the authorities to bring a member of the nimble-witted gentry to justice. It's an old, old story and the characters in it are sterotyped.

J. C. Willoughby, a hard-working farmer living in Thomas county, told it to County Attorney Magney.

The farmer one day was approached by an affable stranger, who expressed a willingness to buy a piece of land. Willoughby's farm, worth about $2,000, struck the stranger's fancy. He offered to buy it.

Would the farmer take a $300 check and a mortgage on the land for the farm? Sure.

So the stranger wrote a check for $300 and gave Willoughby a mortgage, receiving in return a deed to the farm.

The farmer didn't record the mortgage the next day, but he did the day following. Then he found that the farm had been sold to another party. Suspicious, he went to the bank to cash the check. He was told it was worthless. Disgusted, he tore it up—the only evidence of the transaction.

Now the farm is owned by a third party and Willoughby hasn't anything but a lot of advice given by others not to deal with check-writing gentlemen in the future.

City Waives Special Taxes If Regulars Are Paid

The city council committee of the whole voted to waive special taxes on lots 51 to 57 and 59 and 60, Rees Place, in favor of E. T. Peterson, who agreed to pay all regular taxes. The special taxes amount to $6,700, while the regular taxes to be paid in by Mr. Peterson amount to nearly $3,000. These lots are on the east side of Twenty-eighth street, between Mason and Pacific streets. Attorney Herdman, pleading for Mr. Peterson, agreed that the lots would be filled in not later than next summer.

Damage to State Bridges Is the Smallest in Years

A stiff northwest wind was the rule all through Nebraska, according to morning reports to the railroads. During the night in the central, eastern and southern portions there were showers and in the west snow flurries.

Everywhere along the Nebraska railroads the high water has subsided and about back to normal. Bridges on the Northwestern, on the branches north and west of Norfolk, have been repaired and trains are again back on schedules. Taken as a whole, the damage sustained by the railroads by reason of the spring floods was the lightest in years.

Ed P. Smith Resigns Job As Grain Men's Counsel

Ed P. Smith, attorney for the Omaha Grain exchange ever since its organization, has resigned and April 1 will become a member of the Updike Grain company, taking the position of general attorney. Mr. Smith will continue to reside in Omaha and, while he will not be active in the grain business, he will have entire charge of the company's legal business. Several attorneys are being considered by the directors of the Omaha Grain exchange, but no one has been selected as Mr. Smith's successor.

John A. Kuhn, who some years ago resigned as assistant general freight agent of the Northwestern road to become traffic manager for the Updike Grain company, has resigned and April 1 will be in business for himself and at the head of a claim bureau. In his new line of work Mr. Kuhn will have the grain men specially for his clients, but he will accept business from others. His specialty will be handling and settling claims that arise in connection with the grain trade.
