MARTY TRIES BOX MEN AT FIELDING

Bourke Manager Devotes Half An Hour Teaching Hurlers To Scoop Bunts.

THOMPSON HAS SORE FOOT

The Rourke's went through another good three-hour workout yesterday noon when the sun was high in the heavens and the atmosphere fairly comfortable.

Marty Krug started his charges at 11 o'clock in the morning and he refused to let them rest until 2 o'clock in the afternoon. After the fielding and batting practices, Marty devoted fully thirty minutes to his pitchers, instructing them how to field their positions.

Merz and O'Toole, both veterans of many a campaign and both of whom worked under Marty last year, showed their old skill. But it was the way Murphy Currie and Wayne Barham worked that pleased the onlookers. Both of these youngsters proved nifty lads at scooping up bunts and delivering them to first. Many hurlers lack proficiency in fielding their positions, but from the looks of things the Rourke's will not be so handicapped this year. With a little practice Currie and Barham will be as good fielding pitchers as the league boasts.

Shag Thompson is the only member of the troupe who isn't in great shape in every way. Shag has a bruise on his foot which causes him to limp a little, but outside of that there is absolutely no work for the hospital corps.

The pitchers have been working long enough so that they are beginning to cut loose quite a bit now and when they face the Brandeis Sunday in the first game of the year here it is believed they will be able to burn them down the groove in mid-spring if not mid-summer style.

Commissioner Four-Year-Law Is Declared Valid

Albion, Neb., March 29.—(Special.)—District Judge F. M. Button has handed down a decision in the Cavey against Reigle county commissioners' case. The finding of the court is that the effect of the election statute passed in 1905 was to lengthen the term of commissioner's office from three to four years; that the office was a statutory one and so governed; that the elections held in Boone county since 1906 on the theory that the term was three years could have no effect in changing the terms. Cavey was elected in 1909 at what was supposed to be the expiration of the former term, but instead he was merely elected for the unexpired one year of that four-year term, and as his predecessor vacated the office, Cavey became a de jure officer and remaining therein and exercising the functions of his office, Cavey has since remained de jure officer. He submitted himself to an election in 1912, which was not a legal election and had no effect upon the term of commissioner in his district, since which time no election has been held at the right time. Cavey remains as a de jure officer until the regular expiration of the term of the office of commissioner for the district, January, 1919.

TWO OMAHA GIRLS IN PHI BETA KAPPA

Thirty of Fair Sex and Six Boys Honored for Their Scholarship.

SIX GREEKS IN THE LIST

OMAHA GIRLS HONORED. Miss Ann Russell. Miss Olive Lehmer. Lincoln, March 29.—(Special.)—Two Omaha girls were among the thirty-six seniors of the University of Nebraska accorded Phi Beta Kappa honors here today at the annual Phi Beta Kappa convocation. Announcement of the Phi Beta Kappa awards was made by the president of the society, S. B. Gass.

Two fewer seniors won Phi Beta Kappa honors this year than in 1916, which was one of the largest classes in the history of the local chapter. The scholarship was higher this year than last, however, with the highest average of 94.2, two points higher than in 1916.

Of the thirty-six, thirty were girls and six were boys. Not a fraternity man won the coveted scholarship honor, while the sororities claimed six members.

Omaha Girls Winner. Miss Ann Russell, one of the Omaha girls to capture Phi Beta Kappa honors, is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Miss Olive Lehmer, the other Omaha girl, belongs to the senior girls' society of Black Masque, representing the thirteen most influential co-eds in the senior class.

This is the first year that Latin, Greek and mathematics has been omitted from the requisites for Phi Beta Kappa honors, but it did not seem to bring up the representation of the college men.

Following is the list of students winning Phi Beta Kappa honors: Oscar William Alm, Opportunity. Rose Gustava Anderson, Goldenberg. Ella Olive Bayles, Seward.

Caroline Catherine Clark, Hay Springs. Ray Clarke, Pawnee City. Louise Cox, Nebraska City. Margaret Isabel Criss, Tilden. Ada Laura Elliott, Lincoln. Vera Hester Ellison, Superior. Mary Irene Goodrich, Lincoln. Arthur William Ingersoll, Syracuse. Margaret Olive Kauffman, Hardy. Lillian Evelyn Keen, Plymouth. Olive Lehmer, Omaha. Fern Alice Lonsaker, Dodge. Ralph Merton Marx, Bayard. Elizabeth Jewell Parrin, Lincoln. Mattilda K. Peters, Lyons. Marcelline Harriet Power, Lincoln. Florence C. Schoenfeld, Lincoln. Florence C. Schoenfeld, Bethany. Vernon Madeline Storer, Red Cloud. Anna Marie Sturmer, Janes. Fay Evelyn Teal, Red Cloud. Dorothy M. Wallace, Lincoln. Beth Walker, Douglas. Doris Aline Weaver, Lincoln. Mildred Jennie Weason, Oakland. Helen Ida White, Lincoln. Mary Edith Woodburn, Alma. Mary Magdalene, Lincoln.
