(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, March 30.—(Special.)—During the last week I have been studying hogs and men, comparing their habits, code of ethics and conduct under fire and I find that the hog has been somewhat maligned and the epithets which have been hurled at him in some measure have been misdirected.

Clark Likely to Win.

What action the committee of twenty-seven republicans, of which Sloan is a member, will decide upon at tonight's session is problematical.

There were 181 members-elect in the caucus, which was undisturbed by any serious fights.

Sinking of Glynymel Confirmed

Sinking of British freight steamer Glynymel, reported by Berlin March 26, was confirmed by members of the crew who were passengers on the Orduna. The ship was on its way to London from a French port, the sailors said, and was torpedoed without warning on March 9.

Blank Date, March 30.—The fact that the Cunard liner Orduna was stopped off the Irish coast by a British torpedo boat destroyer and hurriedly ordered into the nearest port while North Channel was cleared of a great flock of mines suddenly discovered there, was revealed by the ship's officers as the reason the vessel was three days overdue when it reached its American destination today.

Upon arrival in the Irish port of refuge its officers said they found twenty-seven other ships had already escaped the mines peril by putting in there, including one American ship. Two other vessels had fallen victim of the mines, they learned, and had gone down.

The mine sweepers worked two days clearing the sea of the menace, destroying more than 100 mines. Then all the ships were ordered out at once, making their way through a lane of protecting torpedo boat destroyers and patrol boats until they reached safe waters.

On board the Orduna were five American airplane experts, who have been engaged in construction and instruction work for the French on the western front. It was learned they have been called back here to assist the development of this country's aerial service.

The text follows: "A manifesto having been published by the representatives of the workmen's union proclaiming a general strike without fixing a date and clearly with revolutionary purpose, and with the idea of disturbing public order, which was very marked last night at a public meeting, the government has suspended constitutional guarantees, after having arrested by judicial order the signers of the manifesto. Absolute tranquility reigns over Spain and the government trusts to common sense of the workmen and the effectiveness of the measures adopted to preserve public order."
