Asks Man Be Enjoined From Opening Another Store

Loftis Bros. & Co., a retail jewelry firm at 309 South Sixteenth street, filed suit in federal court against Arnold H. Edmondston.

Edmondston is the manager of the plaintiff's Omaha store at the above address. The petition says that when he was given this position on August 9, 1916, he signed an agreement stipulating that he would not establish a rival or competing line or assist any competing firm in Omaha during a period of four years after severing his connections with the plaintiff company.

It further alleges that he has left the plaintiff company and has organized a rival firm, the Arnold H. Edmondston company, has filed articles of incorporation and rented a store room in the Rose building. The plaintiff asks that he be enjoined for a period of four years from engaging in competing business in Omaha or from assisting in any way any competing firm.

Kansas City Church is Robbed; Pastor is Here

At 1 Saturday morning Central station was called by Rev. G. Washington, colored, here on a short visit, to the effect that he had received a telegram from Kansas City which stated that some one had entered and taken some of the belongings of his church.

"I want you to send the chief of police right down there and have the burglars apprehended," he said. He was advised that the matter was out of the jurisdiction of the Omaha police and that they could do nothing in the matter.

SLEEK "SLEUTH" IS IN MUCH SCANDAL

Three Wives Appear in Police Court to Tell What They Know of Hawthorne.

SAY HE HAD MANY ALIASES

Pretty Mrs. Paul Hawthorne, a country bred girl, 18 years old, and the bride of only a week, wept as she told Chief of Detectives Maloney that she didn't know much about her husband, who, police say, is too clever with women. Hawthorne was bound over to the district court Saturday under $500 bonds. Only a statutory charge has been lodged against him, but Assistant District Attorney Bedner unhesitatingly said that more serious charges might be brought against him later.

Hawthorne, who wears a black eye as a testimonial to a recent meeting with an angry husband, pleaded not guilty and waived preliminary examination when arraigned before Police Judge Fitzgerald. The complainant against him is Roscoe C. Tubbs, 3915 North Twenty-first street, a Union Pacific railroad clerk, whose wife is one of the important witnesses against Hawthorne.

Two other women, both married, appeared in court ready to add their testimony to the story which Mrs. Tubbs told.

Miss Hawthorne, sister of the defendant, volunteered the information that he was a detective. Hawthorne himself alleges that he is a sleuth and explains his predicament with Mr. and Mrs. Tubbs by stating that each hired him to watch the other. It was as a sort of a hired guardian-angel, he says, that he was precipitated into the scandal which promises to write into the annals of district court one of the most entertaining chapters of court history.

Hawthorne's specialty, police aver, was women. While he left his trusting young wife at home, they say, he connived, or tried to connive, with other men's wives schemes which would yield a cash profit.

Assert German-Americans Won't Take Part in Rally

Chicago, March 31.—That prominent German-Americans were asked to identify themselves with the big patriotic rally planned for Saturday night and refused to do so because the committee in charge could not tell them the nature of the resolutions which the meeting would be asked to adopt, was revealed today by Emil D. Wetten, secretary of the general committee on arrangement. Mr. Wetten declined to disclose the names of the men who refused to participate in the meeting. He felt that it would not be the part of discretion to do so.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

THIS new Paige Linwood "Six-39"—in the three months since it was announced—has won a distinction remarkable even for Paige Cars, which year after year establish records for instantaneous popularity.

This new Paige Linwood is already recognized as the most easily sold and the most eagerly bought five-passenger moderate-price motor car on the market. That has been its reception and achievement in three months.

You will find the explanation for this—when you see the Linwood—in the beauty of line and design, in the spacious roominess, in the elegance and comfort of every feature that go to make up luxurious motoring.

You will find the explanation for this in the power and responsiveness of the motor, in the ease of control, in the ease and security and pleasure of driving the Linwood.

The five-passenger Linwood is a blood-brother of the Big Paiges, designed by the same engineers, built of the same high-grade materials and same painstaking workmanship.
