

SPEEDERS BUMP INTO POLICE JUDGE

Nineteen Motorists Are Haled Into Court for Violating Rules of the Road.

DOZEN SUSPENDED FINES

Nineteen apprehensive motorists who had heard of the magistrate's declaration to wage vigilant warfare on all speeders faced Police Judge Madden Tuesday morning.

Twelve of the refractory motorists were arraigned on charges of speeding. "Five dollars and costs," repeated Madden twelve times, and gloom pervaded the court room. Then the police judge, after delivering a lecture and providing each motorist with a copy of the city traffic ordinances with the advice to read carefully, suspended the sentences, much to the joy and delight of the autoists.

The speeders who were given the suspended sentences were Ira Ehrenreich, Edwards hotel; J. Borghoff, 402 North Sixteenth street; W. H. Low, 718 North Thirty-eighth avenue; S. K. Hanford, 120 North Forty-second street; Milton Johnson, 3131 Davenport street; V. Pascale, 4021 Cummin street; Harry Flescher, 1623 Ohio street; L. M. Rogers, 2401 Farnam street; R. J. Mayer, 2344 South Thirty-fourth street; G. R. Turner, 2502 Cummin street; Howard Updegraff, Colbert apartments; Joe Gentile, 906 Hickory street.

Forty New Cars to Be in Service by Early Fall

The street railway company has a force of men at work on forty new cars that are being built in the Omaha shops, but the probabilities are they will not go into service until late during the summer or early fall.

General Manager Smith of the street railway company asserts that on account of being unable to get material and parts for the new cars the work is greatly delayed. This, he says, will hold back the new cars and prevent their going into service as early as originally planned.

Some cars in service now look like new cars, but they are really old cars that have been run through the Omaha shops and have been made to look like new. A number of the old side seat cars have been equipped with regulation front and rear platforms, new motors, new curtains, the short seats and they look like new.

An Excellent Remedy for Coughs and Colds.

You will look a good while before you find a better preparation for coughs and colds than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. George Bryant, Charleston, Ill., in speaking of this preparation, says, "My husband caught a hard cold that settled on his lungs and he coughed terribly. A neighbor advised him to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He bought a bottle of it at the drug store and the first dose relieved him. Before he had taken the contents of the one bottle his cough and cold had entirely disappeared."—Advertisement.

At Last—a Safe Way To Clean the Teeth!

A large percentage of tooth and gum affections is caused by the insoluble grit contained in dentifrices. And yet it is absolutely necessary if the teeth are to be kept perfectly clean and sparkling. Spots and stains simply cannot be removed without the use of grit. But the continued presence of a harsh substance is bound to inflame and weaken the delicate gum tissues, rendering them less resistant to infection, pyorrhea, etc. What then is to be done?

How You Can Make Hairs Quickly Disappear

(Helps to Beauty) Even a stubborn growth of hair will quickly vanish from the face, neck or arms after a single treatment with delatone. To remove the hairs, make a stiff paste with a little powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be left free from hair or blemish. To avoid disappointment, be quite certain you get real delatone.—Advertisement.

City Defers All Contracts When Prices Too High

On account of high prices the city council will defer letting contracts for supplies for this year. Second bids recently opened were higher in most instances than the first lot of bids. Corporation Counsel Lambert advised the commissioners that if they can buy cheaper in the open market it would be public policy to do so until conditions are more normal. Since the opening of the first bids in January the city purchasing agent advised he bought some materials less than prices quoted in the bids. The bids were for crushed stone, cement, castings, coal, sand, asphalt and other materials.

Druggists Offer Their Services to Uncle Sam

Anxious to serve their country to the best of their ability, several out-of-town men have written to navy recruiting headquarters and offered to enlist in commissary or pharmacy departments, in which they have had much civil training.

A. F. Barnes of St. Joseph, Mo., past 45 years of age, wrote from Tecumseh, where he was temporarily on business. He said he was experienced in grocery, drug, dry goods and railroad business and was anxious to use that experience in serving the country's navy in the crisis.

R. E. Listle, a registered pharmacist at Havelock, applied by mail to enlist as a navy pharmacist.

Other similar applications are received daily by the navy recruiters, who are always anxious to enlist men possessing training in professions or trades.

CRAZED BELGIAN PULLS GUN IN COURT

Police Judge Fitzgerald Grabs Him Before Any Shooting is Done.

HAD TROUBLE WITH WIFE

Wresting a gun from the hands of a heart-broken Belgian, Adolph Jacquis, 5035 South Thirty-ninth avenue, when the latter threatened to take his life in the city hall, South Side, Judge Fitzgerald of the police court prevented any serious damage.

Jacquis appeared in court before the morning session opened. He charged his wife with delinquency and demanded that she sign a paper promising to start to work at a packing house at once, deed over to her spouse all property in her possession and also promise not to go away from home at nights or on Sundays. The judge took the part of the young woman and refused to allow such a proceeding.

"You no do this?" the young man demanded with tears in his eyes.

"No," the judge answered curtly.

Draws His Revolver.

Then before anyone had time to interfere Jacquis whipped a revolver from his coat. Before he could use the weapon the judge had jumped on him and wrested the weapon from his hands.

The man screamed in his mother tongue. In broken American he cried, "Give me my gun. Cut my head off. I no want to live with her no more." Prosecutor Fred Anheuser ordered the man arrested. Later the affair was straightened out. The police consented to signing a paper and Mr. Anheuser drew one up. The couple left in happy mood. Jacquis, his wife said, is a hard worker. He is a carpenter at the Armour plant.

Crowd Cheers Raising of Old Glory at Creighton

Students of the dental and law departments of the Creighton university held a flag-raising demonstration at their building on Eighteenth street, between Douglas and Farnam streets, during the noon hour. While two students raised a flag to the top of a new pole on the roof a band on the street played patriotic airs and a gathering of students and passersby cheered lustily.

Omaha Red Cross Nurses Will Meet on Thursday

The local committee of the American Red Cross Nursing service will hold a patriotic meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Nurse Central club, 2420 Harney street. All nurses are urged to attend. Forceful speakers will talk.

Dr. J. M. Banister is to speak to the nurses' committee.

Railroad Chief Says His Road is Afraid of Fines

In reference to the refusal of the Burlington Railroad company to haul as baggage the camp equipment and impedimenta of the soldiers when ordered from place to place, General Passenger Agent Wakeley explains that doing so would be a direct violation of the ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. Wakeley asserts that every passenger traveling on a first class ticket, the kind furnished soldiers, is entitled to carry 200 pounds of baggage in the baggage train on which he is traveling. However, he contends that interstate commerce rules provide that this baggage shall be wearing apparel, or composed of articles having to do with the comfort and convenience of the soldier. The rules of the commission do not take into consideration tentage, camp furniture, cooking utensils or munitions.

Everything, aside from the personal belongings of the soldier, under the ruling of the commission, says Mr. Wakeley, must go by express or freight.

Asserting that to violate the rules of the Interstate Commerce Commission in the matter of handling the camp equipment and impedimenta of the soldiers, says Mr. Wakeley, is the same as violating the rules in other respects and would subject the road doing so to fines.
