McManusCUB SCRUBS FALL
BEFORE ROURKLETSKrug's Men Make Hits Count
and Mark Up 4 to 2 Victory Over Chicago.

BURG MAKES TWO DOUBLES

The Chicago Cub second team is said to be as good as the first team, but it isn't as good as Omaha. The Rourke conclusively proved this point yesterday afternoon by administering a 4-to-2 lacing to the said Cub seconds.

A southpaw gent by the name of Reuther was on the firing line for the Cublets. Reuther is a descendant of the Kaiser. This may have had something to do with the walloping. The timely bingles in each of the following rounds—third, sixth and seventh—proved the undoing of Reuther and his comrades.

In the third Joe BURG started the bombardment with a ripping double to center. Ireland grounded out, but Sling Thompson drew a walk. Pickles Dillinger, second, Ray Schalk, but not quite, unworked, wild heave into left field in a futile attempt to catch BURG off third. Joe romped home and Thompson started the Cubs by chasing to third on the play. The Cubs thought Ty Cobb had rung in on them when they saw Shag negotiate third as well as second.

Then Marty Krug busted a single to right and Thompson counted.

The Cubs put over a run in the fifth on a hit and steal by Schick and a single by Hunter, but this only served to urge the Rourkees on. They marked again in the sixth when Shag Thompson beat out a bunt, was sacrificed to second, took third on a passed ball and scored on Broten's single to center.

Cecil McKles Long Run. Brokaw singled to open the seventh. He was forced at second by Cecil Thompson, after which Cecil gave an exhibition of long distance sprinting by tearing all the way home on BURG's double to left.

The Cubs scored their other run in the eighth on hits by Benton and Schick and Marty Krug's error. Marty O'Toole hurled the first five innings of the game in fine style. Cecil Thompson pitched just as good ball during the tail-end four frames. Hal Brokaw leaped into the spotlight by catching a couple of long foul flies to left in sensational fashion after long runs.

Today the Kansas City American Association club will play two games with the Rourkees at Rourke park. The game starts at 3 o'clock. Score:

Melady Offers Big
Purse for Another
Londos-Pesek Bout

Jim Londos and John Pesek may clash in a third match as a preliminary to the Stecher-Caddock bout at the Auditorium Monday night.

Gene Melady yesterday offered a $300 purse for the event to be divided winner-take-all or any way the combatants desired. Londos immediately accepted and also declared that if Pesek in addition cared to tackle a $500 side bet he would be accommodated.

Londos and Pesek first met in the semi-windup to the Stecher-Peters go in Omaha in February. They went twenty minutes without a fall. Last Wednesday night they again tangled in Shelton, Neb., Pesek's home town. Londos lost on a foul after thirty-seven minutes.

Londos insists he did not foul Pesek. Chris Jordan, who travels with Londos, makes the same assertion and declares that when he attempted to climb into the ring to inquire why the referee declared Pesek the winner, he was forcibly restrained. He says a score of Pesek followers grabbed him and held him back.

Londos is more than eager to meet Pesek again. He says he will jump at the Melady offer. He also says Sioux Falls promoters want to stage a go between him and Pesek and that he is willing on any basis. "I'll even give my share of the proceeds to charity to wrestle him," says Londos. "All I want to do is get him in a ring again."

Pa Rourke left last night for Kansas City where today he will confer with Muggsy McGraw, pilot of the New York Giants, over some players McGraw has promised the Omaha magnum.

The Giants and Detroit Tigers play an exhibition game in Kansas City today, while the Kansas City club comes to Omaha. Rourke will find out if McGraw intends to keep Krueger and Kilduff. Pa will also try to get a pitcher from Muggsy.

The Grade School guards could not stop the independent forwards, while the independent guards proved too much for their opponents. Ben Ravitz and Raymond Tellis were the stars of the contest.

Old St. Louis Cry Heard. The old St. Louis cry, "Look out for the Browns," may not be phony after all. It will be remembered that the Jones family caused considerable trouble in the American league neighborhood at one time last season.

RUSSIAN LOSS IS HEAVY

Petrograd, April 6.—(Via London.)—German forces yesterday took the offensive in the region south of Riga and succeeded in penetrating the Russian lines, says an official statement issued today by the Russian war department. Later the Russians launched a counter attack, drove out the Teutons and restored the position.

Germans Take Prisoners. Berlin, April 6.—(Via London.)—More than 9,000 Russians, fifteen guns and 150 machine guns and mine throwers were captured by the Germans in their attack on the Russian bridgehead on the Stokhod, the war office announces.

French Troops Advance. Paris, April 6.—French troops made a further advance last night on the new lines in the vicinity of Landricourt. Grenade attacks northwest of Rheims enabled the French to regain further positions wrested from them by the German offensive yesterday. The official account of military operations says:

"On the front between the Somme and the Oise artillery fighting was continued in a fairly lively manner during the night. A German counter attack, preceded by a violent bombardment, against our positions north of La Folie farm was checked quickly by our curtain of fire. There were patrol encounters near Hill 116, northwest of La Folie, and in the region of Beaurort, southwest of La fere.

"We made considerable progress north of Landricourt. There was no change between the Ailette and the Aisne.

"Northwest of Rheims counter attacks with grenades enabled us to make progress and recapture further portions of trenches. On the remainder of the front there was intermittent cannonading."

America's Entry
In War Stimulates
Reform in Germany

Copenhagen (Via London), April 6.—America's entry into the war evidently has had an immediate and strong effect upon the reform movement in Germany. The conviction that the instant modernization of the Prussian constitution and the proclamation of a more democratic basis of government and diplomacy in the empire without waiting for the end of the war is necessary as a military and political measure to counteract the "tempest of the world's public opinion," as the Vorwarts puts it, is evidently gaining ground in all except reactionary circles.

The demand that Germany follow the example of Austria-Hungary and declare itself in favor of a peace without annexation is heard from moderate liberal as well as from socialist quarters. This demand no longer represents alone the belief of many thinking persons that annexation, except for slight frontier alterations, would be against the real interests of Germany, but also the realization that after the United States joined the ranks of the enemy the time had passed when Germany could hope to dictate terms of peace or even moderate terms.

The Associated Press correspondent heard this view in even gloomier terms from various sides in Germany at the time of the rupture of relations between the United States and Germany, namely, that if the United States decided to take an active part in the war Germany could no longer hope to gain a victory, but, after holding out for a year and a half or two years, must inevitably submit to the economic pressure of the blockade.

GIVES 25,000 MORE MEN

Washington, April 6.—Orders have been issued mobilizing the navy, including the regular establishment, the naval reserve, the naval militia and the newly organized power boat coast patrol.

The regular naval establishment, comprising the Atlantic fleet and auxiliary services, has been maintained on a war basis since the break in relations with Germany. The mobilization order issued after today's cabinet meeting brings into the federal service about 20,000 or 25,000 additional men and many small boats offered by their owners for coast patrol work.

British Capture Village,
Says Official Statement

London, April 6.—Continuing their attacks north of St. Quentin, the British have captured the village of Lempiere, north of Ronssy. The official communication from headquarters in France adds that prisoners were taken and that large numbers of German dead were found.

The operations in the past week between St. Quentin and Arras, the statement adds, resulted in severe German losses.

States Consul Johnson in Matamoros just across the river.

Rheumatism an Insidious Disease;
Begins with Insignificant Pains

Real Torture Bound to Follow If the First Warnings Are Not Heeded.

Anyone afflicted with the pangs of Rheumatism will tell you that the first pains were hardly noticeable. Slight at first, in fact too insignificant to be heeded, pains increasing very gradually, the disease had them firmly in its grasp before they realized that they were its victims.

Those who have been trying liniments and other external applications will find that they have not reached the cause of the trouble, and that their Rheumatism is back with them again, increasing in severity as the days go by.
