Ten-Story Business Building Will Supplant Hotel On Sixteenth Street.

PLAN ANOTHER STRUCTURE

Wrecking will begin May I on the Schlitz hotel building to make room for the new Wolf-Hiller building, whi is to be erected there as fast as the work can progress. The Wolf-Hiller building is to be a ten-story structure. The acompanying cut is from the architect's drawing. Bids will be opened this week, and the contract let as soon as advisable after that.

that.

The building is to cost upwards of a half million dollars.

Harry A. Wolf had the following to say regarding the new structure:

"The building will be of dark red pressed brick, trimmed with terra cotta. It will have three high class stores on the ground floor and a lobby to the hotel. The upper floors will be occupied by the hotel, which will have 240 rooms, each room with a bath. The building is all rented. The same ten.nts in the present building are all going back except the hotel, which was leased to the Conant Hotel company for a term of twenty years.

NEW WOLF-HILLER BUILDING TO BE ERECTED SOON —Splendid new hotel which is to grace the corner of Six-teenth and Harney streets, where the Schiltz hotel is now located.

WHEAT SELLS FOR RECORD MARK, $2.31

Carload of Spring Wheat Brings This Phenomenal Figure Here.

OPTIONS ADVANCE SHARPLY

Cash wheat sold for $2.31 a bushel on the Omaha market Saturday, the highest price ever recorded for the actual grain at any point west of the Atlantic scaboard.

The wheat that sold at the fabulous price was a carload of No. 2 spring raised in South Dakota, ship-ped by the Farmers' Co-operative Grain company of Wagner, consigned to the Brewsher Grain company of Omaha and sold to the Maney Mill-ing company

Omaha and sold to the Maney Milling company.

While the one car of spring sold at $2.31, five more carloads of the same variety of wheat sold from $2.24 up to $2.28.

Winter wheat, the standard variety on the Omaha market, reached new and former unheard of high levels when it sold up to $2.25, with the low for the grade stuff at $2.20.
