

EASTER PROGRAMS IN OMAHA CHURCHES

Special Songs and Services Will Commemorate Greatest Christian Holiday Here.

DAY OF GREAT REJOICING

Easter, the greatest of Christian holidays, will be celebrated in all of Omaha's Christian churches today by special programs of song and service.

The chimes of Trinity cathedral will peal forth the anthem, "Easter Morning," at 5 a. m., thus officially ushering in the dawn of the day which commemorates the greatest event in the life of Christ—His rising from the dead.

Christian pastors in Omaha have long been preparing for the advent of Easter Sunday. Solists have been engaged for choir service in many of the local churches.

At the First Baptist church the baptisms of a number of recent converts will be observed. At the First Methodist church, Forrest Dennis, Howard Steberg, Myrtle Wyatt and Louise Stratton will sing.
